OBITUARY.

AMBROSE P. CARROLL.

Mr. Ambrose P. Carroll, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. W. Bradford Copper, on Sunday afternoon of pneumonia, aged 73 years. The deceased had for nearly 18 years dropped out of the active life of the community, due to an affliction of rheumatism that rendered him practically helpless. During all these long years of affliction he suffered in patience, never losing faith for a moment in the goodness of Him who chastened him, and receiving that attention from his devoted children and son-in-law that was beautiful in its devotion and sweet and tender in its ministration. Never once in all these years did the sufferer complain, and with that patience born of a sublime faith in the religion which he professed, he waited for the summons, and passed from a life of suffering and pain to a life of peace and rest. Since the death of the mother of the family, the care of the afflicted father and younger children devolved upon the eldest daughter, and with self-sacrificing devotion, with that filial love which was beautiful and unstinted in its ministrations, she has cared for the father and labored for the welfare of the children without a murmur, and now that the father is free from his suffering, she and all of his loved ones can rejoice in the fact that they did what they could to lighten the burden of affliction and to make the sunset of life peaceful and joyous. The deceased was the son of the late John W. Carroll, and during his days of health and vigor was a faithful and trusted employee in the blacksmithing and wheelwrighting shops of Chapman & Lambert. He is survived by three children—Mrs. W. Bradford Copper and Miss Palmer Carroll, of Chestertown, and Mr. John W. Carroll, of Baltimore. He also leaves one brother, Mr. Wm. S. Carroll, and two sisters, Mrs. James W. Lambert and Mrs. Charles Taylor, of Baltimore. Funeral services were held from the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Copper, on Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. Interment was private in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Wm. S. Carroll, James W. Lambert, Jesse R. Copper, Samuel Hicks, Jefferson D. Bacchus and Chas. S. Smith. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

The funeral services of Mrs. Susan S. Clark, of Middletown, were held on Sunday afternoon at the home of J. P. Crouch at 10 o'clock. Interment was in Cecilton cemetery. About two weeks ago Mrs. Clark fell and broke her collar bone and never recovered from the shock. She was 76 years old, and well-known in the upper section of this county.

In the death of Mr. T. Romie Strong this community, as well as the whole county, has been dealt a great and serious blow. But especially will his neighbors feel his loss. Having keenly felt his absence during the last year, they were looking forward with pleasure and gratification to his return to his old home, which would have been in a few days, had his illness not occured, resulting in his sad death, which has cast a gloom over all, and left a void that we feel can never be filled, for in Mr. Strong we had a good, kind, faithful friend, one who never failed us in our need, and in many cases we know of, throughout the county, he has denied himself in order to give aid to those in trouble, and we feel that too much cannot be said in appreciation of that generous, loyal spirit. We, who feel his loss so deeply, wish to extend to his devoted family our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement. It is hard to give him up, but while he has gone from his home on earth where his place can never be filled, let us be comforted by these words:

"There is a blessed home,
Beyond this land of woe,
Where trials never come,
Nor tears never flow;
Where faith is lost in sight,
And patient hope is crowned,
And everlasting light,
Its glory throws around."
