LOCAL MATTERS.

These Get Dinner Sets.—Any person holding tickets of the following colors and numbers please call at Jefferson's and get a 42 piece dinner set absolutely free: Blue, 1698; Grey, 1947; Lemon, 470; Red, 684; Lavender, 38.

Treasurer Appointed.—Mr. Edgar
 P. Beck, deputy under the late lamented Thomas Gale, was on Wednesday appointed Treasurer of Kent county by Gov. Crothers to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. Gale. Mr. Beck's commission reached Chestertown in the noon mail yesterday.

Fished Up Man's Body.—While fishing with a net in Elk river, near Betterson, on Tuesday afternoon, Washington Montgomery, caught the body of a man, which was later identified as that of Richard Gibson, colored. Gibson was about 50 years old, and resided alone in a cabin along the river.

Buyers Parsons Island.—Mrs. Mary C.
 Ryan, executrix and owner, sold at public sale in Centerville on Tuesday, Parsons Island, in Eastern Bay, Queen Anne's county, containing 140 acres of land, to Mr. Charles Q. Snyder, of Centerville, for $4,010. It was formerly owned by the late Thomas Ryan, of Baltimore, who used it as a game preserve.

To Remain at Still Pond.—Owing to the pressure brought to bear upon him by his many friends to remain in Still Pond, Mr. Wm. H. Krusen, the popular undertaker, has declined the flattering Philadelphia offer and will continue to give his time and attention to the under-taking business. This, we are sure, will prove welcome news to Mr. Krusen's friends throughout the county.

Accidentally Killed.—Mr. T. L. Zanker, formerly of Fairlee, was accidentally killed in the Pullman car shops in Philadelphia on Thursday. He was well-known in this county, was 54 years old and leaves a widow. The remains will be brought to Still Pond on Monday morning and interment will take place in Still Pond cemetery at 11.30 o'clock that day. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen will have charge of funeral arrangements.

Attempted Assault.—An assault was attempted by a negro upon Miss Clara E. Benson, daughter of Mr. E. T. Benson, a well-known farmer and Republican living near Royal Oak, Talbot county, last Saturday evening. Miss Benson had gone to the store in Royal Oak to do some shopping, and just as she neared her lane gate on the return the negro grabbed her by the arm. Being a strong, robust young woman she managed to free herself and ran to the village and gave the alarm. The police are investigating and Miss Benson thinks she knows who her assailant is.
 Miss Benson is well-known in Chestertown.

NEWSY BRIEFS.

*The town commissioners are putting in an 18-inch terra cotta pipe on Cross street.

*Western Maryland College football team defeated Washington College on the Westminster oval last Saturday, score 12 to 5.

*To-night is Hollowe'en. Our advice to those who celebrate the occasion is to have a good time, but don't destroy any property or tear up any bridges.

*The gunning season for rabbits opens in Kent county on Wednesday, November 3rd. Game is reported to be scarce in the county this fall.

*The widow of the late Joseph N.
 Wheatley received a draft for $2000 from the Heptasophs, the amount of insurance carried by the deceased in the order, this week.

*The Chestertown ice plant is running only on limited time now, and the strawboard mill has begun operation on a few orders. It is hoped that the paper mill will run uninterruptedly now.

*Washington College football team will have as their opponents on the football field this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, the strong Gallaudet team. Go see the W. C. boys rush the pigskin for a victory.

*Mr. Ollie Estes has resigned his position as salesman with R. F. Parks & Son to accept an agency with the Prudential Insurance Company. Mr.
 Earl Latham will be Mr. Estes' successor in Mr. Parks' store.

*Mr. Bedford Titter's horse ran away on Washington avenue on Tuesday morning, demolishing the buggy, breaking the harness and spilling a quantity of oysters which Mr. Titter had for delivery.

*The exhibit of farm products, household articles, etc., by the members of the Pomona Grange in Stam's Hall last Thursday was the best seen in the county in many years, and it looks like it will be an annual affair.

*The explosion of a coal oil stove in the home of a colored family near Bethel M. E. Church on Calvert street on Tuesday morning caused the fire alarm to be sounded, and a quick response of the fire company. The blaze was extinguished before any damage was done.

*Messrs. Arlington L. Sparks and Claude Parks have purchased fine Buick autos from Mr. Harry K. Graham, who has taken the agency for this fine make of machines. Mr. Thomas W. Perkins has ordered a five passenger Buick through Mr. Graham.

*Mr. James G. Beck and family left here last Monday afternoon week at one o'clock for Baltimore in his fine Maxwell roadster. The trip was made without a hitch in good time, considering the very bad condition of the road from Cono-wingo to Baltimore via Belair.

*This is the season for the lovely chrysanthemum, and quite a number of lovers of flowers have some gorgeous varieties. Among the successful growers are Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, Mrs. F. M.
 Miller, Mrs. James Brice, Mrs. J. Hyde Thompson, Mrs. Harvey Boggs and Mrs. Thomas D. Bowers, all of whom have fine flowers.

ABOUT YOUR FRIENDS.

Mrs. William Perkins, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting her sister, delphia this week on account of the illness of her sister's husband, Mr. Van-netta.

Reports from Miss Frances Howard, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, just as we were going to press, were that she was now so well. Mr. R. Alph Barnett left on the afternoon train yesterday for the hospital.

We regret to state that Mrs. Wm. A.
 Smith has been quite sick during the week.
 Mr. Hackett Emerson, of Crumpton, has accepted a position as salesman in Mr. C. C. Jones' shoe store.
 Mr. Frederick Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Davis, of Flatlands, has entered Goidley Business College, Wilmington, Del., for a thorough course in business. He was accompanied to the city last week by his father and Mr. George Hudson.
 Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Klinsfelter have removed to their town house on Washington avenue for the winter.
 Rev. Frank K. Little, is visiting friends in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cochran celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary last week at their home, near Galena, by giving a sumptuous dinner to the two families.

Miss Frances Howard, accompanied by her physician, Dr. H. L. Dodd, and by her parents, was taken to the Hahnemann Hospital on Wednesday morning suffering with an acute case of appendicitis. An operation has been performed and reports state that the little patient is doing well.

The little son of Mr. Walter Truitt was quite painfully hurt on Wednesday afternoon by falling from a tree in Queen Anne's, near Chester bridge. Dr.
 H. G. Sippers rendered surgical aid.

Mr. Burgess Anderson has returned to his home in Millington, after visiting his cousin Mr. Charles Ford of Still Pond.

Mrs. Allan A. Harris and Miss Bertie Constable left town yesterday morning to spend a week at Atlantic City.

Miss Louise Stam is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Hooker, in Philadelphia.
 Mrs. R. H. Collins is visiting Mrs.
 Harriet Hill in Baltimore.

Hon. Joseph A. Wickes and wife returned to their home on Thursday evening from Baltimore and elsewhere.

Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce delightfully entertained the bench and bar at dinner at his home on Front street and Maple avenue on Thursday evening.

Mr. Tonkin's Will.

The will of the late Prof. Tonkin, of Millington, was admitted to probate in the Orphans' Court on Tuesday. The following bequests are made to the children of his first wife:

To Charles H. Tonkin $200.
 To Howard J. Tonkin $200.
 To Arthur E. Tonkin $500.
 To his daughter Rosamond Irwin $500.
 To his daughter Mary E. Rash $1000 and organ in the home.

To his children by his second wife are the following:
 To Henry M. Tonkin gold watch and chain.

To Enoch George Tonkin is given $100 for the purchase of a pony when he becomes large enough to care for it provided. After the above legacies are provided for, and his just debts, funeral expenses are paid and a sum set aside for the purchase of a modest tombstone, his wife, Mrs. Katherine R. Tonkin, who is made executrix, is left the residue of the estate during her natural life or as long as she remains a widow, in which event, the house in Millington in which they reside, as well as his interest in the firm of Ahern & Tonkin, is divided, share and share alike between the two sons by his present wife, Henry M. Tonkin and Enoch George Tonkin.

The one-half interest in the drug store property in Millington is bequeathed to his wife absolutely.

Ninth Anniversary.

The ninth anniversary of the Modern Woodmen, one of the strongest fraternal orders in the country, was appropriately celebrated on Thursday evening last in Fireman's Hall.
 State Deputy Chaffee and National Lecturer Reilly were present and delivered most excellent addresses. A large majority of the members of the order with their wives and friends were present, and enjoyed a splendid reception, which a committee of the order had arranged. Splendid refreshments of block cream, grapes, fancy cakes, chocolates and mints were served, and the hall and floors were beautifully decorated with flowers and the emblems of the order.
 Delightful music was furnished by the Firemen's Orchestra. The local order is in a flourishing condition, having a membership of 73 of the town and county's most representative business men. The anniversary will no doubt be productive of excellent results. Prof.
 L. J. Smyth presided with his usual dignity and grace.

Football.

The followers of the pigskin will have their first opportunity to get a look at the Washington lads in action when they face the strong Gallaudet team on the varsity field at 2.30 this afternoon.
 This is the first appearance here of the deaf mutes on the gridiron and lovers of football are well aware of the kind of play they put up, as their schedule always contains a number of fast teams.
 The local boys have played great ball this season as the two games against Georgetown and George Washington proved. The showing against Western Maryland was all right, but the less said about that game the better. Knowing the kind of a game they are capable of, and also realizing their many friends have not had an opportunity of witnessing the games as played away from the local campus, every man on the team intends to work hard and show the advances made in the greatest of college sports. Coach Thompson said last evening that every man was in good condition and that the admirers of the local institution could look forward to a whirlwind game. The game will be called promptly at 2.30. The line up: Jump, r. end; Maddox, r. tackle; Greenlee, r. guard; Gilmore, center; Jones, l. guard; Gibson, l. tackle; Crouch, l. end; Meegan, quarter; Noonan, left half; Turner, Capt. right half. Johnson or Porter, full backs.

The twentieth Annual Convention of the Maryland Christian Endeavor Union which is to be held in Baltimore, November 9, 10, 11, at Northminster Presbyterian Church promises to be the largest attended Convention of this organization ever held. Delegates from the counties are sending in their names; the free homes offer closes on November first. Special attention is being paid to the music, and on Wednesday evening, November 10, a Praise Service of Nations will be given by the great chorus under the leadership of Mr. Richard Harris. This will include the National music of the great nations, China and Japan, along with the greater countries. Mr. F. H. Jacobs, of New York, a singer of international reputation, will be present at all the sessions, and will sing several solos. The program committee are arranging for a feast of good things and expects to have the finest array of speakers ever attending a local gathering.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held a charming tea at the home Mrs. James Brice on Washington avenue yesterday evening.

Harvest Home exercises were held in the M. E. Church and Sunday school last Sunday. The pulpit of the church was decorated with fruits, flowers, grain and vegetables in great profusion. The committee on decorations was Mrs. L.
 E. Barrett, Mrs. F. H. Russell, Mrs. J.
 R. Clements, Mrs. T. S. Bordley and Miss Maude Kemp.

Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett delivered his famous lecture, "Grit," in Elkton M.

The Northern Convocation of the Dioc-esse of Eastern met in North East on Tuesday 26th inst., Rev. Dr. O. H.
 Murphy, rector. A number of the clergy were present, and services were held in St. Mary Anne's Church, North East, and in St. Mark's Chapel, near Port Deposit. The Rev. E. G. Knight, of Philadelphia, and the Rev. Dr. Martin, were the preachers and address were made by the Rev. Messrs. Schouler, Coale, Huff, Knight and Martin. The attendance was good and much interest was manifested.
