HARRY F. JEFFERSON,

THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall

Chestertown, Md

Kennedyville Items.

Our farmers are thrashing and some are stacking their wheat, and while the crop is small and somewhat inferior the price is good, and while we must not try to cross the bridge until we get to it, yet, the man that buys flour the coming year will have to pay more than in the past.

There will be some changes among our farmers the end of the year. Some who will change are George Lane, Harry Redding, Mrs. Harry C. Price, Harvey Moore, Mr. Benton, Mr. Logan, Wm. L. Meredith, Wiley Hudson.

Our community was sorry to hear on Tuesday of the death of Mr. Eli Hastings, who, for the past eighteen months has made his home with Mr. Frank Sylvester at Sassafras. Up to that time Mr. Hastings had lived near Kennedyville for probably thirty years or more, and with the exception of a few years, had made his home with Mr. Smith Burris, on the White House farm now tenanted by Mr. Phil Meyers. The funeral services were conducted on Thursday morning in the M. P. Church, by Rev. C. M. Cullum, of Warwick. The pallbearers were John R. Bennett, Capt. Dan Hill, W. J. Harlan, Thos. Jones, Isaac Cleaver, Wm. H. White, Jr. Interment in M. P. cemetery.

On Friday night of last week the W. C. T. U. held its monthly meeting in the M. P. Church. Rev. Mr. Reynolds gave a very interesting talk, he also sang a very nice solo. The president carried on him to the places of several that were unable to come, who were on the programme.

The Sunday School and church services are being very well attended, still there will be room made for any who will come these warm Sundays. The services are short and helpful.

We had a nice shower on Tuesday evening which was badly needed and which helped vegetation very much.

CITIZEN.

Betterton Briefs.

The steamer Annapolis brought a special excursion from Baltimore on Monday afternoon.

A yacht with about fifty persons from Chesapeake City spent Wednesday evening here.

The torpedo boat Sommers landed at Betterton on Tuesday night.

Mrs. Fenimore, of Beverly, New Jersey, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Henry Crew.

Miss Bessie Leigh has returned home, after spending a few days with her brother in New York.

Mrs. Jess is entertaining friends from Salem, New Jersey.

Capt. and Mrs. Thomas Heather, of Philadelphia, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Emerson.

Mrs. Beauchamp has returned to her home in Denton after a pleasant visit with her niece, Mrs. Howard Owens.

Mr. J. C. Smith, of Atlantic City, is at home for her summer vacation.

Boards are beginning to arrive on every boat, the hotels and cottages being amply prepared to accommodate them. From the present it looks as though Betterton will have one of her most prosperous years.

Farmers around town, have been busy thrashing the past week.

Miss Carrie Kauas spent a few days this week in Baltimore.

The Eastern Pennsylvania Branch of Y. M. C. A. arrived on Monday, and encamped for the month at Chesapeake Haven.

Chesterville Items.

Emmanuel, Chesterville, Sunday school at 9.30, preaching at 10.30, League at 7.30. Service Wednesday night at 8.

Trinity, Millington, Sunday school at 2 P. M., preaching at 3. League at 7.30. Thursday night service at 8.

Mr. Layman and wife and little grandsons are visiting Mr. S. Ford.

Miss Julia Brinsfield is spending the week with Mrs. Wood at the parsonage.

Miss Bernice Vansant had rather a bad fall from the barn loft to the floor, some twenty feet, narrowly escaping serious injury.

The wheat crop in this vicinity is much lighter than last year, and in the majority of cases the kernel badly shrunken.

Mr. Bottomly, the new owner of the Conner farm, has begun turning the sod for his first crop. We all wish him success in his new enterprise.

Preaching in Emmanuel M. E. Church South, Sunday night after League service.

Still Pond Notes.

BIG REDUCTION IN CARRIAGES!

Cut Prices Means Quick Sales.

In last week's issue we announced our clean-up sale in Carriages and Runabouts, and explained the reason for making this sale.

We have had customers from many parts of the county and all have been well pleased and certainly well paid for coming. This is the biggest PRICE-SAVING SALE we ever made, and we could not possibly afford to make it had it not been for the rainy spring season.

We have a large stock and have decided to give our people the benefit of big reduced prices in order to move this big stock.

The line is unbroken and will include the FINE WATERLOO and all other jobs.

If you need a Vehicle, come and get a bargain. THESE LOW PRICES WILL MAKE MANY SALES.
