LOCAL MATTERS.

Fire at Fredericktown.—The residence of Charles Cohee, at Fredericktown, was destroyed by fire on Christmas night, together with a lot of household goods. The family had not retired when the flames broke out. The loss is about $1,200, partially covered by insurance.

Bertie E. Tull Company.—At the annual meeting of the directors of the Bertie E. Tull Freighting Company held in Baltimore on Wednesday, Mr. A. Parks Rasin was re-elected president and general manager and Mr. E. M. Sills vice-president and treasurer. The company has had a most successful year, and through the TRANSCRIPT extend the compliments of the season to all their patrons and friends.

Brown & Morris Mill Burned.—The flour and feed mill belonging to Messrs. Brown & Morris familiarly known as Connelly's mill, near St. Paul's Church, was totally destroyed by fire, together with its contents of feed and grain, on Wednesday night, causing a loss estimated at several thousand dollars. The origin of the fire is unknown. There was an insurance of $800 on the mill and $450 on the machinery carried in companies represented by Mr. James G. Beck.

Bank Statement.—The statement of the Second National Bank, of Chestertown, which appears in this issue, should be most gratifying to the directors, stockholders and all concerned. It is the finest statement ever issued by the bank and shows that its business methods are not only popular, but that it enjoys the utmost confidence of the business public. It's total resources are $870,215.57, and individual deposits $733,353.96, which is $120,654.97 greater than in 1907 for the same month.

A Fine Entertainment.—The entertainment given in the lecture room of the M. E. Church on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League was well attended and was very much enjoyed by lovers of good music and fine elocution. Miss Marshall's recitations were well selected and finely rendered, as were the violin solos by Mr. T. Kemp Bordley and the vocal solos, by Miss Ahern, of Millington, and the instrumental selection by Miss Matthews. A silver offering amounting to a nice sum was taken at the door.

Appointed Book-keeper.—Mr. Raymond R. Wilkins, son of Mr. Benjamin Wilkins, of Baltimore, formerly of this town, has been appointed book-keeper in the Second National Bank, of Chestertown, to succeed Mr. Robert Huey, who has been promoted to the position of head book-keeper and assistant teller, due to the resignation of Mr. James Dunbracco. Mr. Wilkins is a young man, but has had considerable business education and experience. Mr. Dunbracco will engage in other work. Mr. Wilkins enters upon his duties this morning.

Mr. E. C. Bowers Seriously Injured.—While Mr. E. C. Bowers, of the well-known firm of Stavely & Bowers, Lynch, was engaged in cutting kindling wood on Thursday evening, a piece of the wood flew up, striking Mr. Bowers in the right eye, causing, it is feared, the loss of the eye. His physician was quickly summoned, and the injury was so serious as to cause the physician to send Mr. Bowers to the Church Home and Infirmary in Baltimore, yesterday morning. Mr. Bowers' many friends in the county and town sympathize with him in his affliction, and hope the sight of his eye may be saved.

NEWSY BRIEFS.

*†*How rapidly the years roll by! It is now 1909.

*†*Some of our citizens known how appropriate is the expression, "Get a move on" now.

*†*Sheriff Daniel Haddaway was the recipient of a fine box of luscious Florida strawberries one day last week.

*†*Mr. Marion deK. Smith's pet dog was poisoned some nights ago, as was also a valuable rabbit pup belonging to Mr. Snowden Thomas.

*†*Mr. Sheats and family have removed from Baltimore, and he has assumed his duties as manager of the Chestertown Family Steam Laundry.

*†*It is reported that Mr. George Z. Roland, who recently sold his store goods here to Sheriff Daniel Haddaway, has engaged in business with his father-in-law in Baltimore.

*†*Thieves entered the hen house on Mr. Edward Robinson's farm, near town one night this week and stole nine or ten of his best chickens.

*†*A Town Ordinance requires that all property holders must clean snow off their sidewalks. The Town Commissioners have made an especial effort to enforce the ordinance during the recent snow, without subjecting any one to a fine, but say the commissioners, the fine will be imposed if necessary.

*†*The coasting sled given by Wm. Medders & Co., was won by Master Harry Rasin, Kennedyville, the winning number being 20. Harry can now enjoy the Flexible Flyer on the big hills.

*†*The TRANSCRIPT has from time to time noted the many removals now being made in the town and county, but we shall be very glad to know of the change of address of any of our subscribers.

*†*The corner stone of the Fire Company's new building will be laid next Thursday afternoon at 3.15 o'clock with masonic ceremonies. The new ladders and truck for the company have arrived and they are up-to-date in every particular. President France displayed great judgment in their selection.

*†*Governor Crothers has declared February 12th a State holiday in honor of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln. These holidays have become so numerous that one of our banks has been compelled to enlarge its "closing" notice.

*†*Mr. Judefind, of Rock Hall, while handling a pistol on last Saturday accidently shot himself in the palm of his left hand. The shell was loaded with mustard seed shot which still remain in his hand and we are sorry to report caused a very ugly wound.

*†*Mr. John Latham, driver on Mr. Walter T. Morris' milk route, presented each of the customers on the route with a fine souvenir post card on Christmas morning. Mr. Morris knew nothing of Mr. Latham's intention until told by one of his customers, and Mr. Latham's gift was all the more appreciated in the manner in which it was given.

*†*Before the new year was one day old, we had added ten new subscribers to our books. That not only speaks well for the paper, but it means much to our advertisers. Let the good work go on. We are glad to get the people with us, and there are scores more who ought to take the TRANSCRIPT, if they want to keep in touch with well classified and edifying news.

*†*Old Kris was as good if not better, to all the boys and girls in Chestertown and Kent county than we stated he would be. We have not heard of a single boy or girl who did not get what he wanted, and the little boy who got a big rubber ball and a "dump-dak" was just as proud of them as the little girl who received a piano, or the pony and runabout. Oh! Old Kris is a good old fellow.

*†*Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Fowler presented their little daughter, Catherine, with a beautiful little Shetland pony and runabout on Christmas morning. When Catherine came down in the morning to view her presents from Old Kris, there stood the little pony with his harness all on, right in the midst of them. The nice little girl was delighted with the handsome turnout, and as soon as the roads get in good condition, she will make good use of it.

*†*The new warehouse and office of Messrs. W. S. & A. M. Culp has been completed and it is surely an attractive building. The office occupies the front of the building and has large plate glass windows, and is nicely furnished on the interior. The Messrs. Culp are better prepared to do all first-class mill and lumber work than ever, and they are booking many orders for 1909.

*†*The condition of our county roads has been the topic of conversation generally during the week. It is a shame that some people have no more judgment than to attempt to work roads at this season of the year, and yet we are told this was actually the case just prior to the snow storm on certain roads in the county. The County Commissioners should put a stop to such business as this.

*†*All our merchants report a fine Christmas trade. One of our advertisers said his Christmas eve sales were $25 better than last year, while another said that his were $20 better. We wish them all a most successful year for 1909. Printer's ink will bring business, because the people are educated up to looking for what they want in advertisements in the papers. Don't be afraid of the TRANSCRIPT's ink. It is the kind that pays, and pays well. That's the truth brother.

Looking for Good Horses.

Mr. Mal Quinton, a prominent horseman, of Philadelphia, and the driver who gave Picknell, Mr. D. B. McMenamin's fine pacing stallion, his record of 2.15¼, has been in Kent this week, the guest of Dr. G. Allen Jarman, prospecting for good horses to train. Mr. Quinton is one of the best known reinsmen in the country and has driven many winning races in the Grand Circuit and at the Gentlemen's Driving Park, Baltimore. Mr. Quinton was anxious to secure Picknell, which he regards as one of the finest bred horses in the country, and capable of great speed, but Mr. McMenamin prefers to keep him in Kent. He also looked at Mr. James G. Becks fine Admiral Dewey colt, as well as at several others. Mr. Quinton may get a youngster or two from Kent to develop.

Married.

POWELL—SUTTON.—At the minister's home in Galena, Md., Dec. 23, 1908, by Rev. A. P. Prettyman, Samuel R. Powell and Hallie S. Sutton, both of Kent county.

Subscription to the Transcript $1.00 per annum.

OBITUARY.

JOHN KENNARD ALDRIDGE.

Just as the first grey streaks of the dawn of the new year were making their appearance on the horizon, and the old year had died in the west, the spirit of Mr. J. K. Aldridge, one of the town's most prominent business men, and one of our oldest citizens in point of residence took its flight to its long home. Mr. Aldridge had been in poor health ever since the death of his beloved wife, but on Christmas day he was taken with a deep cold which brought on an attack of double pneumonia with other complications, and he passed away yesterday morning shortly after five o'clock in the 69th year of his age. The deceased was born it Cecil county, and was the son of the late Fredus Aldridge. He came to Chestertown when a young man and entered the store of the late William Vickers as clerk. He subseqently engaged in the hardware business with his father, finally becoming sole proprietor. For nearly fifty years Mr. Aldridge devoted his time and attention to the hardware business and developed it to such an extent that it has become one of the largest and most lucrative businesses of its kind on the Eastern Shore. Being a man of fine business ability and frugality he saved his earnings, and at the time of his death he was regarded as one of the most substantial men in the community. He was one of the charter members of the Kent County Savings Bank, becoming its president at its inception, and he was one of the oldest members of the Masonic order in Chertertown. In early life he became a member of Christ Methodist Protestant Church and for long years he had been a faithful member, a large contributor and loyally devoted to its interests. Until about one year ago, when his health began to fail, he was president of the Board of Stewards of the church, and was a member of the building committee which erected the handsome new church of which he was proud to be a member. Mr. Aldridge filled a position in this community which his absence will make keenly felt. Closely identified with the leading business interests of the community, his influence was exerted for the welfare of his town and its people, and in his years of health and vigor actively identified with the church, his moral influence was always for good. In a social way no one will be missed more than will Mr. Aldridge.

His generosity was as unbounded as his heart was large, and his many acts of charity and his numerous kindly deeds will serve to make his memory dear to those who were the recipients of his bounty. In his home-life he was always a devoted husband, an indulgent parent and his loved ones scarcely expressed a want that he did not endeavor to gratify. He loved his family beyond all else in the world, and his indulgence to his children was only the evidence of his great love for them. Mr. Aldridge will be missed, sadly missed not only by those whom he loved and were so dear to him, but he will be missed in the business world, in the church, and in those realms where charity laid the hand of comfort. He has had a useful life, he has left a heritage to his children, rich in deeds of love and good works, and now he has lain down to rest beneath the willow, to await the call of the trumpet. He is survived by three children—Messrs. Wm. R. and John H. Aldridge and Mrs. George Brice, all of Chestertown.

Funeral services will be held from his late residence on Front street on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little assisted by Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield, of Westminster. The pall-bearers will be Messrs. Clinton W. Wroth, Wm. A. Wheatley, John F. Howard, James W. Lambert, Wm. B. Usilton, Walter R. Strong, Harry Nichols and William F. Russell. Interment will be made in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

EX-JUDGE THOMAS J. SHALLCROSS.

Ex-Judge Thomas J. Shallcross died suddenly on Tuesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Raymond Bonwell, near Locust Grove, of heart failure superinduced by an attack of acute indigestion, aged 80 years. Mr. Shallcross had been in exceilent health lately and enjoyed his Christmas dinner with his loved ones. His sudden death was a great shock to the entire county. Judge Shallcross was active in business, society and politics up to the day of his death, and was one of the best known and most prominent men in the county. He was a native of Pennsylvania and was a son of Jacob Shallcross. In 1854 he came to Kent county and purchased a part of Marsh Point farm where he lived until a few years ago, when he removed to Betterton. In 1863 he married Miss Jeanette Gooding, of this county, by whom he is survived with the following children—Dr. William Shallcross, of Philadelphia, Sereck, of New York, and Thomas and Lambert Shallcross, of Wilmington, and two daughters, Mrs. Dr. Brown, of Wilmington, and Mrs. Raymond Bonwell, of near Locust Grove. Since reaching his majority in 1852 Mr. Shallcross had been identified with the Democratic party and had taken an active and prominent part in public life. From 1875 to 1883 he served faithfully as judge of the Orphans' court, and was president of the Board of County Commissioners from 1889 to 1895. He was justice of the peace at Betterton at the time of his death. Judge Shallcross was one of the most expert men at figures in the county. During his term as County Commissioner he not only guarded the affairs of the county zealously but he prepared a system of calculating interests on accounts that was simple, accurate and concise, and which, we believe is in vogue to this day. He was a member of the order of Odd Fellows, of Galena, of the Masonic fraternity and of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which he had served as steward for many years. Mr. Shallcross' public life had brought him in contact with people in all walks in life and those who knew him intimately, loved him for his genial and jovial manner, admired his strength of character, and esteemed him socially. He will be missed in all the affairs pertaining to the welfare of the county, because he had given his services for the good of his fellowmen, and had lived an honorable public and private life. Funeral services were held yesterday morning from the residence of his daughter near Locust Grove cemetery. Rev. E. P. Prettyman officiated. The pall-bearers were his five nephews and Mr. Thomas Vandyke. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. AMELIA WHITE BOLTON.

Mrs. Amelia White Bolton, beloved wife of William Bolton, died on Friday last, December 25th, in the 54th year of her age. Mrs. Bolton was formerly a resident of Middletown and had many friends and acquaintances there. Some years since she removed to the farm of Mr. N. J. Williams, on Bohemia Manor, and has resided there ever since. She was afflicted with Bright's disease, and had been a great sufferer for some time before her death. She was a woman devoted to her husband and family, kind and sympathetic in disposition, with a kind word and a smile for all her friends and acquaintances. She was a member of Bethesda M. E. Church, Middletown, and lived a consistent christian life. Besides her husband, she leaves five children, as follows: Harry, engaged in the mercantile business at Galena, Mrs. Daniel C. Pleasanton, of Middletown; Ella, Margaret and Nathaniel, at home. Funeral services were held at her late residence on Tuesday morning, Rev. Geo. P. Jones officiating, with interment in Forest cemetery, near Middletown. The pall-bearers were N. J. Williams, W. S. Letherbury, Geo. W. Merritt, J. B. Donovan J. A. Cleaver and James Mullen.

RAYMOND FORD.

Mr. Raymond Ford died at his father's home on East Neck Island on Christmas afternoon at 2 o'clock of paralysis of the heart after a very short illness, aged 25. The remains were carried by steamer from Bogles wharf to Queenstown thence by train to Centreville for burial on Monday. Mr. Ford was a member of the Improved Order of Red Men of Rock Hall. The pall-bearers were selected from the order, who followed the body to its resting place. Undertakers Casey Bros. had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. MARY ELIZABETH TOULSON.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Toulson, widow of the late James A. Toulson, died at the home of her son, Mr. Robie Toulson, of Lynch Station, Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock, aged 78 years. Funeral services will be held this morning at 10 o'clock. Interment at Old Union Cemetery. Wm. H. Krusen, funeral director.

MISERY IN STOMACH.

And Indigestion Vanishes in Five Minutes and You Feel Fine.

Why not start new—to-day, and forever rid yourself of Stomach trouble and indigestion? A dieted stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Pape's Diapepsin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of gas or eructations of undigested food; no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of Indigestion and Upset Stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take Gas from Stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestines, and besides, one triangule will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapepsin works your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all Stomach Misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to begin taking Diapepsin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapepsin, because you want to be thoroughly cured of Indigestion.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO YOU AND YOURS

Nineteen naught eight is past.

I will not be able to see you all personally, so I take this method of wishing you a happy and prosperous New Year.

I thank you for your patronage—for the favors you have shown me—for the interest you have taken in my welfare.

I have tried to deserve it all, and I shall try in 1909 to serve you even better.

I have made mistakes—I acknowledge it—but I am here to remedy anything within my power. I want to wipe the slate clean and make 1909 the banner year for us and the one of best values for you.

Join hands and pledge with me the friendship of the past and the friendship of the future.
