Wedding Bells.

TREW—HADAWAY.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Startt, near Pomona, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday evening last, when Miss Lillian M. Hadaway, daughter of Mrs. Margaret J. Hadaway and the late John W. Hadaway, was married to Mr. Joseph S. Trew, one of Kent's prosperous young farmers. Promptly at the appointed hour, 7.30 o'clock, and to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march skillfully rendered by Miss Mabel Townshend, cousin of the bride, the bridal couple entered the parlor proceeded by Miss Anna E. Hadaway, sister of the bride as bridesmaid, and Mr. R. Royston Walbert as best man, and were met by Rev. A. H. Covey, who performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. J. C. McCoy, in a very impressive manner, the whole party standing under a beautiful arch of evergreen from which was suspended a large wedding bell.

During the ceremony "Oh Promise Me" was softly played. The bride was beautifully attired in blue satin messaline trimmed in old point lace and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and roses. The groom and best man wore the conventional black and tan gloves. The bridesmaids wore white persian lawn over pink silk with pink satin trimmings and carried pink carnations. Only the immediate families of the couple were present. After the ceremony refreshments of all kinds were served, after which, Mr. and Mrs. Trew left for their future home near Chestertown. The were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents.

MANSFIELD—BALL.

A pretty home wedding took place on Wednesday at noon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Twilley on High street, when their granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Ball, became the bride of Dr. Arthur Dunning Mansfield, a prominent physician of Baltimore. The parlor of the home was darkened and beautifully trimmed for the occasion and promptly at the appointed hour to the strains of the wedding march skillfully rendered by Miss Sue Walton Dunbracco, the bride and groom entered the parlor, where, under a beautiful arch, in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends, they were pronounced man and wife by Rev. W. L. White of the Chestertown M. E. Church. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of blue broadcloth with hat and gloves to match. She was unattended. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held, after which Dr. and Mrs. Mansfield left on the afternoon train for a wedding trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City. They will take apartments in Baltimore for the winter. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable presents. Dr. and Mrs. Marion Twilley, of Dover, were among the out of town guests.

MILLER—HUDSON.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Worton Manor on Wednesday morning, Dec. 23rd, when Miss Sallie E. Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Hudson, became the bride of Mr. Clarence E. Miller, of near Fairlee. Rev. G. A. Morris, pastor of St. James M. P. Church performed the ceremony, making the trip to the home with difficulty through the snowbanks on horseback. Only the immediate families witnessed the ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of blue cloth, with hat and gloves to match. After a wedding breakfast the newly married couple left for a wedding trip including Baltimore, Washington and Philadelphia. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable presents. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will reside in Kent.

ROLLISON—TREW.

Miss Etta Trew, sister of Mr. Joseph S. Trew living on the Wroth farm near town, and Mr. John D. Rollison, of near Pomona, were quietly married on Thursday afternoon of last week at 3.30 o'clock in the M. E. Church, Chestertown, by the pastor, Rev. W. L. White. The bride wore a becoming suit of blue cloth, with hat and gloves to match and was unattended. The ceremony was to have been performed in Morgnec M. E. Church on Wednesday but the roads were blocked so badly with snow that the church could not be reached. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rollison left for their home on Frog Pond farm, near Pomona.

HOLDSON—NELSON

Mr. Thomas G. Holdson and Mrs. Etta Nelson were quietly married on Wednesday morning at 7.15 o'clock, at the home of the bride on High street extended, by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, pastor of Christ M. P. Church. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of brown cloth with hat and gloves to match. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Holdson were driven to the steamboat whence they left for an extended wedding tour.

WESSEL—SIMPLER.

Mr. Charles Wessel, of Crumpton, and Miss Carrie Simpler, of Chestertown, were quietly married on Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock at the M. E. parsonage by the pastor, Rev. W. L. White. Mr. and Mrs. Wessel will reside in Crumpton.

A Test Case.

Capt. Scott Crownhat, of Betterton, who is at present engaged in fishing in the Patuxent river, made a test case of the law relating to fishing in the waters of Calvert county, when he was fined $75 and costs last week by Magistrate William W. Duke, at Prince Frederick. Mr. Crownhart was arrested on the charge of catching fish by means of traps in the Patuxent river contiguous to and in Hunting Creek without having obtained permission to do so, and also for violating the law which prohibits the catching of fish by non-residents with any device except hook and line. The trial attracted a large attendance of fishermen, who were interested in making a test of the law. Mr. Crownhart contended that he was employed in the business by a citizen of the county and had a right to fish as he was working for wages. The case has been appealed to the circuit court for Calvert county.

Fine Entertainments.

The programme which Mrs. Jenny Lind Green has prepared for the recital to be given in Stam's Hall, next Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the Chestertown Public Library, is one of the finest ever heard in Chestertown. Mrs. Green is not only a pianist of national reputation, but she is a fine elocutionist and her selections are given with great effect. The singer, Mr. Chas. Gerhold, Baltimore's leading barytone singer, has a fine reputation, and he will unquestionably make a hit in Chestertown. We sincerely hope that a large audience will greet the performers.

The Spaffords on Monday night promise to give one of the most unique entertainments ever seen in the hall. We have seen an entertainment similar to this, and in our opinion no school boy or girl should miss its educational advantages. The clay modeling, drawing, fire pictures and recitations are all of the highest art, and must be seen to be appreciated. One-half the proceeds Mr. Vandegrift will donate to the Ladies Improvement Association. Let the hall be filled.

Meeting of Directors.

The first meeting of the Board of Directors of the Peerless Fertilizer Company was held at the office of Mr. W. W. Hubbard, the president, on Tuesday. A full board was present. The following officers were elected for the first year:—President, Wilbur W. Hubbard; secretary, David B. Ford. treasurer, Jesse Medders. The business heretofore conducted by Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard was turned over to the new company, and the prospects for a successful future for the new company are very bright. Following the meeting, the directors were entertained by Mr. Hubbard at dinner at the Hotel Imperial.

A Welcome Visitor.—One of our esteemed Baltimore subscribers in sending us a renewal check says: "The TRANSCRIPT is always a welcome visitor at our home." The editors appreciate such compliments very much.

TRY A SEWING MACHINE ON THE RENTAL PLAN.

The purchase of a SEWING MACHINE is altogether too important a transaction to be decided offhand, because it soon becomes a family institution.

When You Rent A Sewing Machine

even for so short a time as one week, you give yourself an opportunity to test a machine that will do its daily work so perfectly and noiselessly from the start that you will hesitate before you let it go out of the house again. No reason why it should go out, either, for your rental payments may be applied to the purchase of the machine if you decide to keep it. All makes of Sewing Machines repaired, and old machines taken in part payment for new ones. Also easy threading needles, can be threaded in the dark.
