Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter entertained the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society very pleasantly at her home on Washington avenue on Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. Dr. F. T. Little conducted a series of seven able sermons on Joseph last Sunday evening. Each of these sermons has been very practical and forceful in its character and presentation, and large congregations have heard each one.

Mr. Thomas D. Bowers led the Christian Worker's service in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening. The service was in the nature of a Christmas song service and beautiful music was rendered by the young people assisted by an orchestra composed of Messrs. L. B. Russell and Arthur Bacon, cornets; Foster Cannon, trombone; Warren Hurlock, violin; James Bacchus, pianist, and Miss Marguerite Dodd, organist. Miss Agnes Estes read an appropriate Christmas Scripture lesson and Miss Mary Knight read a very impressive Christmas story.

Still Pond Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cooper, of near Meltoia, spent several days with her father, Mr. John Robinson, Sr.

Mr. Johnny Robinson made a business trip to Baltimore.

The death of Mrs. Spencer Boulden was certainly a shock to Still Pond. She was such a good christian character, and she leaves a good record behind her, as every one knew her, and loved her. The family has the sympathy of the entire community.

To the delight of all the little children, Old Santa was at Medders' store Monday and Tuesday, and treated them to a box of candy and an orange.

Our Sunday School expects to hold a Sunday School social in the Sunday School room on Wednesday evening, December 29, at 7:30 o'clock. A short program has been arranged, after which Santa Claus will make his appearance, presents will be exchanged and ice cream and cake will be served free to every one who comes and make this a delightful evening. Let no member of the school be absent, and let those who are not members come. Bring the children to see Old Santa Claus.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jewell, and Miss Gladys Hackett, spent Wednesday in Chestertown.

Mrs. Elwood Whaley spent a few days with her relatives in our town.

Miss Gladys Hackett has just returned from a three weeks visit to Baltimore.

Mrs. John Jarvis, of Galena, spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Wm. Thompson.

Mr. Jack Hackett spent Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Gears, Worton.

Our Post-Master, Mr. Thomas Norris, has been confined to his bed this week. May he soon be well and able to eat a big Xmas dinner.

Wishing all a merry, merry Xmas and a Happy New Year. THE KID.

Merry Christmas and Best Wishes!
