THE SHOE STORE.

'OF INTEREST TO YOU'

One of our customers from upper Kent county, came into our store a few days ago, and before going home bought, for each member of his family, a pair of Shoes or Oxfords, after paying for them, he said I always like to come to your store to buy my shoes, because, with such a large assortment of shoes as you show, I am able to get just what I want, and it always pays me, because of the superior quality of Shoes I get from you.

Would you experience the Shoe satisfaction of this man? Then do likewise—get a pair of our Shoes or Oxfords, and learn through actual test that it pays to buy Shoes at "THE SHOE STORE."

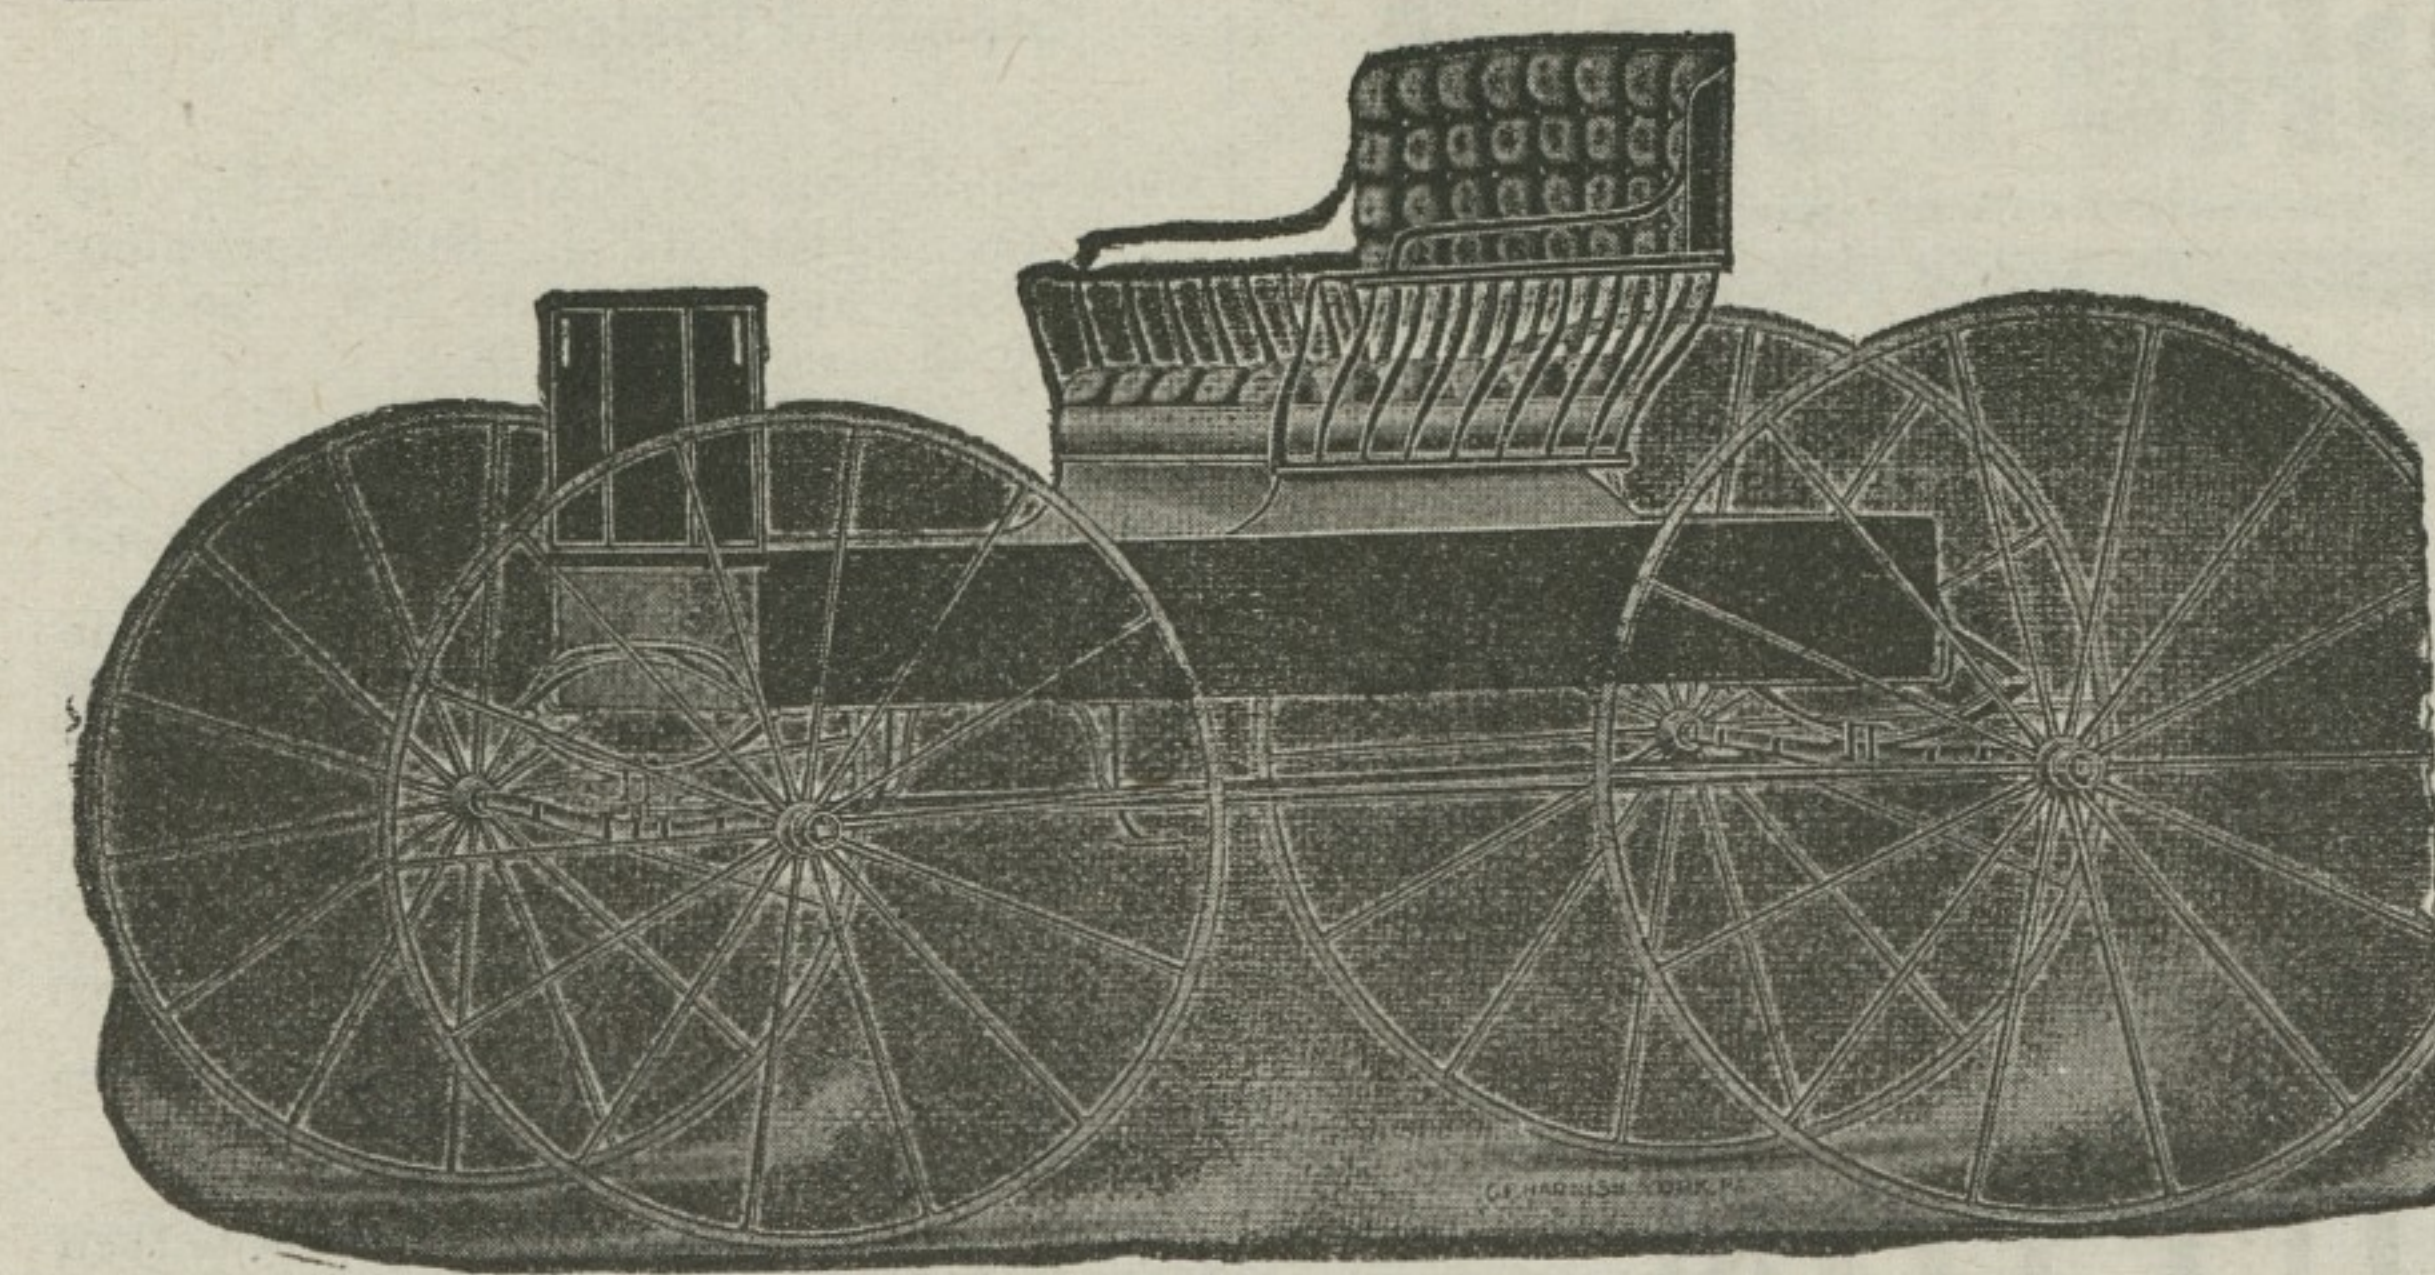

The new summer styles await your inspection.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Farm Sold.—Mr. Skinner, real estate agent has sold to Dr. W. Frank Hines, Mr. Philip G. Wilmer's Buckingham farm on Chester River. The price is said to have been $6000. Mr. Wilmer, a little more than one year ago purchased the farm for $4500.

Final Dividend.—Charles T. Westcott, Esq., of Baltimore, former president of the Chestertown National Bank, of which the Chestertown Bank of Maryland is the successor, has notified the stockholders of the liquidated institution that the directors have declared a final dividend of $3.33 per share in surplus, which will be paid upon surrender of their certificates of stock. The bank had paid its capital stock last year and this dividend, though small, will be a pleasant surprise to the stockholders.

Mr. George T. Hudson injured.—Mr. George T. Hudson, one of the most popular farmers in the Sixth District was painfully injured on Wednesday. Mr. Hudson had gone to Melittota to purchase provisions to the stock holder. He was wearing an oilskin coat, and after making his purchases he went to his horse to unhitch it, when it took flight and control the animal but it turned suddenly on the lock throwing Mr. Hudson under the buggy, which ran over him. It is feared that his ankle is fractured and he was otherwise bruised and shaken up. He has been under the care of a physician since, and Mr. Hudson hopes to be able to do all he can for his friends in politics on June 12th.

NEWSY BRIEFS.

**College Commencement June 11-16.

**The Jr. O. U. A. M. presented an American flag to Janviers' public school yesterday.

**Home grown strawberries have been retailing as low as 8 cents per quart in local markets during the week.

**Many of the farmers here have been compelled to replant corn on account of the ravages of the cut worm.

**Tolchester opens today for the season of 1909. The TRANSCRIPT wishes the management the greatest success in the history of the resort.

**Mr. P. A. M. Brooks sold to Mr. Marcus Asher last week 585 lbs. of wool from 60 sheep at 30 cents per lb. Mr. Brooks received a check for $175.50.

**Prof. Symon, State Entomologist and Prof. Norton, State Pathologist, were in the county yesterday inspecting peach orchards infested with "curly leaf."

**Mr. Arlington L. Sparks has recently installed a handsome new glass counter in his big store. It is full of dainty articles to please the feminine eye, and is a great attraction to his pretty store.

**The steamer Old Point Comfort, which plies between Cape Charles City and Norfolk, is making the trips of the B. S. Ford, while the latter is being over-hauled and repainted. She is in command of Capt. William Vandyke.

**Mr. Stonewall J. Johnson, one of the most prominent farmers of the First District, residing near Masses has just delivered 3000 bushels of corn for which he was paid 81 cents a bushel. Mr. Johnson is one of Kent's most successful corn growers.

**Mr. Walter U. Lusby, owner of Tolchester farm, is erecting a comfortable bungalow on his bayshore place near the Beach. Mr. Lusby proposes to rent the bungalow during the summer months, and he has already received such encouragement that he is contemplating building another. Mr. Harry Cannon is doing the work.

**The rains of the past week greatly aided growing crops, though pasture had gotten extremely short and oats were burning. One farmer stated that had not the rain come when it did there would not have been more than half a crop. Sandy land wheat in Queen Annes is said to be hurt somewhat.

**The Jr. O. U. A. M. and the P. O. S. of A. will hold memorial services in the Chester Cemetery on Sunday morning. The Orders will meet at Fraternal Hall and will march in a body to the cemetery where they will decorate the graves of deceased comrades. Members of the two orders are urged to be present at the hall promptly at 9 o'clock and take part in the exercises.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Chancellor Nicholson, of Delaware has handed down an opinion denying the right of injunction against the congregation of Wesley M. E. Church, Dover, stating that he has no jurisdiction in the matter of compelling the church to be opened. The controversy at Dover, in which Rev. Dr. Lightbourne has figured so conspicuously is very unfortunate, and for the good of the church and conference the matter should be amicably settled.

Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, paid beautiful tributes to the late United States Senator George Vickers and the late Mr. and Mrs. John T. Dodd, pioneer members of the church, in a strong sermon on Sunday night before a fine congregation.

Rev. F. D. Reynolds, pastor of Kennedyville M. P. Church, officiated at the funeral of a Mr. Baker in Baltimore on Monday.

Rev. Dr. F. T. Little attended the funeral of Mrs. Tamsay Reese in Easton on Tuesday, making the trip in Mr. Elwood Whaley's automobile.

St. James M. P. Sunday school will observe next Sunday, June 5th, as Children's Day. Christ M. P. Sunday school will hold its exercises in the evening of the same day.

Emmanuel M. E. Church, South, Chestertown: Sunday School at 9.30 A. M. Children's Day at 10.30 A. M. League at 7.30 P. M. Wednesday night service at 8 P. M.

Rev. J. G. Murray, of St. Michael and All Angels Church, Baltimore, was elected Bishop coadjutor of Maryland, to assist Bishop Parett at the Protestant Episcopal Convention in Baltimore on Wednesday.

Trinity M. E. Church, South, Millington: Sunday School at 3 P. M. Preaching at 3 P. M. League at 7.30 P. M. Preaching at 8 P. M. by Rev. E. V. Register, Presiding Elder of Baltimore District. Quarterly Conference at 10.30 A. M. Monday.

Chestertown M. E. Church.—Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., pastor.—Services next Sunday, May 30th, as follows: 10.30 A. M. preaching by the pastor—subject: "Another Great Question." 2.15 P. M. Sabbath School and pastor's Bible Class; 6.00 P. M. Junior League; 6.45 P. M. Senior League; 7.30 P. M. preaching by Rev. R. K. Stephenson, District Superintendent. All invited. Come, you are welcome.

Owing to the inclement weather, the festival of the Bettertton M. E. Church to be held at Betterton last Saturday evening was postponed until Monday evening when a good crowd was present and a snug sum was realized for church purposes.

Do not forget the festival of Emmanuel M. E. Church, on Friday and Saturday, June 4 and 5th! CONSECRATION OF CHURCH OF THE INCARNATION, BROOKLYN.

The Church of the Incarnation, Brooklyn (the Rev. Dr. John G. Bacchus, rector), was consecrated by Bishop Burgess on the morning of the Fourth Sunday after Easter, he preaching the sermon and confirming a class of thirty candidates. There was a large congregation and fine music under direction of Choirmaster Crawford. During the succeeding week there were social and other exercises, and the paying off of a floating indebtedness of $2,800. A feature of Incarnation parish is the large number of young men it has furnished for Holy Orders. Among the number are Bishop Partridge, of Kyoto, the Rev. Dr. W. M. Grosvenor, of New York, and the Rev. Duncan M. Genns, of Brooklyn. The founder of the parish was the Rev. D. Breytner, who went to Brooklyn in 1866. The present rector came to the parish in 1873, and has seen the work grow from very small things to one of the great parishes of the diocese, with ample site fronting on two principal streets, and equipment for work that is adequate for the present need. Dr. Bacchus was ordained, married, performed the marriage of one of his children, and celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his rectorate in the same church, in the most picturesque manner, so that now its congregation contains representatives of the third generation of considerable numbers. Dr. Bacchus has long been a member of the Standing Committee of the diocese, and three times deputy to the general Convention. Dr. Bacchus is a brother of Messrs. D. A. and J. D. Bacchus, of Chestertown.

Horse Notes.

Mr. Wilbur Gale, the wellknown horse man of Baltimore, has purchased a fine horse from Mr. Harry Nicols.

Mr. Herbert Lusby has sold to Mr. Raymond Walbert a fine four year old Maryland Russell Colt.

Mr. Cooper Tarbutton drove Josie Lee the finely bred trotting mare raised by Mr. B. H. Hix, into town on Monday. She is a very handsome mare, and Mr. Hicks gazed longingly at his former charge.

Mr. Wilbur Thomas has another fine Picknell Colt from his brood mare.

Mr. Wm. H. McKee has sold to Mr. Clifton L. Jarrell his fine Happy Partner gray driving mare and suckling Picknell colt for a good figure.
