Kent News.

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

SATURDAY, - - - JUNE 9, 1894

CONGRESS has refused by a large majority vote to repeal the State bank tax. The Democratic National platform demanded this repeal. Therefore Congress is not Democratic! Does this always follow?

HAMPDEN H. DASHIELL, ESQ., of Princess Anne, has been appointed by President Cleveland as collector at Crisfield, Md. The salary is $2,000. The appointee is a gentleman of the highest character and worth as a citizen, and we congratulate the "lower Shore" upon honoring such a sterling Democrat.

BALTIMORE was stirred up last Tuesday by the Governor's call upon the militia to go to Cumberland to preserve order in the coal mines. The fourth and fifth regiments quickly responded and went down on special trains. The thousands of relatives and friends of the soldier boys were interested, of course, and this has been the general theme of conversation in the city ever since. The newspapers there were in luck. It was hard to buy a morning daily at noon on Wednesday, and the Evening News with its full accounts of the movements of "the boys" went like hot cakes.

A "Times" Opinion.

The Philadelphia Times is recognized as one of the ablest dailies in the United States. It has done valiant service for the Democracy and especially for tariff reform. It ranks among the highest class journals not only as a news-gatherer but for its editorial ability and fair criticism of public men and measures. We say this much to indicate the value of its opinion on pending legislation. In its issue of last Thursday it has an able editorial on the Senate tariff bill in which it says of "sugar"—

"If the monopoly tariff organs could be believed the tariff battle in the Senate for the last month has been a contest solely in the interest of the Sugar Trust that ended in the complete triumph of that monopoly. Telling the truth about the tariff seems to be one of the lost arts of monopoly partisan journals. If they told their readers the truth in regard to the sugar schedule in the new tariff they would say that it gives the sugar monopoly just one-fourth the protection given it by the McKinley tariff of 1890, that was heartily defended by all of these same monopoly organs when the tariff of 1890 was under consideration."

The Times then goes on to show the great advantages of the proposed new tariff and closes as follows:

"THE SENATE HAS DONE ITS DUTY MANFULLY. It has provided largely increased revenue without materially increasing the taxes upon the people; it has stopped the vicious system of paying bounties out of the national Treasury to sugar growers; it has reduced the protection to the Sugar Trust from one-half cent to one-eighth of a cent per pound, and the taxes which the people pay upon sugar will go into the public Treasury to furnish the needed revenues for the government. The Senate has done well; let it hasten its good work to completion."

Mr. Raynor Speaks.

Congressman Isidor Raynor, one of Maryland's most able men, and a brilliant orator, made a speech in the House on Monday last against the unconditional repeal of the State bank tax. He made a strong appeal against renewing a system which had once bankrupted the country. He conceded the defects in the national banking system, but claimed that it could be remedied to meet every emergency. The closing portions of Mr. Raynor's speech were listened to with the closest attention, and his conclusion was greeted with an outburst of applause, in which even those who oppose him joined with great heartiness.

IT is announced that Senator Gorman will go to Atlantic City for ten days, in order to a full recuperation of his health, which was so impaired by over work.

"THE ENTERPRISE" is enlarged this week to thirty-two columns. It is neatly printed and well edited, doing credit to the enterprising publisher, Mr. L. Bates Russell, and his efficient printer, Mr. J. Frank Davis. They have our best wishes.

Tolchester's Opening.

We have heretofore given a full description of the improvements at Tolchester for the season of '94. The reopening took place on Friday of last week. Capt. Eliason had a number of guests from Baltimore and Kent county, and treated them royally. At 5½ a splendid banquet was enjoyed at the hotel and at its close congratulatory resolutions were passed and Capt. Eliason responded to the same in a brief speech. Manager Geo. E. Nowland and Mr. W. A. Potts are as clever and accomodating as officials can possibly be and their popularity has much to do with the great success of this noted resort.

SALE OF LOGS.—The Stray Log Committee of the Lumberman's Exchange, of Williamsport, Pa., will sell at public sale, at the Courthouse in Williamsport, Pa., on Wednesday, June 13th, all the logs that have escaped the booms at Williamsport and passed down the Susquehanna river. The logs are divided into sections, this section extending from the B. & O. Railroad bridge down to and including all in the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries, estimated at 50,000,000 feet, more or less.

TWO DECISIONS.—Last week, Judge Stump decided that interest could be left off a note, or account, to allow suit on the claim before a Justice of the Peace. The question arose in a case appealed from a magistrate of the Circuit Court for Talbot county. The cause of action was a promissory note for $98, upon which two years interest had accrued. To bring the claim within the jurisdiction of a Justice of the Peace, the holder of the note sued for $98, the principal of the note only. The debtor admitted the indebtedness but claimed the Justice had no jurisdiction because the interest due on the note carried it above $100, the limit of his jurisdiction. The Justice gave judgment for $98, and, upon the appeal of the debtor, the Court affirmed it.

At the last session of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's county, the Court decided in an appeal case, that a part of the principal of an account could not be omitted for the purpose of bringing the account within the jurisdiction of a magistrate. In this case the suitor left off his account several items so as to reduce it below $100, and sued on the reduced account before a Justice of the Peace, who gave him judgment. The debtor appealed and the court reversed the judgment and non suited the claimant.

THE army worm is invading the wheat fields of Kent. No serious damage has as yet resulted.

STATE AND COUNTY POLITICS.

The "Clans" in Baltimore—Who for Congress?—Dates Fixed for Conventions—Kent Without Aspirants.

This is an "off year" in politics, there being no offices to be filled by election except Congressional. Governor Brown has, however, as stated last week, interjected a little of next year's campaign into this by the announcement of his candidacy for re-election, and this has been a theme for general comment. Most of the papers throughout the State have a good word for the Governor. He has had his mind fully occupied this week with matters outside of politics, though possibly having some bearing upon his personal ambitions—that is, the use of the militia in suppressing the coal strike disorders in Western Maryland.

The meeting of the State Central committees of both the Democratic and Republican parties in Baltimore this week may be considered the opening of the congressional campaign.

The lobbies of the Carrollton Hotel were alive on Wednesday with politicians and others. The Eastern Shore was well represented. The following Kent county Democrats were among the throng, namely: Messrs. Harrison W. Vickers, A. F. Huey and Geo. W. Hatcherson, State Central Committee for the county; Comptroller Marion deK. Smith, Senator Wm. T. Hepbron, Hope H. Barroll, Dr. Samuel Beck, Richard D. Hynson, Wm. B. Usilton, John Brice, Joseph E. Gilpin, Lewin W. Wickes, Wm. W. Beck, Jervis Spencer, Lemuel Stevens, A. H. Crawford, A. I. Dugan.

Some of the Baltimore papers singled out a number of these as aspirants for Congressional honors and had them reported as "watching each other's movements," etc.; one writer went further and described a factional contest as already on in Kent, with certain gentlemen arrayed against each other; all of which is the purest fiction. Those who know anything about Kent county politics simply laugh at such "reports."

As yet there is no Kent candidate in the field. A number of gentlemen are talked of. J. A. Pearce, Esq., has been freely discussed, but he states most positively that he would not accept the nomination—for either "long" or "short term"—if tendered him. H. W. Vickers, Esq., is also in the public mind and has been frequently reported as in the field. But he denies it, and states that if he determines to be a candidate the fact will be made known in due time.

For the mention of other names as candidates, or as in any sense seeking a delegation from Kent, there is no authority whatever. We are sure that the Democracy of Kent will find smooth sailing so far as the coming Congressional primaries are concerned. Any local candidate qualified for such an honor, and really seeking a nomination, will no doubt be accorded a delegation without the slightest opposition.

Other counties on the Shore are well supplied with candidates. The latest addition to the list is Mr. William Collins, of Talbot, who was an able and popular member of the last Legislature. He would make a strong candidate. But, does Talbot want the earth?

The State Central Committee met in one of the hotel parlors. Col. L. Vic Baughman presided, and is likely to be the permanent chairman if he will accept. W. Laird Henry, of Dorchester, was chosen secretary. The dates and places for holding the Congressional district nominating conventions were, on motion of Colonel Schley, agreed to as follows:

First disrict, Ocean City, July 26.
Second district, Towson, October 2.
Third dist., Broadway Institute, Oct. 2.
Fourth district, China Hall, October 2.
Fifth district, Catonsville, September 5.
Sixth district, Hagerstown, September 12.

This done, the committee adjourned from the main parlors, where it convened, to the breakfast room of the hotel, where lunch was served.

The Republicans.

Kent was represented by Messrs. C. T. Westcott and Louis Henry, of State Central Committee for the county, and Capt. W. D. Burchinal, Col. W. J. Vannort, Thos. A. Hudson and others. Mr. F. H. Harper, the other member of the committee, was not present. The meeting was held at Raine's hall, and was well attended by delegates from all the counties. The chairman, Harry M. Clabaugh, presided. The session did not last an hour, and the only business transacted was the fixing of the dates for the Congressional district conventions. These are as follows:

First district, Ocean City, August 29.
Second district, Havre de Grace, Sept. 4.
Third district, Baltimore, September 18.
Fourth district, Baltimore, September 18.
Fifth district, Baltimore, August 28.
Sixth district, Frederick City, Sept. 5.

The League of Republican Clubs of Maryland met in the Concert Hall of the Academy of Music; 125 clubs were represented, and at times considerable enthusiasm was displayed. There was some spirit displayed in the selection of delegates-at-large to the National League Convention, which will be held at Denver on June 26. When the vote was finished, it was found that but three had received a majority of the votes, which was taken by congressional districts, and it was necessary to vote again for the fourth. In the last vote the balloting was closest between Col. William J. Vannort and Capt. William D. Burchinal, both of Kent county, and the last named was selected by a vote of 3½ to 2½.

The convention is entitled to thirty-four delegates to the National Convention, and the following were selected, that being the last business of the meeting:

Delegates at large—Harry M. Clabaugh, George R. Gaither, Jr., Rev. George D. Morrison, Wm. D. Burchinal.

First District—Martin M. Higgins, Talbot county; Charles J. Webb, Dorchester county; Charles T. Westcott, Kent county; Oliver P. Byrd, Somerset; George M. Russum, Caroline.

The district delegates were selected first by the different districts, and when the First district elected its delegates it was announced that its choice for delegates-at-large was Col. William J. Vannort.

There was but little talk about Republican Congressional candidates. Capt. Burchinal says he will not be a candidate. C. T. Westcott, Esq., was frequently mentioned, but he said he could not be induced to accept a nomination. Col. Vannort also said that he would not accept a Congressional nomination as he had been abundantly supplied with "barren honors" in the past. Wilbur Eliason, Esq., was talked of, but it is believed that he too would decline a nomination. So that it would seem that the Republicans must look elsewhere for their candidate. Capt. Burchinal thinks there will be but one candidate for the two terms.

RAPID TRANSIT.—To illustrate the conveniences of reaching the city which our people now enjoy we need but mention that Mr. R. S. Thomas left Chestertown in his carriage several days ago at noon, drove to Rock Hall and boarded the ferry. He spent several hours in Baltimore and returned to Chestertown about 9 P. M. This is certainly a fast age. But when the electric road is built it will be faster.

PROPERTY SALES.—H. W. Vickers, Esq., sold the Gears farm near "Catt's Corner" Tuesday to Mrs. Sarah J. Gears, mortgagee, for $2,000.

L. W. Wickes, Esq., trustee, sold the Taylor lot near Chestertown to H. W. Vickers, Esq., for $346. The grave yard at back of the lot was reserved.

THE PEACH CROP in Kent is certainly "gone up" for this year. The June drop has about finished the few orchards that had a prospect for fruit. Some growers have fruit on the earlier varieties, but the general crop is a dead failure.

The concert given at Still Pond last week by Prof. A. L. Judefind and which was fully reported in the NEWS was repeated in Stam's Hall Tuesday evening. The audience was not equal to the one at Still Pond, but the performance was better.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—The managers of the P. W. & B. R. R. have decided to improve the appearance of the passenger cars on the Kent railroad and have opened bids for the painting of the same. The change will be very perceptible as Pullman colors are to be used. The new cars will be ready for the new road, eh?

WHO CAN BEAT IT?—Mr. J. Harper Gale, near Tolchester, sends two stalks of corn, which he says are "about the average of the field, grown without any phosphate and has not had any on it for forty years to my certain knowledge." The stalks measured three feet without stretching the leaves! There may be many garden patches to beat this, but who can show a better field?

More Lightning Freaks.

It seems that Kent county has received her proportion of damage from every storm that has arisen this spring. Monday night during the heavy gust the new hay barrack on Mr. James W. Hurtt's Locust Grove farm was struck by lightning and burned, together with two tons of hay, on which there was no insurance.

Mrs. Rachel Taylor's cow shed, near Hanesville, was struck and burned. A fine milch cow was killed by the stroke.

But little rain fell below Chestertown, but above Goose Hill a very heavy downpour was experienced.

A strange fatality seems to hover about the farm of Jonathan K. Williams, near Odessa. On Monday while Alexander Goldsborough, an aged colored man, was mixing whitewash on the farm he was taken ill and died in a few minutes.

On Monday night during the heavy electrical storm two valuable cows and an ox were struck by lightning and killed. Tuesday morning they were found lying beside the fence. There was not a mark on the body of any of them.

At Hymen's Altar.

Some one remarked in our hearing that June weddings were not as numerous as June roses, nor are they as numerous as June showers either. Nevertheless there are several Kent countians who have chosen June as the month in which to wed.

Mr. JOHN E. BOONE, who has been with Mr. Wm. H. Blakeney, paper hanging in Chestertown, was married Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock to Miss MATTIE LEE, by Rev. J. D. Kemp at the bride's home in Betterton. A reception followed the wedding. The bride and groom have rented Mr. Wm. S. Busick's house in Still Pond where they will reside. Mr. Boone will engage in the painting and paper-hanging business.

A very quiet wedding took place at St. Paul's P. E. Church, Camben, N. J., Tuesday morning, at 9 o'clock. The interested parties were Mr. JAMES S. BRADLEY, ane of our High street merchants, and Miss ANNIE T. GILL, formerly of Chestertown, but more recently of Camden, N. J. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Townsend, of Atlantic city. The bridal couple are now enjoying a trip to Niagara Falls, and other Northern points and are expected home next week. Mr. Wm. H. Lambert, Jr., has charge of Mr. Bradley's store during his absence.

Miss Estelle I. Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stephens, 2233 North Calvert street, Baltimore, was married Wednesday to Mr. Stephenson Constable. The ceremony was performed at St. Michael's and All Angels Prot. Epis. Church by the pastor, Rev. C. Ernest Smith. The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. W. B. Stephens, who gave her away. She was met at the church by the groom, with his best man, Mr. Horace Constable. The bride wore a traveling dress of mode colored cloth, with hat to match, and carried a boquet of La France roses. The ushers were Messrs. Romie Skirven, Wm. D. Hines, James Beck and William W. Beck. They will reside on the Constable farm, near Lankford, upon their return Saturday from a short wedding tour to Atlantic City.

The following persons attended the wedding from Kent county: Dr. Samuel Beck and wife, Mrs. Allan Harris, Sterling Jones and wife, Mrs. Spencer Harris, Mrs. Stevenson Constable, Miss Blanche Constable, Mrs. Lily Skirven, Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks, Mrs. Wm. B. Stephens, Misses Anna and Mamie Strong, Laura Jessop, Sue Wilkins, Helen and Anna Welch, Mollie and Tenie Aldrich and Minnie Massey.

The wedding of Miss Ethel Covington one of Still Pond's most handsome and popular daughters, to Dr. W. E. Barnard another very popular son of that town, but now of Middletown, is announced to take place on Wednesday, June 20th in Still Pond.

Mr. Lawrence R. Dwyer and Miss Helen B. Bramble were married at St. Paul's rectory last Friday, June 1st, by Rev. C. T. Denroche. After the wedding they returned to Chestertown and took up their residence.

CHESTER ALLIANCE.—The following officers have been elected for the ensuing year: President, John Bell; vice president, Geo. S. Biddle; secretary, Harrison I. Parsons; chaplain, Enoch N. Roland; lecturer, Walter T. Morris; assistant, Daniel McKee; doorkeeper, Wm. Vansant; assistant, J. Elwood Morris; sergeant-at arms, Josiah Massey.

COPIOUS SHOWERS.—Kent countians think they have had abundant rain, some too much. W. S. Walker, Esq., states that he was talking with a Delawarean this week who stated that in a ride from Middletown to Odessa his wheels were in water the whole way with the exception of about one hundred yards. He remarked that Delaware was flooded.

CHANGED WHEELS.—Some parties on Sunday evening exchanged carriage wheels with Mr. Aleck Taylor without his consent. His carriage was standing in his yard at Price's mill when the trade was made. An old pair was substituted for his good ones.

—OFFICE OF THE—

Local Board of Health!

CHESTERTOWN, May 26, 1894.

The frequent occurence of cases of Small Pox in Baltimore city within the past few weeks, as well as at various points throughout the country, especially in the counties of Pennsylvania contiguous o Maryland, is just cause for anxiety.

The secretary of the State Board of Health has sent to this board a circular making an appeal to the executive officer of this board to see that every effort shall be made to bring before the people the necessity of, and the safety to be secured by vaccination and re-vaccination.

The frequent insertion of virus is the only way by which we may positively learn whether the party is still immune.

Parents and guardians, and all others, who have children under their charge, should see to it that they are protected.

Adults who have not been vaccinated within the last few years should not neglect this precaution.

The wandering, homeless, irresponsible tramp has brought the contagion to Baltimore recently. The same may occur here.

The State Board of Health urges the school commissioners to call the attention of teachers and parents to the vaccination clause of the school law.
