Fete D' AUTOME!

New York's Tailored Suits and Skirts.

We bring to Chestertown's women the best creations of the artists upon whom the County's Fashion Queens depend.

This Exposition is Distinctive and Distinguished.

Not only are the superb Suits and Skirts in this display from the houses which are acknowledged as the true sort of fashion inspiration from the artists who really set the styles, but they have been selected with rare good judgment—each as the best example of some particular fashion development or some distinctive new style feature. Here are a few kinds and prices below:

At the third Quarterly Conference of Chestertown M. E. Church held last Friday evening, the pastor Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., was unanimously and enthusiastically invited to return for another year.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, Dec. 5th, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by Rev. R. K. Stephenson, District Superintendent; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class; 7 P. M., Union Meeting of Epworth League and Congregation—Service of one hour, consisting of spirited singing and short sermon by the pastor;—Subject, "The Ten Virgins." All invited.

The Epworth League held a delightful social yesterday evening in the lecture room of the church. A dialogue entitled "An Evening in Japan," was a feature.

Misses Hallie Toulson and Edith Dunbracco sang a beautiful duet at the service in the Chestertown M. E. Church last Sunday evening.

The Methodist Protestant Church at Georgetown, Del., Rev. E. M. Perry, pastor, was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday morning during early morning class, causing a loss of $5000, with $2000 insurance. The fire was caused from a defective flue.

Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett preached an able sermon to the Jr. O. U. A. M. in the M. E. Church last Sunday morning. Mrs. John W. Lowe, of Baltimore, sang an impressive solo.

Christ M. P. Sunday school began rehearsing its annual Christmas Carols last Sunday.

The season of Advent began Sunday with appropriate services in the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches. Besides being a preparation for Christmas, Advent in the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches marks the beginning of a new ecclesiastical year.

Advent has its austerities, but they are not so great as during Lent. In Advent all the Fridays are put down by most of the churches as fast days. No marriages are celebrated in the Catholic Church during this season, and special prayers are enjoined upon the faithful.

In the Episcopal churches the services appointed for the Advent season bear particularly upon the coming of the Saviour.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, pastor. Testimony meeting at 9.30 A. M. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at 10.30 A. M. Sunday School at 2.30 P. M. Juniors at 6 o'clock. Christian Workers at 6.45 P. M. Fifth sermon in the series on Joseph at 7.30 o'clock. To all these services you are cordially invited.

Grange Notes.

There was no meeting of the Kennedyville Grange last Monday night. Next Monday night, will be the election of officers for the ensuing year. "Shall Women have the right of Suffrage," will be debated also by the following members. Mrs. Wm. M. Clendaniel, Mrs. G. I. Barwick, Miss Blanche Redmill, affirmative; Mr. John Medders, Dr. G. I. Barwick, Mr. John Redmill, negative. A large attendance is requested. Worthy Master W. T. Baxter and Samuel J. Conly, represented our grange at the meeting of the State Grange, this week in Baltimore. At our meeting last Monday night week, the Pomona Grange was invited to meet with us on the second Thursday in January, the 13th inst. We are going to do our best to make it a big day, and hope to have a large attendance.

Our Worthy Lecturer Miss Schrietz, is visiting friends in Pennsylvania. Within a year we have had two weddings, the last couple being married being Mr. Sewell Lee and Miss Jennie Reese. The grange wishes them happiness and prosperity and hope to hold a reception in their honor in the near future. Visiting members are always welcome.

A Fine Entertainment.

The entertainment given under the auspices of the Kings' Daughters of Emmanuel Church in Stam's Hall on Tuesday evening was a charming success, both socially and financially. The play "Just for Fun" was all that its name implies, and the characters were all splendidly portrayed by those who took part in the cast. Each member of the cast proved to be well suited to the part performed, and we refrain from specializing because of the splendid manner in which the entire play was enacted. Those in the comedy were:

Mrs. Fitzgerald Mandeville de Smyth, a would-be Society Leader, Mrs. Finley, Miss Edith Morton, her niece, a Western heiress, Miss Anthony, Miss Mabel West, a friend of Miss Morton's, Miss Urie, Miss McCarthy, an Irish maid servant, Miss Westcott, Lord Chelsea, an English Nobleman, Mr. Hesse, Jack Earl, his friend, a happy-go-lucky fellow, Mr. Rogers.

The present Place—New York City. A brilliant and fashionable audience of town and county folk filled the hall and they had a most enjoyable time "Just for Fun." The proceeds—a fine sum—will be devoted to charity. The firemen's orchestra rendered delightful music, as they do on all occasions. The comedy was repeated in Centreville on Thursday evening before a large audience.

A Great Christmas Showing Our Christmas Show Begins Early Next Week.

We have been arranging and planning for months to have this Christmas far exceed all former efforts.

It will be the greatest Christmas in our experience, because we have prepared a great Home-Christmas treat for our people.

When we can show our people the same identical goods or better than a city trip affords and at less prices, it inspires confidence to plan to get busy. We are making our Christmas display earlier this season than ever before, so as to oblige the far-away trade and early buyers while the good weather is on.
