

For Our Patronage

we depend upon what this store IS, for what it HAS and for what it DOES.

It depends for its very existence upon the satisfaction that it gives its customers.

And the fact that the volume of our business is steadily increasing ought to be proof enough that this store manages to keep pretty well up to the front of the procession.

When anything new or novel in Furniture is turned out we very soon hear of it, and if it is really a worth while production we are sure to have it in quick order.

Come expecting big values and, we will see that you are not disappointed.

OF THE J. O. U. A. M.

FIRST—To maintain and promote the interests of Americans and shield them from the depressing effects of unrestricted immigration; to assist them in obtaining employment and to encourage them in business.

SECOND—To provide for the creation of a fund or funds for the payment of expenses in case of sickness, disability or death of its members, to members, their legal dependents or representatives, and to issue certificates of membership for the same.

THIRD—To uphold the American Public School System, to prevent interference therewith, and to encourage the reading of the Holy Bible in the schools thereof.

FOURTH—To promote and maintain a National Orphan's Home.

We recognize the landing upon our shores of the ignorant, the vicious and the lawless of the Old World as a constant menace to our institutions, and believe that it should be viewed with alarm by the loyal and patriotic citizens of the country.

We would place a flag upon and a Bible within every Public School-house of our land, that all might learn these to be a beacon light in every storm which may threaten our destruction.

THE FIREMEN'S CARNIVAL.

Stam's Hall Crowded Every Night With Those Interested in the Volunteer Fire Company.

FINE ENTERTAINMENTS—BEAUTIFUL BOOTHS—A SUMPTUOUS SUPPER AND A GOOD SUM OF MONEY.

The Carnival a Charming Social Feature and a Great Financial Success.

Stam's Hall was crowded during Carnival week with a good-natured and generous crowd of town and country folk and there was that social commingling and free spending of money for which such occasions are peculiarly and fittingly noted. The central idea of a Carnival is to have a good time and to make money, and just as the Carnival of last year was a most pronounced success in these particulars so the one of this week brought satisfaction to those who had worked so faithfully and patriotically for the success of the affair, and joy to the hearts of the Volunteers.

and every bit of it was contributed by members and friends of the committee. There were country hams and sausage, chine-bones and poultry, suits of clothes, neckties in all shapes and styles, mantels, lap robes, horse blankets, fine cutlery and silverware, 40 baskets of potatoes, lawn mowers, turnips, pumpkins, rugs, groceries and provisions without number. This committee was presided over by Mrs. Thos. D. France, who was assisted by the best lady clerks and storekeepers in town.

As usual, the ice cream committee occupied the center of the stage, and it was the most popular booth in the hall for the young folks, and many of the grown folks as well. Splendid ices were served by faithful lady attendants, and the service they gave the public was prompt and extremely courteous. There were no special decorations for this booth owing to the entertainments that were held each evening, and yet the tables were prettily set and adorned with shaded lamps. The booth was in charge of Mrs. Charles N. Satterfield, with numerous affable assistants.

Mrs. John N. Roberts had charge of the Grab Bag, which was filled with useful as well as ornamental articles. Messrs. Hyland Crew and Graham Nelson were in charge of the cloak room. The tags were in charge of Mrs. Frank E. Hines and Miss Louise Stam.

The whole grand affair was in charge of the following splendid executive committee, which left no stone unturned to make the whole affair a most charming success: Mrs. H. L. Boyd, Mrs. F. H. Russell, Mrs. Wm. B. Uilston, Jr., and Mrs. George Brice. The ladies directed the carnival in a most admirable manner, and deserve great credit for its success.

THE ENTERTAINMENTS. The entertainment on Tuesday evening was given under the direction of Mrs. James H. Shuster. It was a pretty monologue entitled "His Old Sweethearts," and was beautifully portrayed by the following characters:

"HIS OLD SWEETHEARTS."
Bachelor..... Mr. Calvin Ryan
Belle..... Miss Louise Russell
Katie..... Miss Elizabeth Connolly
Blanche..... Miss Irene Russell
Elizabeth..... Miss Ruby Abern
Mildred..... Miss Elizabeth Russell
Clara..... Miss Eva Rutledge
Nettie..... Miss Rebecca Aldridge
Helen..... Miss Grace W. Land
Pearl..... Miss Leonard W. Winer
Mary..... Miss Barbara Anthony

This entertainment met with a splendid reception from the large audience, and Mrs. Shuster deserves much praise for her admirable direction and skill in arranging details.

The matinee on Wednesday afternoon and the entertainment in the evening were under the direction of Mrs. David B. Ford, who proved her skill in managing and directing an entertainment in which the principal characters were young folks. The entertainment was in the nature of a beautiful cantata entitled, "Violet in Fairyland." It was beautifully rendered, each character performing her part with skill and grace.

The following were the characters: Violet, Lillian Anthony; Queen of the Fairies, Miss Mary Abern; Margaret Jones, Ellen Beck, Helen Russell, Helen Rouse, Helen Kendall, Alice Henson, Dorothy Woodall, Alice Kershaw, Dorothy Beaumont, Alice Skipper, Esther Urie, Emily Lusby, Mary Simpers, Helen Simpers, Laura Nicholson, Irene Kirby, Virginia Parks, Rose McKee; Watchman, Helen Connolly.

THE SUPPER. The supper on Thursday evening in charge of Mrs. H. L. Boyd, assisted by Mrs. Curtis E. Crane, Mrs. James T. Dixon, Mrs. M. A. Toulson, Mrs. John H. Simpers and Mrs. Joel Clements, with Col. Wm. J. Vannort as chief carver and Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort as ticket taker, was beautifully served, and was a charming success in every respect. Two long tables beautifully decorated stretched almost the entire length of the hall, while a third dainty table adorned the stage. Three hundred and fifty people took supper, including a large number from the country, and the receipts, together with the money contributions to the supper, will net nearly $200 for the supper. Fifteen pounds of coffee were used, furnished by Chase & Sanbourn, through D. Arthur Bacchus. The following presided at the tables:

Table No. 1—Mrs. Arthur Bradley, Mrs. Thos. W. Perkins, Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes, Mrs. J. G. Beck.
No. 2—Mrs. Wm. McKee, Mrs. M. E. Howard, Mrs. Owen Crow, Mrs. M. J. Newsome, Mrs. Ralph Barnett.
No. 3—Mrs. Chas. S. Smith, Mrs. A. L. Sparks, Mrs. M. Clements, Miss Nellie Walters.
No. 4—Mrs. C. W. Whaland, Mrs. J. Welch, Mrs. W. W. Beck, Miss R. Wickes.
No. 5—Mrs. A. W. Carmine, Mrs. C. L. Dodd, Mrs. Walter Lusby, Mrs. W. R. Aldridge.

The menu consisted of turkey, chicken, duck, roast pig, chicken and potato salad, with all the necessary accompaniments.

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS. The following is a list of the contributors living outside of Chestertown. 'Tis needless to say that everybody in the town contributed, including the colored people, many of whom gave their labor, the use of their teams and money. We therefore give the list of outside contributors and extend the thanks of the
