Vehicle Comparison

Teaches a Strong Lesson.

A "Floosy Looking" Vehicle built to sell at a tempting price is the poorest investment you can make. It is an expensive economy. Even the horse becomes ashamed of such a vehicle. We do not sell that kind. Ours are the dependable sort with the guarantee of a strong concern behind them—and, too, we are here to make good if anything should go wrong. We sell all sorts of vehicles. Have pleased some mighty particular people who discovered we are satisfied with small profits. Have a look in.

Implements and Machinery

If you need anything in Farm Implements or Machinery of any kind, give us a call. We handle the BEST Lines and at small profits.

If you need a CORN PLANTER the "SUPERIOR" will do the work. Either edge or flat drop by simple change of plates.

The best fertilizer attachment of any planter made. This is no exaggeration.

LOCKWOOD—GREEN.

Miss Julia E. M. Lockwood, of Middletown, Del., and Mr. John Cochran Green, grandson of the late John P. Cochran, former Governor of Delaware, were married on Tuesday evening at six o'clock. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother, on Cross street, Middletown, by Rt. Rev. J. J. Monaghan, Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Wilmington. The bride wore a splendid robe of white satin with handsome pearl trimming and lace, the veil being caught with orange blossoms. Her going-away gown was a handsome blue cloth tailor-made. A brilliant reception followed the ceremony. The bride was the recipient of more than 300 presents. Both the bride and groom are very popular, the bride being well-known in Kent. Those who attended the reception from Kent were Mr. Wm. H. Hyland, Jr., Galena; J. E. Woodall, Jr., and Miss Sallie Woodall, Georgetown.

GIBSON—CRABBE.
Col. W. Hopper Gibson, of Centerville, and Miss Lucy Virginia Crabbe, of Baltimore, were married on Wednesday at St. Michael and All Angels Protestant Episcopal Church, by the rector, Rev. Dr. John G. Murray, assisted by Rev. Walter Stahl, of Centerville. The wedding was one of the season's social features. The ushers were Messrs. Charles Cox Hopper, J. Milton Lyell, Edwin Warfield, Jr., and Madison Bordley, of Centerville. The groom is one of the most widely known men on the peninsula, while the bride is one of Baltimore's charming society young ladies. After an extended wedding tour, Col. and Mrs. Gibson will reside at Centerville, where the groom has a beautiful home. Mr. Walter T. Wright, of Centerville, was the best man.
