Kent News.

CHESTERTOWN, - OCT. 17, 1891

Terms: $1 Per Annum in Advance.

THE County Treasurer will be at Rock Hall to-day.

BALTIMORE COUNTY promises 1800 Democratic majority.

SENATOR GORMAN speaks in Easton today. He will be the guest of Hon. C. H. Gibson.

THERE are eighteen prisoners in our jail. It is hoped the court and jury will dispose of them in short order next week, as the cost to the county is awful.

BALTIMORE CITY has 92,832 registered voters—a gain of 7,000 in one year! This speaks well for Maryland's metropolis. May she continue to grow!

Rock Hall News.

Mr. Charles T. Casey, a much respected citizen, and father of ex-Sheriff Jas. A. Casey, died between 3 and 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mr. Casey had been a sufferer for the last five years, from paralysis, which he bore with Christian fortitude.

Mr. Lemuel Ayres, of the Haven, planted a piece of land 30x30 feet, 27 hills of pumpkins, reaping therefrom 87 pumpkins. The average weight of 73 of them was 16 lbs. and the average of the remaining 14 was 25 pounds.

Prof. Hawks entertainment was not as well attended as it was hoped it would be, but the professors need not attribute it to a lack of appreciation on the part of the community for a good thing. We have been humbugged so often in the past that there is always present a distrust in nearly everything that stops in out midst in that line.

Many of our oystermen have forsaken the Chester river side, the oysters having become so scarce in the river is the cause, 5 bushels being a big day's work for one man and culler. Were it not for the high prices many would be compelled to seek other employment, of course there are some men who will catch 15 or 20 bushels now and then, from deep water where the oysters are small and almost worthless, who are lucky enough to find a buyer that will buy them and mix them in with good stock and be able to dispose of them.

An oysterman's meeting has been announced, but the oystermen about here are slow to become interested in such affairs, they seem to think it is useless. Such meetings they think are mere blinds and fakes, but unless the oystermen get togeth-er in all the tide water counties and discuss the situation and plan for their own interests, they will find that others will not plan to their benefit perhaps. Our legislators will not have sufficient knowledge as to the oystermen's wants to enable them to protect their interests in the legislature, next winter, so the result may be disastrous. In unity there is might. Combine oystermen, for your own good. Subscribe for and read the local papers, get posted upon all matters relating to your interests, and be ready to lend a hand towards proper legislation, and proper enforcement of the law. Kent is just as intelligent as any other oystering community. To arms then before the battle gets too hot. Let not Kent be behind her sister counties.

It is hard for the public of this section to understand why a first-class steamboat should be taken from the Rock Hall route to Baltimore, and an old played out shallop put on instead. The Gratitude on Monday had to stop in the bay it is said to doctor up her worn out machinery. On Tuesday her shaft failed to work at her wharf here, and in the bay had to slack up and get another dose, and failed to return in the evening. Thus throwing public interests out of shape.

The schooner Edna and Alice have entered the oyster trade, started out with a crew of three men, all first-class captains and cooks; therefore good engineering and good tables will be in order every day. R.

The Plan Indorsed.

The following letter is written by a practical gentleman of Chestertown and the oystermen should act upon it. The letter is an indorsement of the suggestions published in the NEWS last week.

CHESTERTOWN, Oct. 16, 1891.

I heartily agree with my friend from Queenstown and every oysterman ought to read last week's KENT NEWS, and make known their thoughts. Don't stand back and wait until your oysters are all gone! you acknowledge their scarcity; you know there are more engaged in the business than ever before, and it necessarily follows that something must be done. Go together and make a law that you can understand, one that the lawyers can't add to or take from—that law is Big Stones distributed on your bars. There will then always be oysters stuck on them, and by having a few shells scattered over the bars the spat from the oysters on the stones will soon tell the tale. Choose a bar and have it tested. B.

THE ex-president has named his baby Ruth Cleveland.

DON'T MISS the sumptuous supper of roast pig, oysters, chicken, salads, &c., &c., &c., &c., at Stam's Hall next THURSDAY evening.

MOODY'S Inside Track Arrangement for the sale of Clothing seem to be fully appreciated by our people. He is one of us and is here to stay. Read what he says in his advertisement and go and see him, for he is going to deal justly with all.

THE universal desire is to accumulate money. We've no patent plan to suggest, but an eminently practical one to present to our readers whereby they can effect this desirable object and that is: Read carefully the mew Fall and Winter advertisement of Oehm's Acme Hall, Largest Clothiers; Furnishers and Hatters for Men and Boys. Abundant satisfaction will attend your trading and the dollar you invest will return you a full third more in the way of quality and style than if spent elsewhere.

We have received the following resolutions of respect, passed by the class-mates and associates of the late John Wilson at Dickinson College. The resolutions were accompanied by a request that we publish them, with which request we gladly comply:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom, suddenly to remove from among us our beloved class-mate, John Wilson; and

WHEREAS, We, the class of '93, of Dickinson College, deeply deplore the death of our beloved class-mate, and desire to show our sense of loss and our grief at his sad death; therefore, be it

Resolved, That while we the class of '93 realize the extent of our loss, and bewail our heavy bereavement, we bow in humble submission to the Divine will.

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to his grief-stricken relatives and friends.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, and that they be published in his county papers and "Dickinsonian."

Kennedyville Locals.

Our farmers are busy sowing wheat, so much so that matters social, political and religious are at a stand-still. For the time being "wheat" is monarch of all he surveys.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the Democratic rally in Chestertown, and all came home thoroughly drenched in the doctrines of "Old Hickory."

A Loyal Temperance Legion has been organized in this town, under the supervision of Mrs. Jas. E. Weer. Meetings will be held every Saturday afternoon in the M. P. Church.

Walter Melvin, our popular blacksmith, is out again after a long siege of sickness.

Rev. Q. L. Morrow is upon the sick list. He is engaged for a series of temperance lectures in Wicomico county next week.

Mrs. Hannah Reid, of Philadelphia, has been visiting Mrs. John Barwick.

Miss Mattie Miers, of Galena, is visiting Miss Minnie Hessner.

If the county sheriff should deputize the energetic and faithful town bailiff of Chestertown, Amos Kelly, he could find ample work in continuing the arrest of illegal whiskey sellers visiting our town. SCRIBUS.

"KENT IS OUR HOME!"

WE ARE equally as much interested in our sister county, Queen Anne's, and we expect to live with our people. Now in order to live in harmony we must do right. This we fully appreciate the length, breadth and depth of, and and intend to put up a barrier at the start and keep it up against anything pertaining to injustice towards our fellow man. We are very much encouraged even so early, for our business is increasing daily. We appreciate this from a fellow-feeling as well as from a business point of view, and it don't take long for close observers to grasp a position like ours, viz.:

First Hands, Small Expenses and No Old Stock!

We give you Nice, Clean, Well-fitting Garments, such as was never in the county, for at least 10 per cent. less than you can buy old stock for. I tell you we are fixed to do business and it is only a matter of a short while when all will see it. We are here to accommodate with anything a family can want in a suit. We have the Shorts & Stouts, the Harris Cassimeres, Cheviots, Clay Worsteds, and our line of Fancy English Goods is simply magnificent. We can please you in any conceivable style, and the price on anything in our establishment is marked in plain figures so that even those not so well posted in values can see at a glance the advantage of

OUR INSIDE TRACK ARRANGEMENT.

We quote no prices on paper; it don't amount to anything; demonstration by handling the garment is the argument. Splendid line of OVERCOATS just received, all came direct from Baltimore and New York manufacturers. Come and see me.

When You are About to Purchase Your Fall Supply of Fertilizers Remember That

T. R. HUBBARD & SON

Are Entitled to Your First Consideration.

TRADE MARK

BECAUSE
They are home manufactures as well as the pioneer manufacturers of the Shore, and if home industries are not encouraged by home people, from whom may they expect help?

BECAUSE
They are in a position to give you more for the money than anybody else, buying largely as they do and accordingly low, and sell to you direct, thereby saving you a profit.

BECAUSE
They have the latest and the best equipped Fertilizer Machinery, and are at less expense than the city man, and do not take advantage of this saving in selling you.

BECAUSE
They put their goods up in 167-lb. bags as well as always have them in first-class drilling condition and sell all goods delivered without freight, on time if desired.

BECAUSE
They have held their trade, some of their customers having dealt with them for fifteen consecutive years, and some of these very people have threshed this season the largest yield they ever had.

BECAUSE
Just as sure as 2 and 2 make 4, it stands to reason that the more solid value you can buy for the least money, the more money there will be left to go in your pocket.

We are still offering Our A. A. Bone Superphosphate still at $27, time, although some materials have advanced, and our Imperial Compound at $22, time.
