Gov. CROTHERS and Chairman Tucker, of the State Good Roads Commission, inspected the new road being built from the town limits to Goose Hill this week.

The Democratic State Convention will be held in the Auditorium Theatre, Baltimore, on Wednesday next, Aug. 11th.

The Baltimore Sun in a first-page article on Tuesday states that the government has lost nearly six million dollars annually by the victories of the temperance cause in the wave of prohibition of the liquor traffic which has been sweeping over the country for the past two years.

THE STRUGGLE for supremacy between the warring factions of the Republican party will culminate at the polls to-day when delegates will be elected from each district in the county to a convention which will meet in the court house on Wednesday to nominate a ticket and to elect a State Central Committee.

FORMER Governor Warfield's speech in Howard county last Saturday was a severe arraignment of the Democratic managers of the State, and a bitter attack upon the general and senatorial primary election laws.

THE DECISION of the executive committee of the State Camp P. O. S. of A. which changed the place of annual meeting from Chestertown to Baltimore is very unfortunate.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN. The columns of the TRANSCRIPT are open to the proper discussion of all topics of public interest.

DEAR SIR:—Can you tell me who got a check for $100.00 before June 12, 1909? If you can not, can any of your estimable readers tell me?
