RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D. pastor. Services next Sunday, Nov. 21st, as follows: 10.30 A. M. preaching by the pastor; subject, "Do You Know?" 2.15 P. M. Sabbath School; 6.30 P. M., Junior League; 7 P. M. Union Meeting of Epworth League and Congregation of one hour—Service of Song and short sermon by the pastor; subject, "Why They Would Not Come To The Supper". All invited.

The most notable gathering of religious bodies in this country, the Laymen's missionary movement for the Evangelization of the world—held a stirring convention in Baltimore this week. The convention in Baltimore was a part of the movement to evangelize the world, and the laymen of the churches, regardless of denomination are behind the movement. 1500 delegates from all parts of the world were in attendance and much good will result from the conventions which are being held in all the large cities of this country.

A meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was held on Tuesday in the M. E. Church. Mrs. E. D. Huntley, of Washington, D. C., foreign corresponding secretary of the Baltimore branch, addressed the meeting and gave an interesting account of the work done during the past year.

Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin gave the third of a series of instructive lectures on his recent trip abroad in the Parish House of Emmanuel Church on Tuesday evening. The subject was Switzerland and Scotland, and the doctor's talk was very interesting.

The ladies of Alnutt Memorial M. P. Church, Baltimore, Rev. John S. Bowers, pastor, held a bazaar last week for the benefit of church improvements, and cleared over $400. The Sunday School room of the church has recently been remodeled and beautified at a cost of $4000, and Mr. Bowers has raised $6000 for church purposes during his two years ministry.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor held an enjoyable social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Crouch yesterday evening.

Miss Agnes Estes led the Christian Workers service in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening. Prof. J. L. Smyth, principal of the high school, delivered an appropriate address and a pleasing quartette was rendered by Mrs. J. H. Sides, Miss Addie Hurlock, Messrs. Webster Hague and T. D. Bowers.

Union Thanksgiving service will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church on Thanksgiving morning. Rev. C. M. Compher, the popular pastor of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church, will deliver the sermon.

Preaching at Asbury M. E. Church, 10.30 and 7.30.

Revival services at Massey every evening. Sunday School and preaching at Holden's.

Rev. R. K. Stephenson, district superintendent of the Easton district, has appointed Rev. H. S. Thompson, of Glyndon, Md., a retired minister of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, pastor of St. Michaels M. E. Church to succeed Rev. Dr. Baker. Mr. Thompson took charge of the work last Sunday.

Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, preached a powerful sermon on Sunday evening as the second in the interesting series on Joseph. These sermons are very instructive and the young people particularly should hear them.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, pastor—9.30 A. M., Testimony meeting; 10.30 A. M., preach by pastor; 2.30 P. M., Sunday School; 6 P. M., Jr. C. E. exercises; 7.30 P. M., Christian Workers' service; Every-body cordially invited. Don't forget the conference collection envelopes. Bring them along. Union Thanksgiving service in M. E. Church, 10.30 A. M., Thursday. Preaching by Rev. C. M. Compher.

The revival at Kennedyville M. P. Church is still in progress with continued interest. Rev. F. C. Cain, of Rolandville, is assisting the pastor.

Emmanuel M. E. Church South.—Sunday School at 10 A. M.; preaching at 11 A. M.; league at 7 P. M., conducted by Miss Mamie Skinner, followed by an echo meeting of the District Epworth League meeting held in Trinity last week.

Trinity, Millington.—Sunday School at 2 P. M.; preaching at 3 P. M.; league at 7 P. M., preaching following. Revival services every night next week except Saturday. Preaching by Rev. J. J. Ringer.

Mr. James W. Chapman has contributed $40 and Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort $10 to the Sunday-School Endowment Fund through Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield, who preached here recently in the interest of the fund. This swells that total contribution from the members of Christ Church to $510.

Mrs. E. D. Huntley, Mr. and Mrs. H. Klunefelter went to Denton on Wednesday evening in Mr. J. H. Sides big touring car to attend a missionary meeting. The car was in charge of Mr. Sides. They left here at 4.30 P. M., attended the meeting and were home by eleven o'clock.

Tomorrow (Sunday) State Supt. G. H. Neek, of the Maryland Evangelistic Association, will preach at Bond Chapel at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. He will visit the Sunday schools at Bond and Mowbray Chapels.
