MILLINERY.

MILLINERY!

Our present display is worthy of the most fastidious, whom we can and will please in beauty, quality and style. Difficulty of judging actual value makes it easy for those who depend on high prices to put on large profits and while money is often willingly paid for a beautiful hat, or bonnet it is no excuse for asking exhorbitant prices. The ever-increasing popularity of this department, proves appreciation of our policy of selling millinery on the same moderate basis of profit as other goods. Call and be convinced.

TOLCHESTER OPENS

Bay Resort Spick And Span With Paint And Lights.

It is certainly due Tolchester and those officially connected with it to say that it never looked better in its 30-odd years than it does this season, which opened Saturday. The largest single improvement since the beach was made a public resort has been built during the winter. It is known as the excursion pavilion and has been constructed with the idea of being a comfortable resting place for those who go to the beach for a boat ride and the fresh air which can be had from high and spacious porches.

Capt. William C. Eliason, president of the company, was warmly congratulated for his enterprise in erecting such a handsome structure. Standing as it does at the main landing and overlooking the broad bay, it is three stories high, with spacious towers on each side that rise an additional story, offering a fine view of the bay. The interior is finished in hardwood, while the ceilings are of pressed steel. There are benches, wicker rockers and chairs in various colors on every floor and porch, and plenty of them.

The first floor is devoted to a dairy lunch, with a marble top counter and mahogany sideboard, where light lunches, candies and sodas can be had. A feature of the first floor is the wide stairway leading to the second floor and also out to the main grounds. The entire building is well lighted with electric lights and will shine out as a beacon across the bay. Mr. Alfred Cookman Leach, the architect, was present and after giving it a thorough inspection came in for congratulations. This improvement alone cost $15,000.

The contractors and builders were the wellknown Chestertown firm, W. S. & A. M. Culp, who also shared congratulations with the architect and management.

The company has also installed an elected light plant and will have all the buildings and grounds brilliantly illuminated on the days when three trips are made and excursionists stay until dark.

Captain Eliason had a few invited guests at supper at the hotel, who included Capt. J. H. Truitt, Capt. James McCulloh, Capt. E. Walter Giles, Messrs. A. S. Miles, J. M. Naudian, Jonathan Pennell, James Chapman, Henry Clark, A. Cookman Leach and W. H. Hudson.
