CHESTERTOWN, - AUG. 22, 1891

GALENA LOCALS.

The Catholic picnic held in McCauley's woods on the 18th inst. was a decided success. There was a very large attendance, a great many from Cecil and Queen Anne's counties, and also from Delaware and all parts of Kent. Everything passed off very pleasantly and the net profit was $175. This being Father Connelly's first venture in holding a picnic it shows well for his popularity.

A certain young man from Locust Grove took a young lady from Galena to the picnic, leaving the grounds about 1 o'clock A. M., returned to Galena with his girl, stopping to get a drink of water and have a farewell talk for the night. The young man's horse got tired waiting and started for home. When the young man came out to go home, to his surprise, his horse and carriage were gone and he had to walk home all the way to Locust Grove. I presume he will be more careful and tie his horse more securely next time or not keep the horse waiting so long.

Dr. Kelley was taken suddenly ill on Tuesday afternoon with virtigo. Drs. Latimer and Scott were called in and soon relieved him, and he is getting along all right now. The doctor is very fleshy and will have to be more careful of himself. Most healthy people when they use the excellent water that our town abounds with and the many good things to be had in Galena will fatten up up very fast.

Mrs. Robinson, wife of the Presbyterian minister has been quite sick for a week or so. Dr. Latimer says she is improving and thinks she will be all right in a short time.

Mr. Dempsy, the man who purchased the Dr. Dulany property expects to occupy it about the first of next month.

Miss Kate Mongon and the Misses Annie and Megina Sweeny, of Philadelphia are visiting Mr. B. J. McCauley.

Sassafras and Galena creamery paid 78c. per hundred pounds for milk for July.

The evaporating of peaches is about to start up again at the Gooding & Taylor's canning house, they expect to commence Thursday next. It is expected that there will be a large force employed as soon as tomatoes ripen, as they expect to put up a great many this season. P.

REPUBLICAN POLITICS.

The Baltimore American is enthusiastic in its endorsement of our fellow-townsman, Col. Wm. J. Vannort, for Governor. In its last Sunday issue is the following:

PUT MR. VANNORT AT THE HEAD OF THE STATE TICKET.

A Good Republican, a Brave Soldier, a Practical Farmer, and a Man Well Fitted to Be Governor of Maryland.

Colonel William Joseph Vannort, of Kent county, is the man to whom all present indications point as the Republican nominee for Governor of Maryland.

The Republicans have been looking around through the counties for a good, strong man to run against Frank Brown. To make the match as complete as possible a farmer appears to be in demand—one who works a farm, and a man against whom the farmers will carry no grievance. They will require that he shall be a faithful party man, and fully as loyal to his organization as the Democrats claim Mr. Brown is. They have found the man in Col. Vannort, whose name has been favorably received in the city and counties as an available, popular and satisfactory man, if he will consent to run. No other name is mentioned for the nomination. Some of his friends in Kent say they believe he will accept the nomination, provided he does not have to make a bitter canvass against other men in party ranks. They think some of the other counties may have prominent men and favorite sons who may receive some votes; but if the action of the convention in naming Col. Vannort is unanimous, or if the nomination is reasonably so, that he will take up the party's standard and carry it from Worcester to Garrett, and from the Susquehanna to Point Lookout, and rally around him the Republicans of the State until election day, in November.

The delegation from Kent county to the State convention is already selected, and Col. Vannort is one of the six delegates who will cast three votes of the county at Ocean City, on August 27. His colleagues are Messrs. James H. Baker, Dr. A. R. Todd, C. T. Westcott, F. H. Harper and Lewis Henry.

HE WAS A BRAVE SOLDIER, TOO.

Colonel Vannort was a strong favorite in Kent county for the congressional nomination last fall. He was born in Chestertown, in 1835, moved to Philadelphia in 1844, and returned to Kent county in 1846. At the age of fourteen he managed two farms during the severe and protracted illness of his father. His early days were spent on the farm, and he did the hard work of driving, ploughing, cutting wood and looking after the hands and crops when he was not going to the county schools, where he received his primary education. He entered Washington College, Kent county, in 1853, and after finishing his collegiate course went to his farm, and thence to Cecil county, and spent two years in mercantile life. When Fort Sumpter was fired upon, and President Lincoln called for volunteers to defend Washington, the young merchant and farmer at once offered his services to the government, and went to the front in the Second Maryland Volunteer Infantry as a private. He remained in the army until the close of the war, and was severely wounded at Snicker's Gap, Shenandoah Valley, Va., by a gunshot wound through the right lung and by a shell in the left leg. He went into the fight as captain, in command of the right company of the regiment, with forty-seven men, and came out with only seventeen left to be carried off the field. When the war was ended the young ex-soldier went back to his store, but the wounds he received weakened his health, and he again returned to his farm. To-day Col. Vannort is one of the most successful practical farmers in the State, and one of the largest fruit-growers in Kent.

For several years Col. Vannort has been an active member of the executive committee of the Kent County Agricultural Association and also its vice president and president. He is now the vice president of the Maryland State Farmes's Association.

Col. Vannort has long held a prominent position among the people of his native county. He served his country faithfully, as his wounds attest, and year after year he has represented his county in county, district and State conventions. He has very agreeable and popular manner, and a good presence. He can make a good speech too, and whenever he comes to Baltimore is certain of a cordial welcome by a large circle of friends and business acquaintances.

LOVED SUNDAY SCHOOL.—One of the most zealous attendants of a certain Sunday school in town went to Baltimore last week to spend several days, including Sunday. When the Ford came Saturday Franky came too, and after much persuasion his father ascertained why he came home so soon. Franky said he thought about Sunday school and as he had not missed a session this year, he was determined not to do so by staying away and so came home!

THE COURTS.—In the Orphans' Court on Tuesday, Stephen M. Thomas, administrator of Mrs. Emma Thomas, passed his first and final administration account, and filed a release from Addie W. Thomas. J. E. Blackiston was appointed guardian for Norris G. Kendall.

The board of county commissioners was not in session.

CROSBY LOCALS.

Our genial host of the "Hotel de Hyland" is quite busy now as he has to lend his assistance in the preparation in the culinary department, but he has time later in the day to hold a consultation with Farmer Brown and Mayor Hodges, and discuss the probabilities of the future.

Our very popular Dr. Selby, of Rock Hall, has made a most successful cure of a bad case of eczema in Mr. John Collison's child. The little girl was almost a complete sore, but under the doctor's hands, in less than two weeks, all signs of the disease had fled, and Dr. Selby's already popularity has spread in Piney Neck.

We had the pleasure of a very enjoyable trip on the tug Texas, Capt. Harp, one evening last week. We got on board at Long Cove wharf and steamed some distance out in Chester river and disposed of our tow to the Hercules and then returned. We enjoyed the trip very much and the kindness of the captain and his crew made us feel that it was a pleasure to them to give the little ones a breath of fresh air, and it is our intention to again, at some time in the near future, take not only one but many more delightful trips.

The Rock Hall baseball club met the Piney Neck club last Saturday, and notwithstanding the Neck boys had a good player from Philadelphia and a player from the Rock Hall nine the game stood 24 to 17 in favor of the Rock Hall club. From what we saw of the game we should say the Rock Hall boys knew they had a walk over and did not exert themselves in the least.

Mr. J. V. Crosby has been visiting relatives in Pennsylvania.

Miss Lillie Shaw is visiting friends in Denton, and will be home next week much recuperated in health and ready to begin her school work September 1st.

Mrs. Albert Cosby, of Oxford, Pa., is visiting his cousin, D. W. Crosby, in Piney Neck, and when Al. goes to preaching there is no telling what great things he might tell us.

A few friends of the Misses Maggie and Alie Sappington, of East Neck Island, spent a very pleasant evening on Tuesday last. Splendid music was discoursed by friend Eugene Willson and his band. We are astonished that Eugene can make as good music as he does when we know that his mind is filled with thoughts of one of Piney Neck's belles. We wonder what he has done with his sling-shot? SYLVANUS.

Kennedyville Items.

Our little village is all activity just now; thousands of baskets of peaches are being shipped daily from our railroad station; the farmers are not realizing great prices for fruit; middlemen and transportation companies are waxing fat at the farmer's expense. Many of our farmers may not be aware that the railroad company is charging an excessive freight-rate, and that each shipper is entitled to a monthly rebate. Call and demand your rebate of the agent and maintain your rights in this matter.

The tomato cannery commenced operations on Wednesday last. A large number of hands are employed, being quite a revenue to our town.

The Baltimore & Delaware Bay Railroad have completed their water tank and pumping engine. Our town should take steps to secure a water supply for the houses from the company.

Much interest is manifested in the Harvest Home celebration to be held in the M. P. Church next Sunday. The ministers advertised to preach have the reputation of being among the finest pulpit orators in the State of Maryland. Added to this the choir of the church have prepared an excellent musical program for each service. There is no doubt that a large crowd will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear eloquence and melody, and attend each service.

The many friends of Rev. J. Martin sympathize with him in the loss of his son, William R., who died at Ocean Grove on Saturday last, of consumption. May the same comfort he has administered to many be his in this affliction. SCRIBUS.

Millington Items.

Peaches are as abundant as last week while buyers are more plentiful. Providence, Boston and New York are represented by gentlemen.

A. H. Preston, of the firm of Preston & Brown of Providence, put good yellow fruit up to $1.00 Thursday, spot cash. Other buyers have to meet his bid using a peach phrase or get left. Shippers are doing fairly well for the quality of fruit that is on the market.

Baskets are being returned and sold here. The factory here as elsewhere can't supply the orders made on them. C. E. Kenish, Boston, is a very liberal buyer. Our old friend Burgenhoff is somewhat out of the market having bought by the orchard. J.

THE descriptive letter of Watkins Glen was forced out this week and will appear with illustrations next week.

BUTCHER THOMPSON has just put in a large dry air refrigerator for use in his meat store.

County and City Taxes.

Following is the rate of county levy in the several counties of Maryland for county taxes and in the city of Baltimore for municipal tax on each one hundred dollars for the year 1891, with a list of clerks as furnished by Dr. S. R. Waters, clerk to the State tax commissioner:

Counties and Baltimore City.	Clerks to Board of Commissioners.	County Tax on each $100
Allegany	John Stewart	87½
Anne Arundel	Francis O. White	81
Baltimore	M. F. Conner	54
Baltimore City	H. P. Mowinckel	$1 55
Calvert	Wm. H. Helen	91
Caroline	Geo. A. Deakyne	92¼
Carroll	Chas. Brilhart	50
Cecil	C. H. Smith	63
Charles	Sam'l C. Padgett	88
Dorchester	John R. Tubman	92¼
Frederick	A. L. Eaden	62
Garrett	John B. Fay	98
Harford	C. W. Proctor	83
Howard	W. J. Robinson	70
Kent	T. Waters Russell	82
Montgomery	W. W. Welsh	90¼
Prince George's	W. D. Pyles	80
Queen Anne's	Olin Bryan	93
Somerset	Thos. H. Bock	95
St. Mary's	Enoch B. Abell	90
Talbot	B. P. Cox	83
Washington	Grafton Downs	78
Wicomico	D. J. Holloway	75½
Worcester	A. B. Nairne	78

To the above county rates must be added 17¾ cents, the State tax, to get the total taxes. Carroll has the lowest tax rate and Garrett county the highest.

SUICIDE AT THE HOUSE OF CORRECTION.—George W. Harrington, an inmate of the Maryland House of Correction, committed suicide at that institution Wednesday evening shortly after six o'clock by hanging himself with a part of the bed-sheet, which he fastened to a hook in the wall of his cell. It is supposed that Harrington sat on the bed and adjusted the sheet to the hook and then leaned forward, causing the sheet to tighten and producing strangulation. He was first noticed after the act by John Edelman, a fellow-prisoner, who reported to Steward John J. Leonard that Harrington was dead. Mr. Leonard went to the cell and found Harrington in a sitting position. The coroner held an inquest over the remains and gave a verdict of suicide. Harrington was about thirty-five years of age, and was received at the institution August 3, having been committed by Justice J. E. Thomas, of Chestertown, for six months, on the charge of assaulting Mrs. B. F. Henley. To the officials he said his home was at Philadelphia, and gave the address 225 North Tenth street, that city, where he is supposed to have a wife. He received a letter from his wife a few days ago, in which she promised to come and see him soon. Harrington had always shown a cheerful disposition and gave no evidence that he contemplated self-destruction. Officer Simpson who arrested him says he was subject to fits.

THE only use that we can see for the demi train now in vogue with the ladies is to sweep the streets.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers yesterday quote as follows:

WHEAT—Longberry, good to prime, 1.07@1.12
CORN—White and Yellow, 72@75c.
OATS—35@38c.

DIED.

On the 12th of August, 1891, near Fairlee, Md., of cholera infantum, JAMES ALBERT, aged 4 months, infant son of Albert and Nellie Spadd.

In Chestertown, Monday, August 17th, 1891, Miss FANNIE ANDERSON in the 80th year of her age. Though she has been feeble for a year past, until two weeks ago she was rather stronger than usual and visited friends in the country. Miss Anderson was a consistant member of the Protestant Episcopal Church and was buried from Emmanuel Church Wednesday, Rev. J. C. Sutton officiating in the absence of Rev. S. C. Roberts, rector of the church. The bearers were Chas. T. Westcott, Wm. S. Walker, Dr. S. Beck, James A. Pearce, W. N. E. Wickes and Benj. N. S. Wilkins.

Of debility at her late residence in Piney Neck, on Lankford's bay, August 8th, 1891, SOPHIA, eldest daughter of Thomas P. Gresham. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her for intelligence, amiability of disposition and exemplary piety. She died in peace and in full possion of her mental powers. E. V. G.

In Memory of Our Dear Teacher.

At her home near Worton Station, on July 22, 1891, Mrs. MARGARET PARKS. The large number of friends and acquaintances present attested the high esteem in which she was held. Her death is a great sorrow to many loved ones at home, and especially to her Sunday-school class. We see only her vacant seat, where once sat one from whom we have had many kind and loving words, directing our thoughts heavenward. How sad to know we can never meet again, but she has gone to a lovelier, brighter home. May we strive to follow in her footsteps and meet her there at Jesus' feet. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to this broken-hearted family, and may they so live that when death comes they may meet her where there will be no parting and all will be joy and peace for ever.

Farewell, dear teacher,
Thine earthly strife is o'er,
Thine earthly sufferings are past,
Jesus thy father has taken thee home,
And thou art free at last.—HER S. S. CLASS.

It is thought proper to publish in connection with this notice the subjoined section of the registration law so far as they are applicable to the counties, which bear particularly upon the powers and duties of the Register and the rights of the citizens:

3. Each of the said officers of registration shall have in addition to the other powers hereinafter conferred upon him by law during the respective times of his appointed sittings, the power of a justice of the peace to preserve order and enforce obedience to his lawful commands at or around his place of registration; to keep the access to such place open and unobstructed; to prevent and suppress riots, tumults, violence and disorder, and all other improper practices at, around or near to his place of registration tending to intimidation or to the obstruction of the work of registration, or the revision of the registration, and to protect and keep safe the registries of voters hereinafter referred to while in his custody and possession; he may compel the presence of witnesses before him while sitting as an officer of registration for all purposes connected with the performance of the duties of his office by summons and attachment; he may while sitting as such officer of registration commit for trial any person committing at or around his place of registration any offense forbidden by this article; he shall have the power to issue any of said summons, attachments or commitments when sitting in any county of this State to the sheriff of said county or to any constable thereof; all processes shall be served by said respective officers in the same manner as if they were issued by the judge of a court of record having jurisdiction of the subject matter or by a justice of the peace exercising police powers within such respective jurisdictions; the sheriff or any constable in any county in this State who shall serve any of said processes shall receive the same fees and in like manner as it is or may be by law provided that he shall receive fees in other State cases, but no officer of registration shall charge or receive any compensation for any service performed under this article except such as is provided by this article.

15. All persons who prior to the passage of this act shall have vacated or removed from or have gone with their parents from the place of their actual abode, domicile, dwelling-place or habitation within this State, and shall have taken a domicile, dwelling-place, abode or habitation out of this State, shall be conclusively presumed to have thereby intended to abandon their legal residence in this State, and to have surrendered their right to registration as legal voters in the State unless within thirty days after the passage of this act they shall go in person befor the clerk of the circuit court for the county from which they shall have so removed or before the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city, if their removal shall have been from said city and make and acknowledge before such clerk an affidavit that when they so removed they did not intend to change their legal residence within the State, but they had a fixed purpose to return at a definite time, and that they intend to return to this State and take up their actual domicile and habitation therein, on or before six months next preceding the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, eighteen hundred and ninety; * * and unless the persons respectively making such affidavits shall actually return to this State and shall actually take up their abode, domicile, or habitation therein six months before the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and ninety, they shall be conclusively presumed to have lost their legal residence therein and shall not be entitled to registration as legal voters, and the officer of registration shall strike off their names from the registry, if they be entered thereon; and after the passage of this act all persons who shall vacate and remove from their actual domicile, abode, dwelling-place or habitation out of this State shall be conclusively presumed to have lost their residence in this State, and shall in consequence thereof become disqualified to vote, unless at or about the time of such removal or within ten days thereafter they shall go in person before the clerk of the circuit court for the county from which they shall so remove, or before the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city, if such removal be from said city, and shall make and acknowledge before him an affidavit declaring that notwithstanding such removal from their domicile, dwelling-place or habitation, they do not intend thereby to change their legal residence, but that they have a fixed and definite purpose to return to this State on or before six months preceding the next succeeding election in November; * * * and if the person making such affidavits shall fail so to return and take up their actual abode, domicile, dwelling-place and habitation in this State on or before six months next preceding such November election, they shall be conclusively presumed to have abandoned such declared intention and shall thereupon become disqualified to vote in this State, and the officers of registration shall refuse to register them as qualified voters, or shall strike off their names from the registry if their names be entered thereon; the clerk before who such affidavit shall be made, shall retain, index and record the same, and shall be entitled to demand and receive for each acknowledgement the sum of thirty cents, and for indexing and recording the affidavits and acknowledgements thereto, the same compensation as is allowed by law for indexing and recording deeds, such costs to be paid to said clerks by the commissioners, and moyor and city council of Baltimore respectively; such affidavits shall not be admissible in evidence as evidence of the right of the person making the same to registration, unless they are recorded within five days from the date of the acknowledgement thereto, and a duly certified copy thereof shall be receivable in evidence in the same manner as a certified copy of a deed; false swearing in any such affidavits shall be deemed to be perjury, and shall be punishable as purjury is by the Code of Public General Laws, article twenty-seven, title 'Crimes and Punishments,' sub-title 'Purjury;' said officers of registration shall require the production of such affidavits duly recorded, or a duly certified copy thereof in all cases where they shall reason to suspect that the person applying to be registered as a qualified voter has lost his residence by reason of his removal from the State as hereinbefore mentioned, and they may also in any such cases put any question which they may deem proper to such applicant concerning the place where he dwelt in the county or legislative district before such removal out of the State, his occupation before such removal and since, the time when he so removed, and when he returned, and all other pertinent facts and circumstances touching the right of such person to be registered, and they may require the truth of the answers of all persons to such questions to be corroborated by independent evidence if in their discretion they shall think proper; and if in answer to their questions or upon testimony produced before them it shall appear to their satisfaction that the person applying to be registered had left the State without any intention of returning at some definite time in the future he shall not be entitled to register as a legal voter.
