The Kent News.

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

SATURDAY, - - - JUNE 23, 1894.

Ex-Governor Jackson and his five children will sail for Europe next Tuesday.

It is now stated positively that Talbot will have no candidate for Congress, and Senator Gibson is conceded the delegation.

The base-ball enthusiasts of Chestertown will be "all broke up" sure enough if Burris and Zearfoss should accept a call elsewhere.

Kent is left again! Senator Charles H. Evans, of Baltimore, has been appointed United States Marshal by President Cleveland. This is the position that Senator Hepbron expected to get.

The Queen Anne's Democratic Congressional primaries are called for July 21st, and will be held under the primary election law for that county. Two rival candidates, Messrs. A. R. Weedon and P. B. Hopper, will likely cause a warm factional contest.

Possibly some of our readers will question the propriety of admitting into our columns such a "fierce" article on the liquor question as that in another column signed "Fair Play," but when we explain that the author is one of the most reputable ministers in the county, it will be seen in a different light.

The Baltimore Herald is congratulating Governor Brown upon taking its advice by calling home one-half of the militia, thus stopping the great expense to the State. It is to be hoped that the balance will be released now, as the mine owners should be able to protect their own property after the experience of the last few weeks.

Rev. Dr. Upham, in the course of his eloquent sermon last Sunday morning before a large and intelligent audience in Chestertown, made the declaration that "Abraham Lincoln was the best friend the South ever had!" This may be true, but how differently some others regard the relationship!

Senator Hill, of New York, made a three hours' speech Thursday, ostensibly against the income-tax feature of the tariff bill, but really to bring into disrepute the present national administration. He denounced Cleveland and bitterly arraigned Gorman. Indeed, he is now "hand in glove" with the Republicans in their efforts to defeat tariff legislation.

The Baltimore Evening News thinks the Congressional ticket for the first district will be Philemon B. Hopper, of Queen Anne's, for the long term, and W. Laird Henry, of Dorchester, for the short. Another prediction is that the ticket will be Joshua W. Miles, of Somerset, for the long term, with Henry for the short, by the sixteen votes of the four lower counties.

Governor Brown visited the mining region last Monday and personally examined into the situation of the striking miners. Good results followed in the sending home of a part of the militia. The miners' grievance ought to be looked into and remedied, if possible. Soulless corporations even are entitled to the protection of their property but impositions and rascally methods ought to be stopped. Let Governor Brown look into that, and possibly greater benefits may arise therefrom to all concerned.

Now the country militia will have a chance! Governor Brown has ordered out the first regiment, to go to the mining regions to day to take the place of the fifth regiment. Col. L. Allison Wilmer is commander of the regiment, and two of the ten companies are located on the Eastern Shore, one at Easton and the other at Elkton. Wouldn't the Kent Guards be in it now if they had not disorganized?

The Philadelphia Times is exposing a miserable condition of affairs in the local government of that city. If its account is reliable the police force and city government are all alike corrupt. Almost as bad as New York! Well, one of them is thoroughly Democratic and the other thoroughly Republican. So much for the politics of the thing.

Senator Gorman is again at his post in Washington, his health greatly improved. He was before the Senate investigating committee on Monday and gave his testimony relative to the Sugar Trust. He was clear, frank and explicit—said he has not now and never had any of the stock; never speculated in it, nor any one for him. So ends the investigation as far as Senator Gorman is concerned. His record is perfectly clean.

AN INTERESTING CASE.

A Piano Involved—Matters that were Rather Complicated.

A case of much interest involving the rental of pianos was tried at the last term of our Circuit court. Charles M. Stieff let Wm. M. Coney have a piano in 1892 upon an agreement to pay $10 per month as rental for fifteen months; and at the expiration of that time, if Mr. Coney paid a certain sum named in the agreement, the piano was to be his otherwise to remain the property of Stieff. On the failure of Mr. Coney, Stieff demanded the piano of R. F. Walker, the assignee, who, after consulting counsel preferred that the piano should be replevied. The piano was replevied and the case was tried before Judge Wickes and Stump. Wm. R. Martin represented Stieff, A. L. Tharp and R. R. Walker represented R. F. Walker. The plaintiff's contention was a plain simple contract now much in vogue for the sale of sewing machines, pianos and furniture and without any question of its bona fides. Walker could occupy no better position than Coney, and that the contract should be upheld. The defendant's counsel claimed that this was in truth and in fact a sale, although under the guise of a rental, and that being a sale, the property should go into the trust estate and Stieff should file his claim as did all the other creditors. A great number of authorities were cited by each side to sustain their case. The court held the matter for a few days as it was an important case, being one of the first ever before this court on a contract of this kind. Judge Wickes delivered the opinion of the court sustaining the validity of the contract, and hence Mr. Stieff became safe in the possession of his piano, and contracts of that kind known generally as sales on the installment plan were judicially pronounced good!—Easton Gazette.

The first new Maryland wheat was sold in Baltimore last Wednesday for sixty cts. per bushel. It was from Dorchester county and unusually early.

The Wilmington Morning News has introduced the type-setting machines in its office. The Baltimore Evening News has had them in use for some time.

That's So!—Of the two Queen Anne's candidates for Congress, Messrs. P. B. Hopper and A. R. Weedon, the Queenstown News says:

"There is one thing that our people can rest assured of—that if either of the gentlemen succeed in getting the nomination from the convention at Ocean City—the affairs of the First District in Congress will be in proper hands and carefully guarded.

For the Ship Canal.

A mass meeting is called to be held in Baltimore, at the Academy of Music, next Monday evening, in the interest of the proposed ship canal, when "the glorious possibilities of this great project, its beneficient results, etc., will be thoroughly discussed." The following eminent gentlemen are announced as speakers, Mayor Ferd. C. Latrobe, president; Gov. Frank Brown, honorary president; U. S. Senator A. P. Gorman, Gen. Felix Agnus, Hon. J. V. L. Findlay, John K. Cowen, Esq., Jas. Alfred Pearce, Esq., William S. Young, Esq., Hon. Buchanan Schley, Col. William P. Craighill and others. Queen Anne's has a full list of delegates to represent her interests in the meeting. It is hoped that Kent will be well represented also.

Organization Effected.

Books for subscription to the capital stock of the Elkton and Southern Railroad Company were opened at Elkton on Thursday. A stockholder's meeting was held subsequently, and the following directors elected: George Biddle, Z. Porter Lusby, John J. Williams, Geo. N. Bennett, John S. Wirt, Manly Drennen and Dr. Howard Bratton. A meeting of the directors was immediately held, and officers elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, George Biddle; treasurer, Emil Theilens; secretary, Howard Bratton. It is said that active operations will be begun on the road at once. The survey has already been completed as far as Chesapeake City, from near Singerly Station, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. This line, if built, will be in opposition to the Pennsylvania Railroad on the Eastern Shore. It will also parallel the new Elkton, Middletown and Massey Railroad, for which the Pennsylvania Company is now purchasing the right of way, and the two roads will traverse the same section of country for the entire distance of about fifteen miles.

Terminal Purchased.—Mr. W. H. Bosley, of Baltimore, president of the new Queen Anne's Railroad, came over here on Monday and purchased the Mitchell farm of Gen. McKenney at Queenstown for the railroad at that place. The price paid was $11,582.59 cash, being $65 per acre. This property has over a mile of water front, and will, no doubt, be made into a fine summer resort as well as forming a terminal for the railroad. The purchase of this property would indicate confidence in the new enterprise, and gives the people confidence that there is something more in the scheme than mere talk.—Centreville Observer.

Successful Agriculture.—In these times of distress, especially among agriculturalists, it is refreshing to come across instances of success so marked as we have here to report. But, like other successes, it comes of outlay and labor, together with that intelligent comprehension of the business situation which is more than ever essential. Mr. Frank P. Cochran, is one of the enterprising and clear-headed farmers of the first district, on the Col. Spencer farm, near Galena, which belongs to Messrs. Eugene Cochran and Eugene Hanson, of New York. He sends us two of the finest bunches of Asparagus that we have ever seen, with this report: It is of the "Palmetto" variety, and on twelve acres he markets 13350 bunches—six acres of which is a young bed cut this season for the first time. This crop was mostly marketed in Baltimore and netted Mr. Cochran ten and a-half cents per bunch, a total from the twelve acres of $1395.00! This is at the rate of $116 per acre. If that is not successful farming then we don't know anything about it. Mr. Cochran has a quantity of crowns for sale.

Notes About Town.

It is "Dr. Roberts" now. And our community generally congratulates the worthy pastor of Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, upon receiving a "handle" so justly his own. Washington College never more properly exercised its powers than in this case.

Mr. Henry Deaver returned from West Point Thursday and resumed his position as book-keeper in the Second National Bank. He had some difficulty in finding the postoffice when sent for the mail, and the boys have quite a joke on him.

"Mrs. Winston and daughter, Atlanta Georgia," registered at the Gilpin House last Monday. Madame's purpose was to "write up" the town, but she met with poor success and left for Centreville yesterday declaring our city unworthy of her services.

A movement is on foot arranging for a grand display of fireworks in Chestertown on the 4th.

Mr. Reybold Wilson, deputy treasurer under Mr. C. S. Hurlock, has rented the store-room formerly used for a postoffice and will open a line of men's ware, shoes, notions, etc.

Mr. James Roe has opened a feed store on Cross street adjoining Vandegrift's shop.

Mr. John W. Palmer is negotiating for quarters in the foundry house and expects to start a laundry there in a few days.

Mr. A. J. Cahall has had his buildings on High street repainted. Mr. Wm. Sappington did the work.

Mr. John Chilcutt has been busy this week fitting up the Brown mansion near town for summer boarders.

Work on the arch at foot of Maple avenue has been commenced.

Mr. H. M. Stuart has a large force at work on Chester draw.

Mr. Charles Hodgkins is erecting a porch in front of his residence on Queen street.

Messrs. C. S. York & Son have erected a handsome railing for Mr. J. K. Aldridge at his home on Front street.

Mr. Norman Massey is at home from Carlisle for the summer.

The first tramp of the season appeared in our midst Thursday.

The colored folks will commence their camp at Chestertown Sunday, July 1st.

The Corsica arrived yesterday, Capt. Vandyke in charge, all ready for peaches and wheat.

The Chestertown Creamery paid fifty cents for milk for the past month. The Kennedyville Creamery paid 50 cents.
