Rock Hall Items.

Mrs. Thomas Parsons has moved to the house formerly occupied by Sterling Jones, near the outskirts of the town.

Snowden Maslin has sent an application to Peary for a slice of the North Pole. He thinks that if it were properly decorated, it would make an excellent advertisement for his barber shop.

Mr. Burchinal, a prominent lawyer of Wilmington, Del., made an interesting address on temperance at the Rock Hall M. E. Church last Sunday.

The school board has furnished the teachers of this school a book entitled Maryland. It is a description of its lands, products and industries. A very interesting book.

Last Saturday night a number of Rock Hall's young folks visited Betterton to participate in dancing and skating, which that resort is noted for.

It is Shakespeare who says: "A jest's prosperity lies in the ear of him who hears it," etc. Be this as it may, there is prosperity in a jest; it soothes the distressed, aids digestion and more than song or dance, helps to "drive dull care away." It was care that killed the cat, and it is care that is killing the American people to-day. We must laugh more if we would have active livers and live long as a nation. Hence, we say there is prosperity in a jest; if you do not think so, dear reader, ask Walter Hadaway to tell you the jest about the mule.

Mr. Eugene Wilson left Rock Hall last Wednesday for Baltimore, where he will again take up his duties of oyster inspector.

The Alexanders and Kramers have gone to Baltimore for the annual holidays. They will return next Tuesday.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. is still getting in good work. They will have another candidate to initiate next Monday night.

Prof. Greenhawk received from Australia a letter pertaining to school work which was very interesting. The manual training schools are separate from the regular academic course; the se they call centres and will accommodate about 200 pupils, each pupil having to pay $1 per year for material. They recognize the United States as being leaders in education and commerce, and ask for ideas of our method.

Chesterville Items.

Emmanuel, Chesterville—Sunday school at 9:30; Preaching at 10:30; League at 7:30, followed by a sermon. Trinity, Millington—Sunday School at 2; preaching at 3; League at 7:30, followed by address. Thursday night service at 7:30.

Owing to the failure of material to arrive in time, the opening service in Emmanuel M. E. Church, South, was postponed until this Sunday, Sept. 19. The sermon will be preached at 10:30 by Dr. Dulaney or some other preacher from abroad. There will be preaching at 8 P. M. also. Dr. Dulaney will preach every night during the week except Saturday.

Mrs. C. D. Bulla and children returned to Alexandria, Va., Tuesday.

Miss Carrie Ford has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l Ford, and left for Baltimore Tuesday morning.

School opened Monday; the teacher is Miss Mary Groves.

Sept. 26 will be Rally Day at Emmanuel and Trinity Sunday schools.

Mrs. Walter Gale is entertaining lady visitors.

Dr. J. H. Dulaney preached at Chesterville Sunday morning, and Rev. E. V. Reeseter at night. Dr. Dulaney also filled the pulpit at Millington Sunday afternoon.

Miss Esther Withbanks is critically ill with typhoid pneumonia.

Still Pond Notes.

Mr. Raymond Harper has returned to his school in Baltimore, the Polytechnic Institute.

Miss Lucille Parr is visiting at Kennedyville.
