A census taker of the Department of Fishers in this district taking account of the number of people who are engaged in this industry.

Mr. E. Proctor has greatly improved his lunch room by painting and adding new tables. Mr. Proctor is the right man in the right place and his lunch room certainly does look inviting.

Capt. Tom Sewell is running a low freight packet between this port and Baltimore, making two trips a week.

Mr. Samuel Usilton who died here last Friday was taken to Philadelphia for burial.

One day this week two young men were out for a ride on their new wheels and enjoying themselves very much when one wheel slipped a little, ran into the other and took several spokes out. Neither of the boys were hurt.

Mrs. Benj. Ashley and her two sons, Marley and Wellington, spent a few days last week with her and Mrs. David Marshall, of York, Pa.

A slight fire at the home of Mrs. Camp caused considerable excitement here last Monday morning. A hen house in the back of her yard caught fire burning several hens and little chicks.

After the fire was well under way there was an explosion which could not be accounted for as there was nothing of the nature of an explosive in the house.

Volunteer fireman put the fire out. One young lady of the town said it was instantaneous combustion. "Hi Ha!"

Mr. Leary is having his house painted, it will look fine when finished.

Uncle Jack has had his large carriage painted and repaired.

There are quite a number of summer visitors in town already. Those warm days are no doubt the cause of this.

George Rasin and Walter Lewis boast of being the first to go swimming in town this season, they had a good time but the water was just a little cold.

Harlock, the piano man, was with us for a few days the first of the week.

The senior class of the High School are very busy with their examinations and are all trying hard to make good, as they term it.

Miss Clara Biggs, who has been sick for several weeks past, is improving very rapidly and will soon be able to join her friends.

Mr. M. Kramer, Rev. J. T. Richardson, Adam Kelley and Mr. Romie Stevens and wife were among the Baltimore visitors this week.

Picknell

35381.

RECORD, 2:15 1/4.

Made in third heat of Winning Race.

Bred by C. W. Williams, Galesburg, Ill. Foaled 1901.

A model in every way; his size, 15.2 hands; weight close to 1050 pounds, and color, mahogany bay, are ideal. His DISPOSITION and MANNERS are PERFECT. His BREEDING, the HIGHEST OF FASHION—a SON OF THE GREATEST SIRE OF HIS AGE, LIVING or DEAD.

ALLERTON, 2094; WORLD'S CHAMPION TROTTING STALLION to high wheels, from one of the greatest TROTTING DAUGHTERS OF HAKON WILKES, 238; the famous FITTURY SIRE. A RACE HORSE himself, never having worn hobble nor other false rigging; started green in the late summer of 1896 in six races, winning two of them, and was well up in the money, the other four he has, (though prominent horsemen have pronounced him capable of a record of 2:05 or better), by retired to the STUD. SOUND, CLEAN, SUPERBLY HANDSOME, with VIGOR and VITALITY unimpaired, saving for his off-spring what a mere racing-machine wears out on the track.

PICKNELL will make the season of 1909 at my stables, Kent and Calvert Streets, Chestertown, Kent Co., Maryland, at $15.00 the season, or $25.00 to insure approved mares.

Will not be responsible for accidents or escapes, but best of care taken of mares sent to me.

For extended pedigree that will interest any horseman, or for fuller particulars call on address
