OBITUARY.

DR. JOSEPH A. CATLIN.

The funeral of Dr. Joseph A. Catlin, who died in Norfolk, Va., on Sunday of typhoid fever, was held on Tuesday afternoon from the home of his father-in-law, Mr. F. A. Grasty, 1207 W. Lanvale street, Baltimore. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. R. S. Coupland and Rev. W. W. Woods. The pallbearers were Messrs. Irvin, Carroll, Barrett and Evans Catlin and Messrs. W. G. and Goodrich Grasty. Interment was in Loudon Park Cemetery. Dr. Catlin is survived by a widow and father, Mr. James Catlin, three brothers and one sister. He was a cousin of Mrs. Sidney P. Townshend, of Chestertown, and for a number of years kept a drug store in Church Hill, where he was well and favorably known.

MRS. ELLA WALLS.

Mrs. Ella Walls, of Church Hill, died in the Baltimore City Hospital Saturday morning after an operation for tumor of the stomach. She had been in poor health for some time and it was deemed necessary to operate, and took her to Baltimore on Monday, and when her husband left her on Wednesday she was getting along very nicely, and the sad news of her death came as a great shock upon the whole community. The deceased was a sister to Mrs. Chas. W. Rolph, of Chestertown. She is survived by a husband and eight children, the youngest being but three months old. The remains were brought to Church Hill and interred in Church Hill cemetery on Monday.

Mr. Joseph A. Carson, husband of Mrs. Clara Carson, died on Tuesday at his residence, 920 N. Arlington avenue, Baltimore. Funeral and interment was at Crumpton on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

Shoots Himself.

Mr. Cummings Brice, a highly respected resident of the First District, living on the old Brice farm between Sassafras and Galena, committed suicide late on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Brice had been in a despondent mood for some time, and his wife was in great fear that in one of his despondent moments he would take his life. On Wednesday afternoon the wife and one of the sons had prepared to take a trip. The father asked the son to get his gun, stating that he would go out and shoot a bird. Having gotten the gun he walked into the sitting room and pointing the gun toward his head, he deliberately blew off the top part of his head, killing himself instantly. The deceased was about 62 years of age, and leaves a widow and four children.
