WESTON, Ocean-to-Ocean Walker.

Said recently: "When you feel down and out, feel there is no use living. Just take your bad thoughts with you and walk them off. Before you have walked a mile things will look rosier. Just try it." Have you noticed the increase in walking of late in every community? Many attribute it to the comforts which Allan's Foot Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken in the shoes, gives to the millions now using it. As Weston has said, "it has real merit."

STATE BAR ASSOCIATION.

Great Gathering Planned at Old Point in July—Speakers.

Lawyers in Maryland are beginning to look forward to the fourteenth annual meeting of the Maryland State Bar Association, which will be held on July 7, 8 and 9, at Old Point Comfort, Va. This is the first time that the association has held an annual meeting outside of the state, and it is expected to be one of the biggest and busiest sessions in its history. The Hotel Chamberlain will be the headquarters ot Old Point, and plans have been made to have reduced fares to that place and reduced rates at the hotel.

The program has not as yet been fully completed, but it is stated that it will be made up of very interesting reports and suggestions, containing matters of great importance to the profession and the general public. The banquet, which is always looked forward to with great interest, will be held in the ballroom of the Hotel Chamberlain, on the evening of July 9.

Mr. Wm. L. Marbury, of Baltimore, will be toastmaster, and the speakers and their subjects, so far announced, are as follows:

Judge Simeon Baldwin, chief judge of the Supreme Court of Connecticut—"The New Reading of Due Process of Law."

Justice Henry B. Brown, retired judge of the Supreme Court of the United States—"The Law and Procedure in Divorce.

Roscoe Pound, of the law department of Northwestern University—"Law in Books and Law in Action."

Arthur M. Machen, Jr., of the Baltimore bar—"Do the Incorporation Laws Allow Sufficient Freedom to Commercial Enterprises?"

Carroll T. Bond, of the Baltimore bar—"Some Duties of the Whole Profession."

W. Irvin Cross, of the Baltimore bar—"Some Late Workings of the Doctrine of Public Policy."

Other speakers, whose subjects have not been announced, will be:

William C. Devecmon, president of the association.

Frank B. Kellogg, the special attorney of the United States in the Standard Oil cases.

Herbert Noble, of New York, attorney in several of the trust fights.

Omer Hershey, of the Baltimore Bar.

The special rates have been made effective from July 3 to 15, so that any members desiring to spend July 4 and the remainder of the week at Old Point may do so.
