Made Bank President.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Centreville National Bank on Tuesday in Centreville, Mr. William McKenney was elected president to succeed the late Dr. James Bordley. Mr. McKenney is one of the heirs of the late General Wm. McKenney's estate, and is one of the best-known business men in Queen Annes county. He is possibly the youngest bank president in the State, being only 32 years of age. It is therefore, quite an honor to Mr. McKenney, and his many friends here extend congratulations.

A number of sharks have been in Chester river during the past two weeks. A colored fisherman states that one day last week while fishing off Bowers' beach he got a fish on his line and before he could get him in the boat a shark grabbed the fish carrying his line and all away. No wonder there are no fish down the river, after that.

Don't forget the final performance of the celebrated Mayfair Family in polite vaudeville in Stam's Hall to-night. Don't be lured to the circus by a brass band—the cost is 50c—We entertain the family for that amount. See baby Mayfair—the child wonder—new vaudeville new songs—new pictures, 5 and 10c.
