LOCAL MATTERS

Farmers' Institute.—A well attended farmers' institute was held in the grange hall Chestertown yesterday under the direction of Prof. Wm. L. Amoss.

Big Price for Bank Stock.—The sale of 23 shares of the capital stock of the Kent County Savings Bank offered at public sale on Tuesday by Hope H. Barroll, executor, was purchased by Mr. Wm. F. Russell and Mr. J. K. Aldridge at $307 per share or a total of $7061.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

—What time will the clock stop? Ask the man.

—The colored schools of Kent county will close April 15th.

—Mr. Howard Reed has discontinued his tonorial parlors under the Hotel Imperial.

—Mr. Thomas B. Elliott has painted the fire escapes on the Voshell House this week.

—Mr. Albert Lambert has gone to Ridgely where he will engage in the paper hanging business.

—The young men of the town will give their annual Easter dance, on Tuesday evening, March 29th.

—Washington college is closed until after the Easter holidays, on account of sickness among several of the students.

—St. Patrick's Day was a mixture of sunshine and shadow, but on the whole was splendid compared to some other such occasions.

—A. L. Sparks has greatly improved the appearance of his large display windows by having them attractively oiled and grained.

—The Board of County Commissioners on Tuesday, appointed Mr. Thomas B. Elliott, of Chestertown, keeper of standard weights and measures.

—Maryland Day will be observed by the schools through the county on Thursday next, March 24th. Interesting programmes have been prepared.

—Mr. Robert J. McWhorter is adding another improvement to his pretty home by the laying of a cement walk from the front pavement to the rear of the residence.

—The Kent and Queen Annes County Commissioners were in consultation on Thursday with regard to repairs to Chester bridge. Much of the piling was injured by the ice during the winter and will have to be repaired shortly.

—Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., attorney for the Warton Concrete Company, drew up the incorporation papers on Tuesday, and they were signed by the incorporators mentioned in last week's TRANSCRIPT and the new co-operative store will open for business next Saturday.

—The Chestertown Stars minstrel show given in Stam's Hall last Saturday evening was quite a success. Owing to the inclement weather quite a number were compelled to stay at home. The boys propose to show at Millington in a short time and to have a fine troupe, the people of Millington will have a chance to see a fine show.

—The Fairlee Grange minstrels will repeat their fine show in the Grange Hall, Still Pond next Tuesday evening. This is one of the best amateur shows "on the road," and Still Pond is lucky to get the performers. Chestertown tried hard to get the show here, but several of the performers "dropped the nerve" to face "Dr. Cook and Somersault Harry."

—Mr. J. D. Bacchus has removed his stable from his pretty front street property to his lot on Cannon street and it will be occupied by the town horses. Mr. Bacchus has rented one of Mr. R. H. Collins' stables. The removal of the stable from Mr. Bacchus' front street lot is a great improvement to his pretty home, and will materially add to the beauty of that street.

—Messrs. G. E. Leary & Son, the wide-awake lumber firm have contracted for rebuilding Bogle's wharf which was carried away by ice during the past winter. Work will begin at an early date. The steamboat company has decided to extend the wharf 75 feet farther out in the river.

—Messrs. Leary & Son are selling a power of lumber and their work is most reliable.

—Several new automobiles have arrived in Chestertown this week. Mr. Claude Parks has exchanged his roadster Buick for a fine 1910 model, and Mr. W. Frank Jarrell has a new Cheilms-Detroit model. Others are on the way. Mr. Parks' machine was sold to Dr. Frank Smith, of Fairlee. Mr. Neal Shannahan was in town on Thursday in a fine 1910 Buick, and Mr. J. F. Thompson has a fine Ford car.

—Fairlee minstrels repeated their show in Fairlee Grange Hall, last Friday night. The performance was even better than the first, and from the time the first curtain was drawn to the end of the play, there was one continual round of laughter and mirth. We refrain from specializing. The entire performance was fine, and every character was extremely well taken. The audience was thoroughly appreciative, and about $65 was netted.

—Messrs. Stavelly & Bowers, the well-known contractors and builders have opened a large lumber and hardware emporium at Lynch's. They have installed a complete line of building materials and hardware and are agents for the well-known American field and garden fence, which they are now selling in large quantities. This firm is two well-known to need any introduction. They are as reliable men as we have in the county, and will give prompt attention to all orders and work. We wish them success. They have a big advertisement in this issue. See what they have to offer.

SOCIETY'S REALMS.

Messrs. B. H. Brewster, Eugene Levering, Jr., Arthur T. Selden and Frank B. Smith, of the Green Spring Valley Club, were guests of Mr. W. W. Hubbard.

Mrs. H. S. Barnett had the misfortune to fall one day last week striking her back against the sharp end of a bucket. Mrs. Barnett has been confined to her bed since and has suffered considerable pain. We hope she may soon be restored to health.

Dr. Horace W. Nicholson, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, will be in town to-day at the office of Dr. H. G. Simpers, to meet his patients.

Mr. John Silcox is recovering from a severe cold, having been threatened with pneumonia.

Miss Kynast's many friends are glad to know that she has returned to Chestertown and is at her old post of duty in A. L. Sparks' millinery department.

Rev. J. M. Sheridan will preach at Lynch's M. P. Church, to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at 3 P. M.

Former Senator Garrett Foxwell has been laid to rest in the cemetery at state.

Mr. Harry P. Skipper has returned from a pleasant visit with his father in Massachusetts.

We regret to state that Mr. Ambrose Carroll is quite sick, being threatened with pneumonia.

Real Estate Broker J. Waters Russell has been confined to his home with an attack of the grippe for several days.

Messrs Beck & Ivens wish to call attention to some fine properties they have advertised in another column of this issue. They have a better list of property on hand than ever before.
