ANTIS WIN GREAT VICTORY

They Nominate a Register of Wills, Treasurer, Two County Commissioners, One Member of the House of Delegates and Two Delegates to the State Convention.

POLL THE BIGGEST VOTE IN THE FACE OF THE GREATEST ODDS, IN THEIR HISTORY, AND CONDUCT AN HONEST AND FAIR CAMPAIGN.

The Result of the Primaries is a Blow to the Organization Forces, Who Got the Clerk, Sheriff, One Legislator and Five Delegates to State Convention.

After one of the most hotly contested campaigns in the history of the county, the factions of the Democratic party locked horns in the primaries on Saturday afternoon, and when the smoke of battle had cleared away the result was found to be a decided victory for the Anti-Organization forces. The spiritiveness of the contest could be seen by the efforts made to gain votes, and the closeness of the result shows how well both sides had managed their campaign. 2067 votes were counted in the contest, and if we count all the rejected ballots, about 2140 votes were cast. Nobody had any idea that there were that number of Democrats in the county, and nobody has any idea that there are that many. If there are, then the Republicans had just as well lay off their armor, for there isn't any use to fight. The highest Democratic vote polled in any election since 1903 was that given to Parker in 1904, who received 1905 votes.

Mr. Dixon in 1903, in a memorable contest received 1892 votes and Mr. Beck, the Democratic candidate for State's Attorney, two years ago received a little more than 1500 votes. And yet in the Democratic primary of June 12, 1909, 2140 votes were polled. Interesting, isn't it? And yet for all that Hadaway was only defeated by 27 votes, and the Antis fail to control the delegates to the State Convention by an average of about 25 votes. Wonderful victory for the Anti-Organization, when you analyze the vote, and study the "people of the doubtfulness." The result of the primaries shows clearly that the people of the county are interested in the welfare of the party, and it seems after all that the hand of Providence is in the result so far as the decision of the ticket is concerned. Both factions are represented strongly on the ticket and this should undoubtedly insure the success of the Democratic ticket in the fall. Every man on the ticket is a good man, and worthy in the highest and best sense of the support of all good Democrats. Not one man should be defeated in the fall, and if the people of the county elect the nominees on the ticket for Commissioners, they can be assured of an economical and business-like administration of the Commissioners office. She the hands, old fel, and let's get to work for the whole ticket and the passage of the Amendment. The following is a tabulated form of the result in the primaries:

COMMENCEMENT DAYS.

ANNUAL EXERCISES AT WASHINGTON COLLEGE INTERESTING.

Fine Sermons—Enjoyable Society and Athletic Events.

Interesting Class Day Exercises—Field Sports Attractive—Declaration Contest Spirited—Large Graduating Classes—Honor Roll Students.

PUBLIC SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

This has been commencement week and the usual commencement crowd had returned to Chestertown to attend the various exercises and to enjoy the loyalty to their school and to the exercises, though by no means an elaborate character, were of unusual interest, and many pleasant friendships have been renewed during these commencement days. The exercises began last Friday evening with the annual banquet by the ADELPHI LITERARY SOCIETY. At the Hotel Imperial. The following menu was splendidly served by the proprietor, Mr. Joseph Lambert:
Clam Bullion Baked Trout
Fried Chicken French Peas
Parisienne Macaroni and Biscuit
Strawberry Pudding Tomatoes and Lettuce
Shrimp Patties Cheese Straws Individual Ice
Strawberry Shortcake French Rolls
Olives Sweet Pickles
Salted Nuts Mint
The following toasts were ably responded to, and afforded much real pleasure:
"Old Friends".....A. H. Porter
"By Friends World".....H. S. Cordery
"The Absent".....W. U. Cross
"The Ladies".....E. C. Crouch
"The Athletes".....J. N. Graham
"Recollections".....J. K. Rutting
"A Toast to the Faculty".....W. H. Cordery
"University Life".....E. W. Pruitt
"Farewell".....E. W. Pruitt
BASE BALL.
An interesting base ball game was played on Saturday afternoon between the W. C. squad and the Mt. Vernon team. It was a brilliant contest from start to finish, with Mt. Vernon having a shade the better of the argument, and the visitors noosed out the game by the close score of 9 to 7.
PIERIA LITERARY SOCIETY.
On Saturday evening the annual reception and banquet of the Pieria Literary Society was held in Normal Hall. This society belongs exclusively to the lady students, and yet its doors are open to friends of the college, who always enjoy immensely the hospitality and good cheer that is dispensed at these functions.
BACCALAUREATE SERMON.
Sunday morning was not an ideal morning for a baccalaureate sermon, and yet William Smith Hall was well filled to hear the baccalaureate sermon which was delivered by Rev. Hiram W. Kellogg, D. D., LL. D., of Grace Church, Washington. Dr. Kellogg's theme was "Fitness to Enjoy Life," from the text: "All Things Are Yours, and ye are Christ's, and Christ is God's." The sermon was beautiful in its simplicity, mastery in its diction and impressive in its character. It was an ideal baccalaureate sermon, and Dr. Kellogg met the situation like the master of sermonizing that he is. The music for the service was rendered by a choir of talented voices, under the direction of Miss Chapman, and the performance of music at the college, and was well done.
SERMON TO CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS.
The sermon to the Christian Associations of the college was delivered in William Smith Hall on Sunday evening by Rev. J. H. G. Smith, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Baltimore. Mr. Gould is a graduate of Washington College, and his many friends here were delighted and impressed and impressed with his discourse. He is a speaker of pleasing address and much ability, and his sermon was in keeping with the spirit of the college. Music was furnished by the trained choir.
CLASS DAY.
A departure from the usual order of Class Day exercises was the one of Monday. The exercises were held on the lawn of Normal Hall, and the exercises were particularly pleasing and inspiring. The exercises were enjoyable and entertaining, and were up to the usual Class Day standard of the season.
BASE BALL.
The game of base ball between Washington and Mt. St. Joseph's College, of Baltimore, on Monday afternoon was a hotly contested one from start to finish, and resulted in a victory for the W. C. team by the score of 7 to 4. Johns was in the box for W. C. and by good headwork and fine control he succeeded in pulling his team out of several ugly holes. He delivered the victory. There was much unnecessary wrangling upon the part of the visitors about the umpiring of Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., but Mr. Vickers proved his skill and displayed his nerve, and was impartial in his decisions. The game was won strictly upon its merits, Washington College winning by a big batting rally in the eighth. This was regarded as a great victory for Washington as the Mt. St. Joseph's team had defeated Mt. Agricultural College earlier in the season.
MT. VERNON LITERARY SOCIETY.
The annual celebration of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society was held in William Smith Hall, on Monday evening at eight o'clock. The address was given by Dr. James W. Chapman, Jr., of the Baltimore bar. The theme of Dr. Chapman's address was "Lessons from the life of Washington." It was of a historical nature and well delivered. The unfavorable weather, which has been a ban on all the exercises prevented a large attendance, but those who braved the elements were amply repaid. Dr. Chapman was at his best, and he impressed his audience with the earnestness of his argument and the historical nature of his utterances. Excellent music was furnished for the occasion by Weber's Fifth Regiment Orchestra, Baltimore. The members of the Society are: C. A. Atwood, J. R. Eaden, E. G. Brading, M. K. Barroll, C. N. Bordley, J. S. Burris, O. H. Connelly, N. C. Crouch, F. R. Davis, T. W. Eliason, Jr., E. H. Garry, A. C. Griffin, C. H. Gibson, J. F. H. Huey, H. W. Huston, E. A. Johnson, P. J. Johnson, L.

THE ALUMNI GAME.

A crowd of more than six hundred spectators saw the great Alumni game on Washington field on Wednesday afternoon. The game, while a good one, was not as exciting and spicy as the game last year, due to the fact possibly that Wilson, the Alumni pitcher was not in form.

The game was a very decided success, and the meet was a very decided success.

ALUMNI BANQUET.

The annual reunion and banquet of the Alumni Association was held in West Hall on Tuesday evening and was presided over by Dr. Urie Esq., president of the Association, was toastmaster and the responses were all well made and much enjoyed.

The banquet was a very decided success, and the meet was a very decided success.
