WORK THAT TELLS.
 The Kind Chestertown Readers Appreciate.
 Cures that last are cures that tell. To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate the cures and see if they prove permanent. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test, and plenty of proof exists right here in this locality. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now declare that relief was permanent and the cure perfect. Can any Chestertown sufferer longer doubt the evidence?
 William G. Whitney, of Havre de Grace, Md., says: "Over a year ago I told in a public station how Doan's Kidney Pills had benefited me. To-day I willingly confirm all I then said, as my kidney troubles have never returned. I was badly afflicted with this complaint, the doctor saying I had a touch of diabetes. The kidney secretions were unnatural, too frequent in passage and my back ached so severely that it was hard for me to get about. I lost weight, had a poor appetite and became generally run down in health. Hearing that Doan's Kidney Pills were very effective in such cases, I procured a box and used them only a few days when I felt better. I was soon cured and was thus convinced of the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills, as every remedy I had previously tried had failed to help me."
 For sale by all dealers. Price 50 Cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
 Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SEVEN KILLED IN WRECK AT DELMAR.
 Probably Burned to Death, as Their Bodies Were Rendered Almost Unrecognizable.
 In probably the most disastrous accident in the history of the Delaware Railroad, which occurred at Delmar about 2:50 o'clock Monday morning, seven men were killed. The dead:
 Engineer George Davis, Seaford.
 Baggage-master John D. McCreedy, Wilmington.
 Express Messenger Oliver Perry, Philadelphia.
 Mail Clerk William B. Cochran, Philadelphia.
 Mail Clerk J. W. Wood, Wilmington.
 Mail Clerk R. M. Davis, near Maryland, Del.
 Mail Weigher Harvey L. Wilhelm, New Castle.
 The train was No. 49, southbound, New York & Norfolk express, which left Wilmington at 12:05 A. M. It approached Delmar on time, and in the railroad yards just north of the town, while going at a fast rate of speed, it collided with two locomotives. The latter were in waiting to take the train from Delmar, the terminus of the Delaware Railroad, to Cape Charles over the New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk Railroad. Ordinarily these locomotives would have waited on a side track until the arrival of the Norfolk express, and why they should have been waiting on the main track is a matter now under investigation by the railroad officials.
 By the force of the collision, the baggage car and the combination baggage and mail car of the Norfolk express were wrecked and the wreckage almost immediately caught fire. The victims were all in these cars, and were either killed by the crushing of the cars or so disabled that they could not help themselves, and were subjected to the awful fate of death by burning. All the bodies were horribly mutilated and disfigured to an extent that rendered them practically unrecognizable, although they were identified later by various marks and portions of clothing.
 Engineer Davis boarded the train at Seaford, for the purpose of riding to Delmar, where he would have taken charge of one of the locomotives that were to convey the train to Cape Charles. Mail Weigher Wilhelm had gone on duty only on Monday last. He leaves a wife and child. Baggage-master McCreedy was one of the old employes of the Delaware Railroad and leaves a wife and five children.
 Superintendent A. J. Whitney, of the Delaware Railroad left Wilmington in a special train, at 6:55 o'clock, for the scene of the accident, to take personal charge of the investigation and the work of relief.
 The accident blocked the tracks and delayed traffic for several hours.
 Princess Trixie, the educated horse, was burned to death in the wreck. She had been exhibited at Keith's Theatre, Philadelphia, for the past two weeks and was being taken to Norfolk to fill an engagement. The horse was the most famous animal exhibited. She was 20 years old and had been shown all over the world by her owner, W. Harrison Garman. Introductory she was a favorite with vaudeville auditors and appeared three times before King Edward, each time receiving a handsome present from him, the last one being a magnificent head piece.
 Mail Clerk Davis, who was killed, is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Bamberger, of this town.

SEPARATE PRIMARIES LEGAL.
 Mr Straus Gives Ruling On New Law In The Counties.
 Attorney-General Isaac Lobe Straus has given as his opinion that under the general primary law of 1908 it is not necessary for both parties to hold primaries in the counties on the same day.
 The opinion was given at the request of Chairman Vandiver of the Democratic State Central Committee. Mr. Straus holds that the State Central Committee of each party can select the date for the party primaries, the law only requiring that the primaries be held before the second Monday in September.
CURES INDIGESTION.
 All Distress from Stomach and Indigestion Vanishes in Five Minutes.
 Take your sour stomach—or maybe you call it Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangule and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your stomach misery.
 The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the Digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness and many other similar symptoms.
 If your appetite is fickle, and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.
 Prove to yourself, after your next meal, that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Skip this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.
 Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.

AMERICAN TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH CO.
 Bell Stations Outnumber Independent Nearly Two to One.
 The government figures for 1907 shows 3,132,063 Bell stations and 2,986,515 Independent stations or telephones. The Independents have all along claimed over 4,000,000 stations, or fully 33 per cent. more than they actually have.
 With this very important adjustment made, an adjustment which the government statisticians obviously could not make, it will be found that instead of the Bell companies having but 145,000 more stations than the Independents, the real figures are something like 4,000,000 for the Bell, against 2,150,000 for the Independents, a ratio of nearly two to one. The preponderance of Bell over Independent stations may be better illustrated by the following comparison.
 1907 1902 Increase pr. ct. in Bell system. 4,000,000 1,350,000 2,650,000 196 Independents. 2,150,000 1,600,000 1,150,000 115. Bell excess. 1,850,000 550,000 1,300,000
 The relative public utility of the Bell and Independent telephone interests is not measured by number of stations so much as by the fact that the Bell lines are one comprehensive and inter-communicating system, operated under one general policy and connected with toll and long distance lines aggregating nearly 2,000,000 miles in length.
 The significant feature of the rapid telephone development of the United States during the last five years has been this quiet, steady application with the American telephone system of 900,000 Independent stations. As a result, thousands of subscribers in the west have to-day what they have never before enjoyed, the advantage of connection with the only national telephone service in the country.
