JEFFERSON.

THE LADIES STORE, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Mid-Winter Clearance Sale

AS is our usual custom, after the stock-taking season, we have greatly reduced the price on various lines throughout the whole store. The shelf-room is needed for the vast amount of spring stock that will soon begin to arrive, and as you will notice the prices on the lines mentined below have been greatly cut. The public has, long ere this, become acquainted with business methods of the "Ladies' Store," and know that when we advertise a reduction the same is genuine and means a great saving to the prudent purchaser, and just here let us suggest that you read every line in this advertisement then call and examine the goods.

8¼c. Flannelettes and Outings 8¼c.

Here goes all our Flannettes and Outings at the most remarkably low price of 8¼c. Take your choice, there are some 15c values in this lot, the balance of what we have go at 8¼c. Come in early and get your pick.

Coats. Coats

AT LESS THAN MANUFACTURERS' PRICE. WE HAVE ONLY A FEW TO SELECT FROM, BUT IF you can get a fit and have what you want it will be a great saving for you. All we have is the semi-fitted ones, the latest thing in Separate Coats, You need not fear buying old style coats here because we do not carry coats from one season to another. We have no old styles here, all new.

98c WAISTS. 98c

You can find them on center isle on tables, real values, dark winter waists, some sold as high as $2.50 each, but we put them all together and marked them at the unheard-of price of 98c for your pick.

KENNEDYVILLE ITEMS.

A genuine blizzard dropped in on us last Thursday night and Friday. The result was we had no mail for two days. The snow plow got through on Saturday night. Messrs. Editors we notice that the Kent county road is always the last one opened up for travel. Can you answer why this is or is it a puzzler? Our public roads too are filled with snow so that the traveler has to go across fields and many miles out of his way to get anywhere. This is a serious matter as in cases of sickness where the patient is ill and the doctor has to go miles out of his way. The travel is also an injury to the farm lands it crosses, and we do not wonder at the farmer stopping travel across his land. We think sometimes that if some of the money that is wasted in the summer on the roads was saved there might be a reserve fund established to open up travel through snow drifts on the county roads in the winter.

Mr. Wm. R. Price has been in Philadelphia for several days the past week as have also Dr. Urie and wife.

Mrs. Thomas Redmile has been visiting in Baltimore.

Mr. George Whiteley is spending sometime with friends in Philadelphia, and George will have a fine time if he has only a half chance, and we don't know how much fun he will have with a whole chance.

The stork visited the home of our genial operator, Mr. W. P. Milby, this week, so he is now wearing a very broad smile which we hope he will always be able to wear, even when cutting teeth time comes around and wakes his peaceful slumbers at 1 A. M. We extend congratulations.

Mr. Robt. R. Hill and wife are improving after being on the sick list. We imagine that staying in the house is about as hard on Bob as the grip.

One of Mrs. Duke's little boy's, John, has been quite sick but is improving.

Regular service at the M. P. Church next Sunday. Mr. D. T. Nickerson has charge of the C. E. meeting at 7 P. M.

Mrs. Daniel Hill, who has been quite sick, we are glad to hear is improving.

CITIZEN.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mr. Paul Comegys, while fox hunting last Thursday was thrown from his horse and his leg broken. He is doing well under the care of Dr. Comegys.

Mrs. Edw. Gillespie, who has been with the Misses Power for sometime, returned to Sudersville last Saturday.

Miss Nelson, of Baltimore, has been selected as assistant teacher, Miss Moore, resigned.

The mid-year examinations are now in progress in the Kent county schools.

Miss Anna Turner, of Philadelphia, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Clarence Turner.

Messrs. Hurlock and Simpers, of Chestertown, spent Sunday at Hotel Bailey.

Miss Julia Cacy is with Chestertown friends.

Express agent, Mr. Tayler, and family are with friends in Smyrna.

Mr. Herman Kendrix is in Denton in the interest of some cattle dealers.

The new rector of the P. E. Church will be welcomed at Rev. Mr. Ware's, in Massey, by the congregation of Massey and Millington churches, next Saturday morning from 10:30 A. M. to 3.30 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Turner celebrated the 2nd anniversay of their wedding, Tuesday, Jan 28, by entertaining their friends at a dinner.

A valuable horse belonging to Mrs. Mallalieu, while being driven by Mr. Jesse Dailey, was accidently driven into an old well, where it remained until the following morning. After being taken out was driven some distance to town, where it seemed to soon recover from its accident.

Mrs. Rose Wallis is visiting in Denton, Md.

The meetings being conducted by Rev. Moore at the M. E. Church are well attended and appreciated.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

Revival services, Rev. Collins in charge, are still in progress here, this being the fourth week of the meetings. The services are interesting to all who attend and the church is generally filled. Forty-nine souls have been won to the service of God, and still much interest is being shown by the non-christians. The sermons are strong and impressive ones, and the kind which make you feel better for having heard them, and the unusually fine singing of the choir makes the service an enjoyable occasion.

Owing to the heavy snow storm, no mail was received on Friday and Saturday, but arrived Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brice have been spending sometime in Baltimore, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. MacDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Owens visited Philadelphia this week.

Mrs. William Crew, who has been quite sick is much improved at this writing. With the exception of a few who are sick, Betterton is in a tolerably healthy condition.

From the appearance of the bay, persons who own ice houses will start filling in a few days.

The Steamer Ericsson enroute from Philadelphia to Baltimore failed to make her landing here on Thursday morning on account of the heavy ice and high wind. It is something unusual for the Ericsson not to land, as she is a strong boat with an able captain that can battle with the ice and wind. The Steamer Annapolis, also failed to make her Thursday trip. Unless the weather moderates considerably no boats are expected for a few days.

Sassafras in Winter.

We have been visited with a most terrific blizzard which lasted from Thursday evening until Saturday morning, and from the viewpoint of the artist the storm was all that was picturesque. Nowhere was it more noticeable than in sleepy old Sassafras, and in the suburban districts. The snow was of the soft, damp kind which clings to whatever it touches and as a result, fences, trees, poles, and buildings wore a coating of white that quite transformed their grim winter ugliness. Sassafras was a veritable fairyland, with the ground an unbroken expanse of purest white, and every branch of every tree and bush, bending low beneath this beautiful weight of snow, was a lovely sight of which we all enjoyed this grand picture.
