The Kent News.

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

SATURDAY, - - JUNE 16, 1894

THE Congressional primaries in Queen Anne's will be held about the 21st of July. The Observer has a good word for both the local candidates—Messrs. P. B. Hopper and A. R. Weedon. It says it takes no part in factional fights, and in this it is certainly right.

THE latest dispatches from Washington point to an early passage of the tariff bill. The Republicans have done their utmost to defeat it in the Senate, but the Democratic Senators seem to be perfectly united and have overcome the most violent opposition. The bill must be finally acted upon by a conference committee of the two houses.

OUR W. C. base-ball nine seems disposed to tackle anything in the shape of a "team" that presents itself. Its latest effort was to get away with a mixture of three first-class teams! That it failed was no surprise to the initiated. The W. C's. have a good record—they are great players—but they can't beat "the world and the rest of mankind!"

J. FRANK TURNER, ESQ., has resigned the presidency of the Easton Farmer's and Merchants' National Bank, and Dr. I. A. Barber succeeds him. Other changes in the directory are made by consent and desire of all concerned. The object seems to be to mix a little "Republican blood" in the management, thereby refuting charges that the bank was a political institution.

THE new tariff will soon be in operation. Then what? Better times, we hope. But are we not magnifying the effect of this national revenue measure? How is it possible for that to materially improve the general condition of affairs? It will help, we certainly believe. But its benefits will be so indirect and so slight, as compared with the present great need, that possibly it will not be noticeable. This is the serious reflection, after all our wranglings over the tariff.

GOV. JACKSON is in Alabama this week, and expects to leave the last of this month for a trip to Europe. He thinks that his county has been badly treated in the distribution of the Federal patronage. Senator Toadvin and Wicomico eminently deserved recognition. But, then, Kent is in the same boat. We have heard the "big plums" dropping, but none have fallen to our sons.

THE Easton Ledger states that Talbot will not have a Democratic candidate for Congress. It is reported that the four counties "below the Choptank" have "gotten together" on candidates and that our end of the Shore is to be left out in the cold. This is certainly unjust to the gallant Democracy of our four counties. We are surely entitled to one of the nominees, and either Caroline, Talbot, Queen Anne's or Kent could furnish acceptable "timber."

HON. JOSHUA W. MILES, of Somerset, was in Salisbury this week, and it is said he would accept a term in Congress. The Wicomico News asks the question if, after Mr. Miles has "gotten a taste of Washington life, he would not be a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Mr. Gibson?" The News adds: "Stranger things have happened, and it is said that Mr. Miles is ambitious. Personally we would say Mr. Miles is a fine gentleman and a man of brains. Besides, he is a fluent speaker and would make his mark in Congress."

SPEAKING editorially of the call for the democratic primaries in Wicomico county the Wicomico News says: "It has been often said over the State that Wicomico county would have a candidate for Congress either in person of ex-Gov. E. E. Jackson or Senator E. Stanley Toadvin, but, speaking from authority, we would say that ex-Governor Jackson is not a candidate for Congress. As regards Senator Toadvin, he is not a candidate and would not accept the nomination under any circumstances. As it now stands Wicomico will have no candidate before the congressional convention at Ocean City, July 26. The county will, however, send an uninstructed delegation to the convention, who will stand by the principles of democracy and vote for good men for the long and short term."

Still Another Railroad.

A movement has been started to build another railroad from Chestertown to Easton, via Centreville. A certificate of incorporation was filed in the clerk's office at Centreville by Messrs. James Alfred Pearce and Charles T. Westcott, of Chestertown. The name of the corporation will be the Easton and Chestertown Railroad Company, and the capital stock will be $500,000, divided in shares of $50 each. The incorporators, other than those above named, are George E. Haddaway, Wm. Goldsborough, of Easton, and P. H. Fedderman, of Centreville. The road will run from Easton to Queen Annes Station, thence to Centreville and Church Hill, terminating at Chestertown. It will run through a very fertile section, nearly paralleling with Queen Annes and Kent branches, intersecting the main line at different points. This is the third railroad recently incorporated in this section, and all with good prospects for their successful construction. It is believed that a right-of-way will be readily granted.

The Coal Strike.

The striking miners in the George's Creek region about Lonaconing interposed to prevent resumption there. They held meetings and appointed delegates to confer with the operators. They made a working miner run the gauntlet of a shrieking mob. The sheriff of Allegany arrested Organizer Wm. B. Wilson at Lonaconing and whisked him off to Cumberland before his followers were aware of what had been done. The news of the arrest created great excitement at Frostburg. The number of miners at work in the Consolidation Companies' mines continues to increase daily. It is proposed to furlough 10 men from each of the companies of the Fourth and Fifth Regiments, M. N. G., now on duty at Frostburg. This would permit 210 men to return to business, but the soldier boys would rather remain and all come home together.

ON our first page will be found a full account of the lynching of a brutal negro murderer in Princess Anne, last week. "Lynch law" is never justifiable, and certainly not when the law is surely and swiftly doing its proper work. Every such occurrence is a foul blot upon the fair fame of the State.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is now on the sick list. He has been confined closely to his room all the week, and at one time there was some uneasiness as to his condition. A late dispatch says: "The President's attack yields to treatment, and if he obeys the injunction of his two physicians to remain quiet and not give his attention to public matters, he will probably recover without receiving a set-back. The trouble which has kept the President sick for several days is one that requires rest and quiet more than medicine, and it is said he would have been well two days ago if he had not insisted on attending to business requiring a great amount of labor." The President is now cruising on the Chesapeake Bay in a light-house tender, and will return to Washington early next week.

BALTIMORE'S Centennial project received an impetus on Thursday which argues well for the development of the worthy and vast enterprise. There was an enthusiastic meeting of business men at the Merchant's Club in the afternoon, when the plan of the Centennial Association was laid before the financial and commercial community, a large number of whose representatives had assembled there on invitation. The dining-room on the first floor was occupied for more than an hour by the 150 gentlemen present, who listened with attention and interest to addresses by President Jackson, of the Centennial Association; Governor Brown, Mayor Latrobe, Gen. Adam E. King, Mr. Skipwith Wilmer and Attorney-General Poe. The scheme for a great industrial exposition there in 1897 was received with enthusiasm.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Baltimore Evening News.

The meeting of the State committees of both the Democratic and Republican parties brought nearly all the prominent politicians in the State to Baltimore, and the usual annual review of political affairs was made and the condition of both parties and the prospects for success at the fall election were fully and carefully discussed in all their bearings.

In addition to the distribution of the Federal offices and the Congressional nominations to be made this year, the subjects most under discussion were the Gubernatorial campaign, which will not take place until next year, and the election of a United States Senator to succeed the Hon. Charles H. Gibson, which event will not take place until January, 1896. It was strange, but it was true, that most of the politicians present appeared to be more interested in the events which will not take place until next year and the year after than they were in the nomination and election of members of the House of Representatives, which will take place in a few short months. While the Federal offices and the Congressional election were talked over, yet a greater part of all the talk was about the nomination for Governor and the election of an Eastern Shore Senator. A large number of the friends of the Governor were on hand from all parts of the State ready to take up the old cry of "Farmer Brown." The Governor himself was on the scene.

The dates for the Congressional conventions having been fixed, the gentlemen who are anxious to secure the nominations are now making their desires known and preparing for the contests where there is opposition.

In the First district the candidates among the Democrats are numerous, every county having at least one, while others have two. In Kent Mr. Harrison W. Vickers will probably have the delegation, although Mr. Wm. B. Usilton, of the KENT NEWS has been mentioned. Mr. Usilton, however, it is said, has decided not to enter the contest and Mr. Vickers will be allowed a clear field if he desires it.

In Queen Anne's the usual vigorous fight will take place between the factions led by Ex-Congressman John B. Brown on the one side and Tax Commissioner Thomas J. Keating on the other. The Brown faction will support State's Attorney P. B. Hopper, while the Keatings will endeavor to elect a delegation favorable to Mr. A. Randolph Weedon, who has been a candidate before.

In Caroline county there will be no contest, but both factions will unite to send a delegation favorable to the nomination of Ex-State Senator John F. Dawson.

In Talbot county the indications are that there will be a bitter contest. Col. Edward Lloyd will probably ask for a delegation and be antagonized in his desires by the friends of Senator Gibson, who do not wish their county to present any candidate, but to be in the convention untrammeled, so that they may be able to strengthen the hands of their chief in his contest for re-election in 1896.

Dorchester county will probably have several candidates, but the chances are that the contest will narrow down to a fight between two or three, and in all likelihood they will be W. Laird Henry, editor of the Chronicle, and Dr. Jones.

Wicomico county will possibly ask for the nomination of Ex-Governor Jackson, although that gentlemen says he does not want the place and will sail for Europe with his family on the 26th inst., one month before the convention will meet. In case Ex-Governor Jackson does not wish to be in the field, his county will present the name of State Senator Edward Stanley Toadvin.

In Somerset county there is some talk of a contest for the delegation between State Senator Levin L. Waters and Joshua W. Miles.

Worcester county will present the name of Clayton J. Purnell.

In the Second district all the other candidates have withdrawn, and the nomination will be given to the present member, Mr. J. F. C. Talbott, of Baltimore county. The convention will meet at Towson Oct. 2.

In the Third district it is conceded that Mr. Rusk will be renominated without opposition, and the same condition will obtain in the Fourth district, where Mr. Rayner will be named once more.

In Anne Arundel the Wells faction and the Moss-Bannon crowd will contest for the delegation, with the issue doubtful. While Dr. George Wells says that he does not want the nomination, he is apparently determined to prevent Senator Moss from getting it, and although efforts have been made to heal the difficulty they have been without success.

In Prince George's county Mr. William B. Claggett will probably secure the delegation, as Ex-Governor Oden Bowie emphatically declines to be a candidate.

In Charles county the fight for the delegation will be between the friends of Senator Gorman, led by Francis M. Cox, editor of the Port Tobacco Times, and the Turner faction.

In Howard county State Senator John G. Rodgers, it is said, will be given the delegation without contest.

In the Sixth district it is conceded that Mr. McKaig can have the renomination if he wants it, but he says he will not be a candidate this year. Mr. Ferdinand Williams, of Cumberland has been mentioned, as well as Ex-State Senator Lane, of Washington county and Land Commissioner Philip D. Laird, of Montgomery.

So far as the counties are concerned the Republicans in the state are apparently harmonious with the exception of the fight in Alleganey between Mr. George K. Wellington and Col. George A. Pearre.

In the First district the general opinion is that States Attorney Philip L. Goldsborough will be named as the Republican candidate without opposition. Mr. Goldsborough is young and popular, and has a large family connection on the Eastern Shore, and will be a strong candidate. He is also not without worldly goods to help him along.

In the Second district the consensus of opinion seems to point out State Senator W. B. Baker, of Harford county, as the nominee against Mr. Talbott.

Collector Shaw is expected to make several new appointments in the Custom-house this week, and then very few changes will be made until after the election in November.

The city politicians appear to be divided in their opinion as to whom the President will make United States Marshal, now that Colonel Schley has been appointed Surveyor of the Port. Some appear to think that the place will be given to State Senator Charles H. Evans.
