LOCAL MATTERS.

Farm Sold.—It is reported that Mr Alfred Crouch has sold his farm near Melittota to Mr. Walter K. Hudson, of Worton Manor, for $5,000.

Farms Sold.—The Taylor farms on Corsica river, advertised in the TRANSCRIPT, by Thomas J. Keating trustee, were sold on Wednesday; the Corsica farm 268 acres to Mrs. Taylor, $13,467, and the Newman farm 250 acres to Mrs. Emma Rolph, for $13,250. These are two of the finest located water-front farms in Queen Annes county.

NEWSY BRIEFS.

*+*This is the week of the beautiful harvest moon, and the nights have been charming in their beauty. *+*The cannery at the depot has closed for the season. Mr. Baldwin did his best to protect the interest of his contractors.

*+*A co-operative book store has been organized among the students of Washington College, with Mr. James Cain, as manager.

*+*The Town Commissioners have greatly improved the road in front of the college by grading and covering with sand and gravel.

*+*Clothier James D. Lucas has a beautiful assortment of fall and winter hats, which have just been opened for public inspection.

*+*The public library will be open on Tuesdays, beginning next Tuesday, Oct. 5th from two to five o'clock until the next summer months.

*+*Mr. Samuel Nickerson's fine driving mare broke her leg on Monday. He is endeavoring to save her, and Dr. J. W. Urrie volunteered to set the fracture.

*+*Mr. Phillip G. Wilmer has a valuable horse on his Buckingham farm which was badly cut by barb wire. Dr. Jarman has been treating it, and it is recovering.

*+*Mr. Capels, one of our upper river fishermen, shipped a large quantity of fine rock fish to Baltimore on Wednesday morning. They were caught in a pound net.

*+*Fairlee Grange gave a splendid supper and festival in Grange Hall, Fairlee, on Wednesday evening. This is one of the most progressive granges in the county.

*+*Contractors Harry and Foster Cannan have been awarded the contract to build Mr. George W. French's new home on his recently-purchased lot on Mill street. Work has begun.

*+*Two gentlemen from Chestertown went fishing for taylor at Tolchester one day this week. They caught two eels, one weighing four pounds and the other seven pounds. If you don't believe this fish story, ask Deputy Postmaster Harry Lambert.

*+*The members of the Volunteer Fire Company are preparing to give an up-to-date minstrel show in the new municipal building hall in the near future. The show will be under the management of Mr. Wm. L. Fowler, and will be one of the features of the coming social season.

*+*Mrs. Lydia Lusby's sale of personalty on Monday, advertised in the TRANSCRIPT was largely attended and Auctioneer Andrew Vansant kept the crowd on the bid all the time. Things sold remarkably well; cows brought as high as $50 and horses sold for $141. Farming implements also sold well.

Resolutions.

WHEREAS, God in His infinite wisdom has deemed it best to remove the beloved father of our dear friend and ex-member, Jos. N. Wheatley, Jr.

WHEREAS, The deceased was an affectionate, kind and true father, whose loss will be greatly felt by all of the numerous friends and relatives of the family. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of Mt. Vernon Literary Society extend their most sincere sympathies to the family in their bereavement, and earnestly hope that peace of mind and soul may be found in God who is able to heal the deepest wound. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, inserted in the county papers and spread upon the minutes of Mt. Vernon Literary Society.

A Delightful Picnic.

A large company of town and county people and their friends spent a delightful day at "The Cliffs" on Thursday, eating pig, oysters and other dainties to their full satisfaction. Mr. Bedford Titter was the caterer for the occasion, and by the time the guests arrived in the grove he had a beautiful table spread under the pines, and all other articles necessary to prepare oysters in any style, to fry fish and make delicious coffee. Some of the county's best "cooks" were in attendance and such a delightful day as the men did have! They ate, and slept, played ball, went fishing, and ate some more, and when they got home they wanted to go back. Well, the day was ideal for such an outing and with such a congenial crowd as was present the pleasure was all the greater. Those who attended were: Mrs. James W. Chapman Jr., and children, of Baltimore, Mrs. J. W. Flesh, Piqua, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Davis, Wilmington, Del., Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vannort, Mr. and Mrs. James Brice, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Nicholson, Earle Nicholson, Wilbur Thomas, Nicholas Denny, Robt. G. Nicholson.

GRANGE NOTES.

Great preparations are being made for the meeting of the County Grange to be held in Stam's Hall, Chestertown, on Thursday, October 21. County Lecturer Harry P. Skipper is arranging a fine programme, and the Masters of the subordinate granges, who constitute the committee of arrangements, have completed the list of exhibits eligible for display, with the rules governing same, which appear below. The co-operation of every grange in the county is necessary to assure the success of this meeting, and it is sincerely hoped that every grange in the county will make exhibits and help make the meeting a grand success. Lunch will be served in the hall in the same manner as at Millington. Everybody bring a basket. The following are the premiums, rules and eligible list for the exhibits:

PREMIUMS WILL BE RIBBONS AND HONOR.

Special ribbons will be awarded for any Farm or Garden products unlisted if the judges consider them worthy.

RULES.

All products shown for premiums must be grown by exhibitor. Exhibitors must see to the delivery of their contributions, and must put them in the places designated for them, except when they are unable to attend, in which case they can deliver in person or by express, care of Messrs. W. J. Vannort and H. P. Skipper, Chestertown, not later than 9 A. M. Thursday, Oct. 21. The premiums are open for competition to all granges belonging to Kent County Granges. Every Grange in the county is partly responsible for the success of this meeting. Don't fail to do your part, and do not wait for some one else to make the start.
