The public has, long ere this, become acquainted with business methods of the "Ladies' Store," and know that when we advertise a reduction the same is genuine and means a great saving to the prudent purchaser, and just here let us suggest that you read every line in this advertisement then call and examine the goods.

WORTON ITEMS.

Last Sunday was "Ground Hog Day" and judging from the extremely cold weather with which it was ushered in, the little fellow did not tarry long on the outside world, after seeing his shadow.

The indications are that the cold weather has come to stay for a while at least, probably for the stipulated six weeks, with no prospect of a rise of temperature.

The public travel has been greatly inconvenienced for quite a while, owing to the blockaded condition of the roads, caused by the snowstorm of two weeks ago.

Some of our roads are still filled with snow, so that the traveler has to go across fields, through peach orchards etc., to reach his destination. Would not our county commissioners do better service if they would curtail expenses during the spring and summer months, and have a reserve for the winter months to open our county roads? This would also give work to our laboring class of people at a time more needed.

The moving picture entertainment which was to have been given for the benefit of the Union M. E. Church, in the lecture room of the church, Thursday evening, Jan. 30th, was postponed because of the condition of the roads. It will probably take place on Thursday evening, Feb. 13. A rare treat is promised, as this show comes highly recommended. Come and enjoy a good laugh.

The Epworth League service will be in charge of Mrs. Geo. Cooper, on next Sunday evening, the subject being, "Help and Deliverance in God." All are cordially invited to attend. Come out, and show by your presence that you are interested in the success of these meetings, even if you take no active part in the service.

The Ladies Aid Society of Union M. E. Church, met at the home of Mrs. Jos. Duyer, on Thursday afternoon Feb. 6. While this society has been organized less than a year, it has been a great success financially in helping to meet the current expenses of the church.

The mid-year examinations held in our public school are now over, much to the delight of the pupils and teachers.

This is a most trying time to the pupils, as their nerves are wrought to the highest tension, because of the anxiety felt concerning the result, each pupil being anxious to acquit himself well in these tests.

Miss Bessie Cooper has been visiting at the home of Miss Alice Wood, Still Pond.

Mr. Chas. Crowding and family, spent Wednesday at Mrs. Crowding's brother, Mr. Geo. Cooper.

Mrs. Jas. Sheats left Worton on Tuesday evening for an extended visit to her son, Lewis, in Baltimore.

Mrs. Rosetta Jewell, of Betterton, visited relatives and friends in this place on Tuesday.

Mr. Jere Miller spent a portion of the week with his niece, Mrs. G. N. Cooper.

The sale of Wm. McLaughlin deceased took place on Wednesday, Feb. 5. Mr. McLaughlin lived a very secluded life, and made a confidant of no one. Some one has said, "An honest man is the noblest work of God." This saying is truly applicable to Mr. McLaughlin. He dealt honestly with his fellow-beings and demanded the same of them. For years past he has collected all kinds of old junk, antique furniture, machinery, etc., in fact anything, and everything, in this line, discarded by others, and considered as worthless by them, appealed very strongly to this eccentric old man, and he had only to get an inkling that they were for sale, and they were soon safely stored away in his old curiosity shop. Notable among the many things in this capacious depository, was an old piano, purchased from Mrs. Tilly Williams, many years ago. It is an old-fashioned square piano, mahogany case, inlaid with mother of-pearl, with pearl keys. A walnut coffin also occupied a prominent place among his many treasures. It was made for himself but was found to be unsuitable, so a more suitable one was substituted by the undertaker who had charge.

Our village has manifested some spirit for building, Mr. Geo. Meekins has constructed a very neat and comfortable home on Frederick Road. Mr. John Carter is also building a very pretty cottage adjoining Union M. E. church.

A cellar is being dug out, making ready for a new home for Mr. Chas. Hurd on Creamery avenue.

May this spirit continue, as improvements always help to arouse interest.

A hotel would not be amiss to the traveling man, especially.

Come along, now, Mr. Somebody, and get to work.
