Wedding Bells.

QUELETT—MARTIN.

Miss Marian Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Martin, 834 West Fayette street, Baltimore, was married to Mr. George L. Quelett, formerly of Chestertown, but now of Baltimore, on Friday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robt. H. Weech, pastor of Fayette street, M. E. Church. The bride's costume was a blue traveling suit, with hat and gloves to match. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Quelett left for a tour of the South. Upon their return they will reside at Newport News, Va. The groom is well-known in Chestertown, where he was for a number of years manager of Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard's fertilizer factory.

Mr. James B. Cochran, of Middletown, Del., and Miss Blanche T. Sutton, of Galena, Maryland, were married in Philadelphia on Thursday evening, April 29th, at the Holy Memorial Comforter Church by the Rev. Reginald F. Moody. The bride was attired in a gray traveling suit, hat and gloves to match. After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Cochran will make their home at Townsend, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Charles Wheatley have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Mary, to Frank Carter Pogue on Thursday, May 20, 1909, at 8.30 P. M., in St. Anne's P. E. Church, Annapolis.

Miss Mabrey C. Rash, daughter of Mr. B. F. Rash, of Worton, and Mr. W. Howard Carter, of Wilmington, were married Sunday, April 11, 1909, in Wilmington.

The wedding of Mr. George Elsworth Leary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Leary, of Rock Hall, and Miss Alice E. Parsons, the attractive daughter of Justice Thomas Parsons, took place Saturday, April 24th, at Wesley Chapel parsonage, Rev. C. A. Compher officiating.

The marriage of Mr. Maurice N. Durling, of Rock Hall, and Miss Lillian E. Elmhurst, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Elmhurst, took place Wednesday evening of last week at the home of the bride, 625 Columbia avenue, Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Miller, pastor of the Second English Lutheran Church. The wedding march was played by Miss Margaret Hammer. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Rosalie M. Elmhurst, and the groom by his brother, Mr. William Durling, Jr.

A Narrow Escape.

Little Miss Anna Perkins, the interesting daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Perkins made a very narrow escape from drowning on Sunday afternoon. Anna, with several other children was playing in Mrs. Solomon's yard on Front street, and all of them made a successful attempt to run from Mrs. Solomon's yard into Mrs. J. D. Lucas' yard adjoining, except Anna, who lost her balance and fell overboard. Miss McGinnes, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Lucas, was in the third story of the home and happened to see the children run from one yard to the other. She missed Anna, and immediately the thought occurred to her that the child had fallen overboard. She rushed down to the basement where she told Mr. Lucas, who hurried to the wall, and looking over saw Anna's hat in the water. He did not wait for anything else but jumped in the water with his Sunday clothes on, and rescued the child just in time to save her life. Restoratives were immediately applied, and Anna was soon alright, but how fortunate it was that Miss McGinnes saw the dear little girl. Aside from a good ducking, Mr. Lucas suffered no ill consequences save the loss of his eye glasses in his brave rescue. Children, be careful on those walks.
