Work That Tells.

The Kind Chestertown Readers Appreciate.

Cures that last are cures that tell. To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate the cures and see if they prove permanent.

William G. Whitney, of Havre De Grace, Md., says: "Over a year ago I told in a public statement how Doan's Kidney Pills had benefited me."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Rock Hall Items.

School opened here last Monday with nearly 250 pupils and things are lively around the school house.

Last Saturday evening a horse belonging to Merritt Thompson, while hitched to the rack near Maslin's barber shop, put his foot through the reins or halter and fell, nearly choking him to death.

The house where Mrs. Susie Stevens lives has been improved by a new roof and additions to the porch.

Grett Urie is making his store larger, he will have room now to serve ice cream and not be crowded.

The tomato crop in this section must have been good. Mr. Downey tells us that off of a little over 100 acres he has more than his cannery will handle.

The large schooner that went ashore between here and Tolchester on the bay shore is in danger of going to pieces.

OBITUARY.

JOHN T. COLEMAN.

Mr. John T. Coleman, for many years engaged in the manufacture of steam boilers in Baltimore, died last Friday at his home, 105 Longwood road, Roland Park, of the infirmities of age.

Mr. Coleman was survived by his widow (Mrs. Julia Floyd Coleman), three sons (John T. Coleman, Jr., of Chicago; G. Walter Coleman and Charles E. Coleman) besides two daughters, (Miss Lia Coleman and Mrs. Frank Coggins).

The funeral took place from his home on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. Charles E. Biggs, pastor of Monument Street Methodist Episcopal Church, of which Mr. Coleman was a member.

MRS. MARCELLA M. WRIGHT.

Mrs. Marcella M. Wright, widow of C. Dorsey Wright, died at her home Saturday night, of general debility, aged 68 years.

She was born in Queen Annes county, being a descendant of the Wright family of Maryland. Members of this family were conspicuous during the Revolutionary War as soldiers and statesmen.

WILLIAM ANDERSON.

Wm. Anderson, son of the late Wm. T. Anderson and Serena Anderson, formally of this county, died at Catonsville, Baltimore county, Md., Sunday at 2 P. M. of stomach trouble aged 45 years.

MRS. FREDERICK STEVENS.

Mrs. Frederick Stevens, wife of Mr. Frederick Stevens, son of Mr. H. Clay Stevens, died at her home on the Slaughter farm near Crumpton on Saturday morning.

Big Real Estate Sale.

Thomas J. Keating, trustee, will sell at public sale in Centreville on Tuesday, September 28, 1909, two valuable farms located in Corsica Neck, in Queen Annes county.

The "Newnam Farm" contains 250 acres and is improved by a two-story brick dwelling and good outbuildings.

Both tracts are valuable and would make splendid homes or desirable investments. See adv. for further particulars.

LOOK OUT

for "Monotonous" Clothes this Fall and Winter!

WE cater to young men and those older men who prefer to dress in garments which by their originality, perfect fit and artistic draping bear no resemblance to ready-wearing clothing.

The general public should be pleased at the variety and unusual artistic merit of men's fashions for Fall and Winter, for it is a pleasure to select one's wardrobe from a large number of differently fashioned garments.

We allow a Chicago firm to produce our clothes simply because they have equipments and buying facilities which make it possible for them to produce for less than we could if we built all our clothes ourselves.

Yours for fine Clothing,

B. S. SUTTON, Black's, Md.
