DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE:
DR. ENOCH GEORGE CLARK,
THOMAS ROMAINE STRONG.

FOR SHERIFF:
THOMAS STEPHEN DODD.

FOR SURVEYOR:
MILTON MELVIN.

Election Tuesday, November 7th, 1893.

AT TWO O'CLOCK this afternoon primaries will be held in each district to elect delegates to the county convention to meet next Tuesday to elect delegates to the State convention, which meets in Baltimore Sept. 27, to nominate a candidate for State Comptroller. There should be a good attendance at all the meetings, as one of our own county's worthily honored sons is heartily endorsed in every other section of the State. Kent should not only give him a unanimous support—no one doubts that she will do this—but that support should be made apparent. Turn out this afternoon. Let there be full delegations to town on Tuesday and a strong, representative delegation be selected to the State convention which will give potent voice to the desires of gallant Old Kent at this time.

IT now takes a full column of the Baltimore dailies to record the daily registers of Marylanders at the World's Fair.

WHEAT is now advancing. Best grades went as high as 75cts. on Thursday in Baltimore. The tendency is still upward.

OUR friend Aiker, of the Queenstown News, tells us what he thinks about oyster laws in an able article on our first page.

BALTIMORE is to have a new theatre to cost $200,000 and to be located on Lexington street. It will be open in about one year.

THE corn crop in Western Maryland will be very light. The Frederick Citizen says that farmers in that section will be lucky if enough is saved for seed and food for the winter.

Two of the members of a trio of conspirators who had arranged to defraud insurance companies of amounts aggregating $14,000 through the fictitious drowning of one of their number were captured in Philadelphia last Wednesday.

THE DOVER FAIR has been very successful this week. The attendance each day was very large and the trotting fine. In the bicycle race on Wednesday, George Hewett, of Smyrna, won both heats. Time 1.28, 1.26, half mile.

SENATOR VOORHEES made the first move on Thursday toward bringing to a close the debate on the bill to repeal the silver-purchase act. He wants general debate to close next Wednesday, but whether such a conservative body as the Senate will take any measures to force a close remains to be seen. The silverites are doing all the talking. It is about time they were getting tired.

THE Centreville Observer strikes the nail square on the head thus: "The ridiculous sight of a convention called to nominate candidates for judges of the court, divided off in equal numbers so as to lock the convention and prevent nomination, such as has been witnessed at Ocean City would make people laugh if the matter was not a serious one. The thing is abusurd. The people at home expect no such trifling, and the people outside the circuit, who are interested in the chief judge because he is a member of the appelate bench, will hold somebody responsible for such trifling."

Kent Cases in the Court of Appeals.

The Maryland Court of Appeals will begin the fall term October 2, with fifty-six cases on the docket. Arguments will commence the second day, October 3, the assignment being the first five cases on the docket. They are as follows: 1, Dirickson and others vs. Corning, appeal from the decision of the land office; 2, Webster vs. the Cambridge Female Seminary and others, from Dorchester county; 3, Morris, widow, and others vs. Satterfield, assignee of Akers et al., from Caroline county; 4 Coulbourn vs. Fleming use of Hynson, and 5, Clark vs. Vannort, Kent county. No. 6, McNiece vs. Eliason, and 7, same vs. same, are also from Kent.

A Valuable Book.

The Baltimore Sun, with its usual enterprise, distributed at the World's Fair on Maryland Day, a most valuable book entitled "A State's Resources," showing all the advantages of the State in a nut shell, its geographical position, its extensive water area and power, the influence of its climate, its education facilities, its delightful home comforts, &c. The book will be a valuable reference book of our State, by counties and sections.

ALL the great newspapers this week have editorials on the "little sister" which arrived at the Presidential mansion last Sunday. Our Monumental city cotemporary, The Sun thus talks: "Mr. Cleveland has broken the presidential record in more ways than one, but never in a more agreeable or commendable manner than by the good luck or good management which has enabled him to be the first national Executive to have a child born to him in the White House." The Sun further suggests that the new-comer be named Frances, and says she will always be worth everywhere one hundred cents on the dollar! No doubt.

OUR neighboring town of Elkton is certainly getting a bad name. A telegram to the Baltimore Sun of Wednesday says: Thomas Tyson, while passing down Main street about 1 o'clock this morning, was set upon by footpads and robbed of twenty-five dollars pension money. Another victim of footpads is James McConnell, a resident of the fourth election district, who likewise came to Elkton to get his pension. He states that last night about 10 o'clock he was assaulted by two men and robbed of twenty dollars. His gold watch was not taken.

THE Philadelphia boat has discontinued her trips to Chester River for the present.

A Millington "Case."

About twenty good citizens of our sister town, Millington, including the town magistrate, the bailiff, "city father," and other officials and business men, were in Chestertown last Thursday seeking "justice" in our magistrate's courts.

Two cases were presented, one before Justice Thomas and the other before Justice Johnson. Justice Thomas heard the first, in which Martin L. Warner, the Millington town officer, was charged with unjustifiable arrest and maltreatment by Jos. Philips, of Queen Anne's. We heard all the testimony in the case, and because of the general interest in Millington intended to publish it in the NEWS, but as the case is to go to the Circuit Court we think it best not to publish anything to further prejudice the public mind on either side, as there is entirely too much bitterness engendered already. Our Circuit Court will deal out impartial justice to all concerned. Justice Thomas heard the following witnesses in the case before him: Jos. Phillips, Martin L. Warner, Francis A. Smith, Dr. W. H. Jacobs, Wm. H. Loper, John W. Miller, Fred Walls, Willard H. Scotten, John P. Ahern, Chas. H. Harris, Chas. Hart, John Moore, Fritz Woodholler, Daniel Duhamel, J. E. Biscoe, N. D. Clough, Robert Groff, John Duling and Thomas M. Britton. The justice gave judgment against the constable, and imposed a fine of $10 and costs, when the latter appealed to the Circuit Court.

Before Justice Johnson Mr. Warner presented Joseph Philips for resisting him a sworn officer in the discharge of his duty, and the justice held Phillips in $200 bail for court, Messrs. John Kailip and Willard H. Scotten entering as his bondsmen.

Grand Tournament and Bazaar.

A grand tournament and bazaar will be held at Worton fair grounds, next Saturday, September 23rd. The prizes offered are large and consist of cash. There is said to be much interest in Worton in the Tournament. The greatest contest yet known in this line will take place between Messrs. W. W. Duyer and Wm. W. Stephens, two champion riders. Either of them can take a finger ring, and have won numerous prizes. Many other young riders will try their nerve. Dinner and supper will be served by the ladies of Worton and Church Hill Presbyterian Churches, and at night a "Rainbow Bazaar" will be held. Everything will be done to make it a gala day and a pleasant time. See advertisement in advertising columns for particulars of prizes, etc.

CHESTER BRIDGE is all right again. The fearful storm and flood of Aug. 29th tried its timbers severely and it was feared that the two counties would be at very heavy expense for its repair. But we are glad to say that under the supervision of Messrs. Groves and Newnam, of the two commissioner boards, all the damage has been repaired and the bridge is as good as ever at the very trifling expense of less than seventy-five dollars all told for work and material. The most damage was on the Queen Anne's side of the river where the strongest current struck it, and about one-third of the bridge was moved six inches up the river. It required some pretty nice work and heavy pulling to get it back in place. Mr. H. M. Stuart did the work.

ADVENTISTS IN TROUBLE.—On Monday last Constable Morris, of Winchester, Queen Anne's county, arrested Messrs. Alex. Dodd and Joseph Warren, of the Adventist faith, for working on the preceeding Sunday. They were taken before Justice Kerr for trial, and waived a hearing. They were held under bail for the November term of court.

THE 19th annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union meets in Annapolis Sept. 26th, 27th and 28th. One delegate is allowed for each union and one for every twenty-five paying members, and unions are requested to be well represented. Reduced rates have been secured on the railroad, and Capt. Cundiff of the Sassafras river line, gives half fare for all delegates and visitors attending the convention. Railroad tickets can be had of Mrs. L. M. Corey, Melitota.

THE CECIL FAIR last week was a grand success both in attendance and general management. The 2.30 class trot on Thursday was one of the most interesting events of the fair. Seven horses entered and W. H. Pierson's b. m. Ida S. won after five heats; James Mckee's b. g. Tommy M. won the first and second heat and was second in the third heat. Best time 2.33. 'Grover S." belonging to Mr. W. W. Stephens, won a brilliant victory. In the 2.50 class which was carried over until Saturday on account of darkness, the fourth heat was won by Zilla B. in 2.30½, and the fifth heat and the race was captured by Grover S., the Baltimore horse, in 2.30. Second money went to Zilla B. and third money to Hazel.

Among the horses that trotted one was bought for $90 two days previous and which was taken from a grocery wagon. While at the fair he won for his new owner $300.

At the Fair ball, held in Odd Fellows' hall on Friday night, the following young gentlemen from Kent attended: L. W. Wickes, W. W. Beck, and H. W. Catlin and C. E. Plumly, of Philadelphia.

A "FREAK OF NATURE."—A curious sheaf of field corn is at the NEWS office from the field of Mr. J. Levin Gale, of near Rock Hall. It is a stalk of ordinary yellow corn, with two ears in proper position, and in addition three shoots almost as tall as the parent stalk and each one of them topped off with a good solid ear of corn! We have seen a good deal of corn but nothing to equal this. Mr. Gale's corn crop is also an exception in another respect. He says it is the largest he has ever grown, and requests us to say that he used Hubbard's phosphate to secure such good results.

MISS DILHOFER has rented the large brick building on High street, up town, and known as the Boyd house, where she hopes to be able to open her laundry next week.

Mr. T. Ogden Harris, of Philadelphia, special agent, and Mr. L. B. Russell local agent, of the Continental Insurance Co., have settled the loss of that Company sustained in the late fire. Miss Kate Dilhofer was paid Sept. 7, $1120 on her furniture, stock merchandise and damage on frame dwelling, and Mr. George Dilhofer received $850 for dammage to his brick dwelling.

THE members of the Centreville bar dined with Chief Judge Robinson on Friday of last week. The Record says "the occasion was one of the most enjoyable affairs of any kind ever held in the county and more numerously attended."

THE Republicans of the First Judicial Circuit will meet in convention in October, and its action will depend upon the outcome of the Democratic convention at Ocean City. If it is decided to make nominations, Hon. Thomas S. Hodson, of Somerset, is likely to be one of the nominees.

The Oyster Season.

Yesterday, Sept. 15, inaugurated the oyster tonging season, and Dr. Fisher, our county clerk, did the best he could to accomodate this worthy class—the oyster tongers—to save them the trouble of coming to Chestertown. Deputy Clerk F. H. Greenwood attended at different points convenient to the tongers the past week and supplied the license to all who desired and were prepared to take them. The number issued up to this date is as follows:

	WHITE.	COLORED.	TOTAL.
Rock Hall	135	3	138
Edesville	12	10	22
Pine Neck	31	5	36
Quaker Neck	33	1	34
Broad Neck	3	0	3
Betterton	2	0	2
Chestertown	2	0	2
Total	218	19	237

This is fifty short of the number issued last year up to the opening of the season, and ever five hundred short of the full number. There were issued all told last year 742 tonging license. So that only about one third of the tongers are now ready for business.

THE WILL of the late Thomas W. Eliason was admitted to probate last Tuesday. It is a lengthy document, carefully drawn, and in the handwriting of the deceased. It makes no special bequests but leaves the whole estate to his two sons, Thomas and Wilbur, to be divided between them equally. The estate is one of the largest ever administered in this county. Thomas W., Jr., is made executor with the provision that he shall give no bond other than that required by law, which amounts to only $2,000.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE MATRON.—At a meeting of the board of visitors last Monday evening, Mrs. Emma E. McFeely was elected matron of Washington College, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mrs. Laura C. Thomas—to enter upon duty Dec. 21st next. Miss Mary Thomas, daughter of the deceased, was elected matron to serve from the beginning of the session, next Wednesday, until the date fixed for Mrs. McFeely's term to commence. Mrs. M. is the wife of Mr. Wm. J. McFeely, one of our most estimable citizens. Mr. M. will close out his grocery business and give all his time in aiding his wife to conduct the responsible duties of college matron.

A VERY PRETTY monogram "W & B" ornaments the central glass in the front of Mr. Thomas S. Wickes' new business house, now nearing completion on High street.

OFFICER WARNER had a half dozen citizen of Millington up before Justice Johnson last Monday on the charge of gambling on Sunday. The justice held all the parties for court.

FARM SOLD.—J. A. Pearce, Esq., sold last Tuesday the farm near Kennedyville, belonging to Mr. Chas. L. Gill, and containing 137 acres, to Miss Marietta Loud, mortgagee, at $24 per acre.

MANY FARMERS of Kent and Queen Anne's are securing labor from Baltimore for cutting off corn, etc. The hordes of tramps have nearly all taken their departure from Kent. Joy go with them.

"ADAM'S RIB" is the subject of an interesting lecture to be delivered at Kennedyville next Friday evening by Rev. L. E. Barrett, one of the most eloquent and able ministers of the Wilmington conference. He should be greeted with a full house.

THE farmers in the neighborhood of Fairlee are moving for a creamery in that neighborhood. By reference to notice in another column it will be seen that a meeting will be held this afternoon at 1 o'clock to consider the matter.

THE LIME BUSINESS.—Mr. B. F. Fleming requests us to say that the loss of his boat will not interfere in the least with his lime business. His loss by the burning of his boat is about $3,000, but he is fully prepared to deliver lime to all purchasers.

THE horses attached to the peach wagon of Mr. W. E. DeFord ran off, while the driver was temporarily absent Wednesday morning from the Chester river wharf, and caused some excitement on Water street. They were captured without having done any damage.

THE Smyrna Times says that "some Chestertown coons" behaved very badly in Smyrna last Sunday. Did they get their whiskey in Smyrna? Pity the disorderly ones were not arrested and the good name of our Chestertown colored people protected.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE opens its doors for the fall term next Wednesday. The outlook is said to be brighter than ever. Every friend of the institution should speak and act in its favor. Croaking and faultfinding never did anybody or anything any good.

MISS BAKER and Miss Roberts' kindergarten and school will open next Monday. This is one of the finest schools for smaller children we have ever had in Chestertown, and in every way deserves the patronage of the community.

THE store-rooms now vacant in the Westcott building, corner of high and Queen streets, have both been rented for the next year. W. H. Blakeney takes one and C. M. Lucas the other. Mr. George Rouse will enlarge his business and occupy the Lucas store room. Notwithstanding the dull times houses for rent in Chestertown are very scarce.

A DREDGE CAPTAIN RE-ARRESTED.—Capt. Winfield S. Boyer, a dredge boat captain, who was under bail for his appearance at last April court, and did not turn up, was re-arrested in Baltimore last Tuesday and brought to Chestertown by Deputy sheriff Carroll and lodged in jail, where he will likely remain until October court.

SWAPPED FARMS.—We don't often hear of a farm swap. The Centrevill Observer records one: Messrs. Samuel Chance and James Mullikin, living near Queen Anne, have exchanged farms, Mr. Chance taking the Mullikin farm, thus having all of his in one large tract, and Mr. Mullikin taking the "Sidel" farm, and paying one thousand dollars difference.

THE following bids were received by the school board on Tuesday, for building a colored school-house at Millington: Staveley & Bowers, $580; Rob't K. Pippin, $557; George H. Cannan, $492; S. W. Rawleigh, $485, W. F. Malin, $475. Mr. Malin being the lowest bidder, the board will give the contract to that gentleman.

MR. H. CALDWELL CREW has opened a commission house in Philadelphia, and he will have with him his brother, Mr. P. E. Crew, who is well known and experienced in the business; the last named has wide experience with many shippers of Maryland and Delaware; with the two together the shippers of fruit and produce will do well to give them a trial.

THE Towson, Md., Protestant Episcopal rectory was robbed of $500 worth of dress goods on Wednesday night last.

Valuable Property.

BY VIRTUE of authority conferred by the will of Richard T. Turner, I will offer for sale in front of the Court House Door, at Chestertown, Md., on

"SCOTT'S POINT."

This property consists of about

4 ACRES of LAND,

on Chester river, at the county town, with about 300 feet of WATER FRONT, improved by a Wharf, Saw Mill and Planing Mill.

The wharf can be used by either vessels or steamers plying the river, and also for the storage of lumber, coal and other traffic, and is connected with the mill by car tracks laid with iron rails. This track continues on through the mill and back the entire length of the lumber yard. On the wharf are TWO STORAGE BUILDINGS. Also, another Building used in part as office, balance as paint room and storage room. The MILL is a FRAME BUILDING with Iron Roof, and contains

1 FORTY-HORSE ENGINE and BOILER,
1 CIRCULAR SAW MILL,
1 CROSS-CUT SAW, LATHE MACHINE,
FLOORING and SURFACING "
MOULDING MACHINE,
SASH and DOOR MACHINE,
BELTING, ETC., ETC.

Chestertown has a population of about 2600. The town is growing, making a constant demand for lumber. The country around is productive, and the farms are being improved by new buildings. Chestertown is the centre of trade for the county; has rail communication with the upper half of the county and Philadelphia; water communication daily by steamer with Baltimore and the lower half of the county, and by sail vessel with all prominent points of the county not touched by rail or steamer. There are only four or five other lumber yards in the county, hence this property is very desirable as an investment.
