AN ENGLISH HOLIDAY

How East Side London Plays on Boxing Day.

ROUGH SPORT IS THE RULE.

All Cockneyland Flocks to Historic Hampstead Heath, Where Hilarity, Fast and Furious, Rules From Early Morning Till After Midnight.

Boxing day is a great institution in England. The day after Christmas is Boxing day, so called because in the old days it marked the occasion of the actual giving of Christmas boxes. Now it is a national holiday. Besides being the last in some well-known manners, at all events, until Easter Monday, it's a great day in Cockney-land, and the east end crowds to Hampstead Heath, the picturesque open space in the northwest of London.

All roads lead to the heath. Soon after daybreak the procession begins.
Fully loaded trams and donkey barrows are the principal items in the vehicular traffic, but the majority are on foot, singing and shouting for the holiday.
"Ere yer are, Sir 'Enery," shouts a woman, pushing a tin squirt filled with water into your face. "Ere yer are, Sir 'Enery; all the fun of the fair:
Two a penny. 'Ave a couple, will yer, m'lud?"

The London street merchants have the habit of giving prospective customers a title, presumably on the theory that a Londoner likes to have you believe that he is some well-known man.
Should you be persuaded into buying "a couple" the chances are a moment later you will be face to face with "Arriet. She wears a large hat trimmed with large feathers of brilliant hue, has a hair fringe down over her forehead and a bright colored velvet dress.
Probably several will be in a line, each with an arm around the other's neck and a mouth open in the other hand.
There is battle in their eyes, and before you are aware of it a stream of water will be running down your face.
The best thing to do is to retreat, for if you should give battle you are sure to retire, defeated, with your collar like a wet rag and a most uncomfortable feeling of dampness down your back.

Once on the heath the coconut pitches will first claim your notice.
"Ere yer are, kernel, seven shies a tanner. Every one yer knocks down yer 'ave. They're all milky. Loidies and kids 'arf way."
Then this scene will meet your eye.
Outside a large tent stands a raised platform. On it are half a dozen men stripped to the waist with arms folded across their chests. One of them, evidently the proprietor, twists a large rattle, which gives forth a most deafening noise. At last it stops, and he begins:
"Loidies and gents, I wants ter hin-terduce to yer notice some of the best boxers in this and foreign countries is Felix Scott of Liverpool. 'E'll fight any man in the crab, and if he don't put 'im aht in three rahnds 'e'll give 'im a quid. Nah, then, wholl 'ave 'em on with the champion?"

Some one accepts the inviting offer, and a rush is made to pay the admission fee and get into the tent.
A company of traveling actors is assembled on the platform outside the next tent, all made up in their war paint. The piece to be performed is "Othello." The price of admission is a penny. A reserved seat, an empty box, will cost you another penny. And the house soon fills.

Outside you will find every form of outdoor amusement in full swing-- "Aunt Sallies," swings, roundabouts, skipping and donkeys. The latter are greatly patronized. Young men and maiden, old men and women, all have "a pannorth of donkey ride." A fat woman clings to one poor beast's neck shouting:

"O'er, I'm sure I'm falling. Don't make 'im go so fast. Ho, look at me 'at. Lemme get off. I'm sure yer 'ittin' 'im."

When the dust has cleared away she is seen lying in the road panting:

"I know'd yer done it on purpose!"

At last the journey home is begun, everybody happy and tired, yet not too tired to link arms, the men wearing the girls' feathered hats and pearl buttoned coats and the girls wearing caps and hats and wondrous masculine jackets. All are singing different songs, but every now and then they break forth in unison with popular songs of the moment. In the saloons they drink beer out of one pewter and swear undying love and friendship till the voice of the proprietor, it now being 12:30 in the morning and closing time, is heard calling, "Time, gents, please," and a final start is made.

This may answer the question why the average Cockney worker always wants a second day off to get over Boxing day--New York Times.

Wanted to See Them.
When Helen, aged four, for the first time recognized her mother to church she was given some money for the collection box. It was carefully explained to her that this money was "for the poor."

Helen sat patiently through perhaps a third of the service, when she startled her mother by rattling the coins between her cupped hands and inquiring in a loud voice: "Mamma, when are the poor coming around? My 8 cents is getting all hot and sticky!"-- immediate jewel of their souls.--

The New Deere No. 9 Planter

This is the corn planter which has demonstrated to thousands of farmers that it is practicable to obtain a perfect stand of growing corn.

Our unrivaled edge selection drop, used only on Deere Planters, has become immensely popular.
None corn per acre can be grown when the New Deere Planter is used, because it puts the required number of kernels in every hill. And a full stand is the first and most important step in securing the maximum yield of corn. If you are interested, write for our book containing full particulars. It contains information which will enable you to improve the quality and increase your yield of corn. Our handsome and useful pocket companion free.

FARM TOOLS

When you put your money into a Johnston farm implement you can rest assured you will get the very best value you ever obtained in farm machinery.

The reason why they stand so high with the thousands of farmers in this and foreign countries is because they give that real, genuine satisfaction in the field which every buyer of farm tools hopes to get. They fulfill the highest expectations; are so positively dependable, so thoroughly practical and do the work so much better, quicker and easier than when compared by actual service with others, their superiority is at once apparent.

Here we show some of them. We cannot tell you all their special strong features here, their exclusive advantages, or the points that make them superior to others, or show you by illustrations just why they do their work better, quicker and easier, just why they last longer, why the breakage is so rare, why they are the cheapest; but our 1908 Catalog gives full description of our full line. You should not buy a single tool until you read it. It will help you to avoid making a mistake and post you as latest improvements. A postal brings it. Write today.
