LOCAL MATTERS.

Wedding Announcement.—The wedding of Miss Addie Skirven Hurlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hurlock, Chestertown, to Mr. Frederick Gleaves Usilton, is announced to take place quietly in Christ Methodist Protestant Church next Wednesday morning, Dec. 8, 1909, at 7.15 o'clock. No cards.

Attention, Ladies.—All ladies of the town and county interested in the success of the Firemen's Carnival to be held in January are requested to meet in Firemen's Hall on Monday afternoon next, Dec. 6th, at three o'clock for the purpose of discussing plans for holding same. Come out, ladies. Your assistance and interest are needed.

Narrow Escape.—The cozy home of Dr. W. H. Jacobs in Millington made a narrow escape from destruction by fire last Friday. The fire started in the kitchen from the wall catching fire from the fire box of the stove. The kitchen was badly damaged, and a large hole was burned in the roof. The flames were extinguished by a bucket brigade, which prevented a possible conflagration.

To Retire From Farming.—Mr. Geo. Hudson, one of the most popular and progressive farmers of the Sixth District, has rented his farm to Mr. Romie Younger for next year, and will retire from farming. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson will spend a part of the month of February at Atlantic City for the benefit of their health, but they will continue to reside on the farm. Mr. Hudson says his interest in the Sixth District is too keen to permit of his removal to the Fourth District.

Married at the Angelus.—The following clipping was taken from a Los Angeles paper and refers to one of our Chestertown boys: "A number of guests at the Angelus were treated to a wedding ceremony in the hotel parlors, recently, Mr. Geo. C. Perkins and Miss Mary Blanche de Ford were united in marriage by Rev. B. P. Lee, of Christ Episcopal Church, Los Angeles. A number of the relatives of the young people were present. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins are natives of Maryland, and there started the romance of which this wedding is the outcome.

Paralyzed.—Mr. John Gale, the well known stock dealer of Worton, was found unconscious in his buggy on the road near Old Union Church yesterday morning about ten o'clock by Mr. Henry Rasin, son of Mr. Perry Rasin. Dr. Simmons was quickly summoned and pronounced the case a paralysis of the left side. Mr. Gale was carried to the home of Mr. Willard Dodson and partially regained consciousness, when he was taken to his home near Hanesville in the doctor's automobile. Mr. Gale had been to Lynch's on business where he complained of feeling bad. It is thought that the stroke came shortly after he got in his carriage to go to Still Pond. His horse was quietly walking along the road, and Mr. Gale was hanging partly out of the buggy when found. His condition is critical.

A large number of farmers from Kent and Queen Annes counties were in attendance.

A chicken house and another small building on Mr. James Brice's Morgue farm; tenanted by Mr. Carter, were destroyed by fire on Monday evening. The blaze was caused by a spark from the engine of a corn shelling outfit. There was an insurance of $60 on the buildings.

Mr. Howard Dodd has resigned his position with the Prudential Life Insurance Company to accept a position as clothing salesman with the well-known and reliable clothing firm of Isaac Hamburger & Sons, Baltimore. Mr. Dodd entered upon his duties on Wednesday.

With Our Advertisers.

Carrying real Indians and real wolves and bears in order to give a play the desired atmosphere is going the limit. That is what is being done by the manager of the DANIEL BOONE ON THE TRAIL CO., that comes to the Stam's Hall on Wednesday, Dec. 8. The story of the play is romantic in theme and thrilling situations. The many exciting incidents that occur during the life of this famous pioneer has given the author ample room to elaborate on. The burning of Boone's home by the Indians closes the first act of this great drama of pioneer days. The second act finds Boone and his brave wife, Elizabeth Zane, homeless in the mountains. The many daring escapes and the hardships endured by them makes the story of Daniel Boone strong in sentiment. Each act and scene follows another showing beautiful stage settings with nothing but the weird Rocky Mountain trail for its background. Real Indians and real wolves are also worked into the exciting climax of the different scenes.
