The climax of medical chemistry attained in Dr. Burkhard's Periodical Pills, being six degrees stronger than any known medicine, yet so mild that the feeblest can take them with perfect security; yet so powerful in their effects that they can be safely called a Never-Failing Regulator. Each box contains fifty pills, with full directions enclosed. Price, Five Dollars per box. Sold by druggists or sent by mail upon receipt of price. Refuse all patent medicines. WON HIS BET.

Professor Gleason's Exhibition in the Taming and Training of Horses.

Professor O. R. Gleason gave his last exhibition of horse-breaking at the Academy of Music last night, during which he trained five horses to drive to single and double harness. On one particular vicious sorrel horse, the owner bet him $50 that he could not break the beast in thirty minutes. As Professor Gleason bowed in response to the applause, which greeted his performing the feat in eighteen and a-half minutes, he said: "Never bet upon another man's game." The sorrel was first made not to mind the jingling of tin cans tied to his tail, and then he was hitched to the wagon Prof. Gleason uses, and after some lively turns around the stage, he was brought to a standstill.

In this performance, the collar which is placed around the necks of the horses, had to be used almost contantly, as the beast did not give in for some time. Then after breaking a bay of the habit of kicking, and teaching him to go before the wagon, Prof. Gleason took the sorrol once more, and with the assistance of one of the attendants, broke him to riding. It was said that no one had ever been on the animal's back before, and he certainly did some lively plunging and bucking at first, but it was soon over, A colt, which was said to be very nervous, was taught in a remarkably short space of time not to mind a bass drum, jingling tin pans, umbrellas and other instruments which usually frighten horses.

The colt was hitched with another nervous beast to the wagon, and driven around the stage. Then fire-crackers were placed in a barrel and set off. It took about five minutes to get them to put their noses over the barrel, and watch the crackers go off without stirring. The other horse broken was a gray, which had been partially trained the night before, but was still inclined to kick. He was soon cured of the fault.

DEER PARK.

On the Crest of the Alleghenies.

To those contemplating a trip to the mountains in search of health and pleasure, Deer Park on the crest of the Allegheny Mountains, 3,000 feet above the sea level, offer such varied attractions as a delightful atmosphere during both day and night, pure water, smooth, winding roads through the mountains and valleys, and the most picturesque scenery in the Allegheny range. The hotel is equipped with all adjuncts conducive to the entertainment, pleasure and comfort of its guests.

The surrounding grounds, as well as the hotel, are lighted with electricity. Six miles distant on the same mountain summit is Oakland, the twin resort of Deer Park, and equally as well equipped for the entertainment and accommodation of its patrons. Both hotels are upon the main line of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, have the advantages of its splendid Vestibuled Limited Express Trains between the East and West. Season excursion tickets, good for return passage until October 31st, will be placed on sale at greatly reduced rates at all principal ticket offices throughout the country. One way tickets reading from St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Columbus, Chicago and any point on the B. & O. system to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia or New York, or vice versa, are good to stop off at either Deer Park, Mountain Lake Park or Oakland, and the time limit will be extended by agents at either resort upon application, to cover the period of the holders visit.

The season at this popular resort commences June 23rd.

For full information as to hotel rates, rooms, etc., address George D. DeShields, Manager, Deer Park, or Oakland, Garrett County, Maryland.

Not an Express Train.

A man was one day making a trip on the "flyer" of a Wyoming railroad. Passage on these trains is never taken except for journeys of considerable length; walking is as easy and much safer for short distances. On this occasion the movement was even more deliberate than usual, and the passenger called the conductor to his seat and said, according to Converse County Review:

"Isn't this motion pretty slow?"

"Well, we ain't flying, I'll admit."

"May I ask what is the trouble then?"

"Certainly. We found a fine two-year-old steer stuck in a trestle back here before we got on and stopped and helped it out. You see, the rules of the road are in such cases the animal belongs to the company."

"But I don't see why that should make you run so slow."

"Why, we're taking the steer to headquarters; got it tied behind, and it ain't used to leadin', and don't walk up very well. I'm doin' all I can—got the brakeman proddin' it up with an umbre!" and an ear of corn tied to the end of the bellrope. If you think I'm going to start up and go howlin' along and hank the horns off as good a steer as there is in this State, why, you're mistaken, that's all."

The Bicycle.

Bicycling is one of the most healthful and facinating of amusements, and the number of those who indulge in it in every part of the world is enormous and probably beyond computation. Both sexes are represented among the riders, prejudice against women taking amusement and exercise in this fashion having disappeared and there are ladies who have made long and hazardous tours on the bicycle, writing of their experiences in the magazines afterward. Wheelmen, too, have gone around the world and introduced the machine in the most remote and barbarous countries.

The bicycle is used in the German army abroad—perhaps also in others, and in England and Germany the postoffice department employs it for the letter-carriers, who, with its aid, are enabled to do much more work and save much more time than under the old system. Country doctors and clergymen use the wheel for traveling considerable distances, and in a multitude of ways it is employed, until it has become an indispensable feature of modern life.

In cities men go to busines in the morning on the wheel, returning on the same in the evening, and it is wonderful to see them speeding through the streets, passing everything.

As considerable comment has been made charging delay in the passage of the present tariff bill, it is but fair to give the dates when the several bills, during the last fifty years, have passed the Senate, so that a comparison can be made by the people, and a conclusion reached as to whether the work upon the present bill has been as rapid as that upon its predecessors:

Walker tariff, 1846, passed Senate July 1846, and was approved by the President July 30, 1846.

Morrill tariff, 1861, reported to the House March 12, 1860, passed the Senate February 20, 1861, and was approved March 2, 1861.

Tariff bill of 1883, passed the House June 27, 1882, passed the Senate February 20, and was approved March 3, 1883.

The McKinley tariff passed the Senate September 10, 1890 and was approved by the President October 1, 1890.

COMMENT has been made upon the fact that the Finance Committee offered 409 amendments to the Wilson bill. The same Committee offered to the McKinley bill 399 ammendments that chan ed its substance while of the 409 amendments offered to the Wilson bill, Senator Jones in charge of the Senate bill states that a majority of them simply changed the Senate amendments and restored the rates of duty as originally provided by the Wilson bill.

CHILDREN WHO SUFFER

from scrofulous, skin or scalp diseases, ought to be given Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for purifying the blood. For children who are puny, pale or weak, the "Discovery" is a tonic which builds up both flesh and strength. What is said of it for children applies equally to adults. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength. In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, and other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system.

For all diseases caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, as Dyspepsia and Biliousness, if it doesn't benefit or cure in every case, the money is returned.
