TO THE TAX-PAYERS OF KENT COUNTY.

TREASURER'S NOVEMBER SITTINGS.

In pursuance of an act of Assembly passed at the session in 1891, Chapter 222, the undersigned, Treasurer of Kent County, hereby gives notice that for the purpose of receiving the State and County Taxes in said county for the year 1909, he will sit for the October sittings in the several Election Districts between the hours of 10 A. M. and 3 P. M., on Monday, November 22th,

Still Pond—At William Medders & Co.'s Store, Pomona—At Hickey's Store.

At all other times will be at Treasurer's Office in Chestertown.

The Treasurer's office in Court House will not be open on the above days.

The Treasurer's office in the Court House will be open every day except on the above dates from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. for the receipt of Taxes. Taxpayers will please take notice that taxes will be due and payable Sept. 1st and that on all bills unpaid on January 1st, interest will be charged and collected from Sept. 1st. On the first day of January all taxes unpaid are declared by law to be in arrears, and delinquents will be warned that unless settlement in full be made before April 1st the claims against them will be placed in the hands of the Treasurer of the county, who will proceed to seize and sell their property to pay the taxes due with charges and all costs of sale. The Treasurer would therefore respectfully urge all taxpayers to pay promptly.

JAMES T. DIXON, Clerk.
EDGAR P. BECK, Treasurer.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Pretty White Lilies.—The TRANSCRIPT has at its disposal, through a friend, a number of shoots from a beautiful white lily bush which we shall be glad to give away to any one who would care to raise one of these beautiful bushes. Remember the number of shoots is limited and the first come will be first served. Let us hear from our lovers of flowers.

Wild Goose Dinner.—Mr. Elwood Morris, son of Judge and Mrs. W. S. Morris, went gunning last Friday afternoon and killed a fine 10-lb. wild goose. On Sunday Mrs. Morris prepared a sumptuous dinner at which were present W. S. Morris, wife and four children, and Robert Johnson, wife and one child. The dinner was delicious in flavor.

Wedding Announcement.—Mr. John M. Perry, of Centerville, Md., announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss E. Mackey, to Mr. S. Scott Beck, of Centerville, Md. The wedding will take place quietly on Wednesday, December 8, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Louis E. Skinner, of Swarthmore, Pa. No cards in the county. Mr. Beck has rented Mr. H. C. Chase's residence on Princess street, opposite Mrs. Annie H. Stam, where he and his bride will reside upon their return to Chestertown.

Thanksgiving Eve Dance.—"The Roadsters," Messrs. Harry D. Willard, Jr., Louis Arthur Mogart, Layette Mazy Latham and H. S. Blackwell Latham, all of whom are engaged in the work of constructing the new State road in Kent and Queen Annes counties, have issued invitations to a dance to be given by them Thanksgiving eve, at the Firemen's Hall. The patronesses are Mesdames Arthur Bradley, W. W. Beck, Curtis E. Crane, John H. Hughes, Thos. W. Perkins, Claude Parks, John D. Urie and J. C. Chambers.

More About Chapter House.—Since our issue of Saturday outlining the plan of securing a fine Chapter House absolutely free of cost to the people of the town, three members have been secured, with one fully paid up membership. Mrs. A. P. Matthews will take pleasure in explaining the method of securing the splendid building and will furnish blanks to all desiring to become members. The benefits to be derived from a membership in this League are so great that every subscriber to magazines should consult Mrs. Matthews at once.

A Great Horse.—Those lovers of good racing in Kent county who had the good fortune to attend the races at the Gentlemen's Driving Park in Baltimore in October remember the great little pacer, Good Goods. He was easily one of the fastest horses at the track, and won his race on Wednesday of the Friday Good Goods, in a trial at Baltimore Park, Philadelphia, accompanied by a runner went a mile in 2:02, the quarter being 29, 5, 1:30 and 2:02. He will be campaigned under the Grand Circuit next year. His record now is 2:04.

Run Over by Automobile.—Mrs. Myra Maslin, wife of Mr. Thomas Maslin, of Rock Hall, was knocked down by an automobile in Philadelphia one day last week and severely injured. Mrs. Maslin was in the hospital for five days, and is now at the home of her sister, the greater part of her body being encased in bandages. The greatest injury is to Mrs. Maslin's limbs, and while her injuries are painful, her condition is not regarded as serious. This is the third serious injury to Kent countians in the cities by automobiles in the last month, and we urge all who go to the city to be extremely careful.

Miss Copenhaver's Will.—The will of Miss Mary Copenhaver, whose sudden death on November 8th at her home in Baltimore, was recorded in last week's TRANSCRIPT, was admitted to probate in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore on Friday. She left all of her property to her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Copenhaver, and appointed her executor. Two other wills were also produced, but neither bore the signature of witnesses and therefore were not valid. Miss Copenhaver's mother died since the will was admitted to probate, and it is presumed that her legal representatives, her brothers and her sister, Mrs. Tilghman Shafer, of Kennedyville, will be the beneficiaries.

Grange Notes.—Fairlee Grange, No. 249, wishes to inform all patrons that the time of meetings has been changed from 7.30 to 7 o'clock. We also wish to inform all interested in clover seed to come out next week, Nov. 24, as bids and samples for seed will be given all dealers who wish to make a bid are asked to have their bids there next week. The prices given are for clover only, and must not be given outside of the grange. There are also other matters of importance to the farmers that need their attention, and we will give them money. Come out and join in the discussion, A Thanksgiving program is also a feature of the evening.

NEWSY BRIEFS.

*About a half inch of ice formed on the ditches and in buckets yesterday morning.

*Mr. Joseph Kennard, the well-known horse trainer, is breaking Mr. James G. Beck's fine Admiral Dewey colt.

*A handsome sarcophagus to the memory of the late Mrs. K. Aldrige has been erected in Chester cemetery this week.

*Three sheep belonging to Mr. Dill, living on the Kennedy farm adjoining Kennedyville, were killed by the south-bound train on Sunday evening.

*Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day. The schools of the county, the banks and public offices will be closed, and appropriate services will be held in the churches.

*The Thanksgiving turkey has made his will, and will soon pass in his checks. He will be an expensive as well as succulent morsel, because the turkey is reported small.

*Mr. W. Frank Jarrell received a handsome Hudson automobile by boat on Saturday evening. Mr. Jarrell is agent for the Hudson Motor Car Co. as well as the Chalmers-Detroit.

*A teachers' association will be held in the High School building, next Wednesday, Nov. 24th. Supt. Melvin has prepared a very interesting program for the occasion.

*Mrs. Mattie Tull has purchased a desirable building lot of the Batterton Bayside Land Improvement Company, and is having a fine new house erected. Contractor G. W. Owens is the builder.

*The Water Board and a committee of the Volunteer Fire Company made a survey of the town on Tuesday afternoon and located places for the installation of 25 new fire plugs.

*Quite a number of our farmers have lost hogs through the effects of cholera during the week. This is a serious loss to our farmers, as pork is now bringing 7 1/2 a pound live weight.

*Mr. Augustus Ayres has accepted a position as salesman in R. F. Parks & Son's store, to succeed Mr. Earle Latham, who goes to his former place in the telephone office.

*A petition is being freely circulated for financial aid for the family of Wm. J. Stant. The case is a most worthy and urgent one, and our people are urged to contribute.

*A party of five gentlemen, Messrs. James W. Lambert, D. Arthur Bacanus, S. Q. Moody, George States and Mr. Anthony, killed 23 rabbits in Queen Annes county on Monday. It was not a very good day for gunning, either.

*Charles Granger, colored, has been held for the action of the Queen Annes county grand jury upon the charge of feloniously assaulting Mrs. Meredith at her home on the outskirts of Centerville recently.

*Are you not going to the minstrel show in Firemen's Hall on Monday and Tuesday nights? You will miss a rare treat if you do not, and besides, you will miss helping in a most worthy cause.

*The trial of Victor Hendrickson and Romie Byron vs. the Chester-Freighting Company for damages sustained by the loss of a cargo of wheat shipped in one of the company's vessels, Baltimore, Md., was called up for trial in the Eastern Court, next week. Hope H. Barroll is counsel for Messrs. Byron and Hendrickson.

*Mr. T. Benj. Durling, of Rock Hall, gave to Mr. Charles, telephone lineman, a sweet potato, which when dug weighed 8 lbs. Mr. Charles had the potato on exhibition at our office Tuesday morning and we can safely say that it is the largest we have ever seen.

*One of the prettiest pieces of marble statuary ever exhibited in town is now on display in Mr. J. W. Kirby's window, Cross street. It is a small figure representing an angel child. It is chiseled from pure Italian and was imported by Mr. Kirby direct from Italy.

*In our issue of last week we stated that Mr. Thos. Dewberry, of Kent county had purchased the Story farm near Crumpton, in Queen Annes county. This is the largest and most successful fruit growers in the county, and he exhibits some of his fruit at the horticultural meeting in Baltimore in December.

*Quite a number of the residents of the town have been missing their chickens of late. Mr. George B. McWhorter lost twenty or more of her best pullets while she was in Baltimore recently, more on Friday. It was as well as a day watchman is called to the matter, for it is believed that Mrs. McWhorter's chickens were taken in the day time.

*Mr. Walter Harris, the apple king of Kent county, delivered a peach which was one of the most beautiful and delicious ever seen in the county. It was a small one, but it was the largest and most successful fruit growers in the county, and he exhibits some of his fruit at the horticultural meeting in Baltimore in December.

*The Patriotic Order Sons of America have arranged to hold a series of debates during the winter. The first will be held next Tuesday evening, and the subject will be "Resolved, That women should be allowed the right of suffrage." Affirmative, Messrs. S. J. Coleman and R. F. Elburn; negative, John C. Davis and Wm. E. Coleman.

*Mrs. Harvey Boggs and Mrs. C. M. Clay have exhibited some very fine specimens of chrysanthemums during the past week. These ladies are among our most successful growers of this gorgeous flower. Mrs. Clay had on exhibition this week in Mr. J. H. Jefferson's display window seven of the largest and handsomest blooms we have ever seen.

*An invoice of the stock of goods in the store of Mr. Jacob F. Thompson has been taken during the week, and Mr. A. H. Long, Jr. has assumed charge of the business. We understand that Mr. Jacob Thompson will establish an auto agency here. He has accepted the agency for the celebrated Ford Auto, and has already sold one.

*It is reported that Messrs. John G. Westcott and Louis K. Stam will erect on Mr. Westcott's farm in Quaker Neck a large saw mill, for sawing timber, and also a machine shop for the repair of automobiles and gasoline launches. A full supply of materials will be kept on hand for the repair of both autos and boats. This should prove a profitable venture for Messrs. Westcott and Stam.

OBITUARY.

WILLIAM J. STANT.

Mr. William J. Stant, aged 36 years, a prominent farmer residing in Queen Annes, near Chestertown, died of typhoid fever after a short illness on last Friday night. The funeral services were held at Salem M. E. Church, near Church Hill last Sunday morning at 11 o'clock conducted by Rev. E. H. Dierckson and Henry Covington, interment being made in Centreville cemetery. The bearers were John Chaires, Albert Chaires, G. E. Chaires, Carroll Stafford, Elden Story and Samuel Bennett. He leaves a widow, Emily, a daughter of Mr. John Chaires, of Quaker Neck, and several small children. Undertaker G. Dood had charge of funeral arrangements. There are three of the deceased's children now in a critical condition with typhoid fever. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

WILLIAM J. PARVIS.

Mr. William J. Parvis, well-known to every traveler on the Chester River line, died Friday night at his home in Latham, who goes to his former place in the telephone office.

Mr. Parvis was 57 years old. For upwards of 25 years, Mr. Parvis was associated with the Chester River and other steamboat lines in Baltimore. He was born in Caroline county, near Maryland, and was the eldest son of the late Joseph L. and Susan Parvis. When a young man he entered the service of the Chester River Steamboat Company as a clerk. He is survived by three brothers, Messrs. George, Charles and John Parvis, of Queen Annes county and Joseph M. Parvis, of Baltimore.

MRS. WILLIAM H. PENNELL.

Mrs. William H. Pennell, well-known in this county, died at the home of her daughter in New Bern, N. C., where she had visited, on Tuesday. The deceased was a large landowner here, having six farms in different parts of the county. For many years she had been a resident of Philadelphia. Funeral services were held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock with interment in West Philadelphia. Mr. Walter T. Morris, who has been superintendent of the farms for some years attended the funeral. The deceased was 87 years of age.

Wedding Bells.

MILLER-BURGESS.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in Wesley Chapel M. P. Church at 7.30 o'clock on Wednesday evening when Miss Julia Mae, the popular and accomplished daughter of Justice and Mrs. Samuel Burgess, of Edesville, became the bride of Mr. Marion T. Miller, one of Rock Hall's progressive and popular merchants. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Promptly at the appointed hour to the strains of the wedding march skillfully rendered by Mrs. T. E. W. Crew, accompanied by Mr. Charles Judefind on the violin, the bride and groom entered the church preceded by the ushers, Mr. Elwood Burgess, brother of the bride, and Mr. John Hadaway, assistant receiving teller in the Old Town Bank of Baltimore, and proceeded to the altar where the ceremony was impressively performed by the pastor, Rev. C. M. Compher. The bride was becomingly attired in a beautiful gown of pearl messaline silk trimmed with silk trimmings and carried a white bible. The groom and ushers wore the conventional black. Owing to extreme illness in the family of the bride a reception was not given, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller were driven to their home in Rock Hall where they are at home to their many friends. The bride's presents were numerous and costly, there being more than one hundred.

LEE-REESE.

Mr. Sewell Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lee, residing on the Philip G. Wilmer farm, near Kennedyville, and Miss Jennie Reese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Reese, of Morgneck, were quietly married on Wednesday evening at 6.30 o'clock at the Kennedyville M. P. parsonage by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Reynolds. Mr. and Mrs. Lee will make their home with the groom's father.

LATHAM-KNOTTS.

Mr. George T. Latham and Miss Agnes R. Knotts were quietly married on Wednesday evening, Nov. 3-d, at Pomona M. E. parsonage by the pastor, Rev. Tilghman Smith.

Still Pond Notes.

Mr. Neville Jones and friend Mr. Harry Cleese, of Baltimore, visited his brother, Mr. Harry Jones, over Sunday.

Mrs. Maggie Hackett and daughter, Marguerita spent Friday in Worton, Misses Laura Norris and Louise Toulson, spent Tuesday in Chestertown.

Mrs. Lester Coleman of Baltimore and Mr. Laurie Hackett, of Chestertown, spent a pleasant visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hackett.

Mrs. Sallie Norris is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cornelius.

Mrs. Annie McCraty and children, of Baltimore, are visiting friends in our town.
