The New Deere No. 9 Planter

This is the corn planter which has demonstrated to thousands of farmers that it is practicable to obtain a perfect stand of growing corn. Our unrivaled edge selection drop, used only on Deere Planters, has become immensely popular. More corn per acre can be grown when the New Deere Planter is used, because it puts the required number of kernels in every hill. And a full stand is the first and most important step in securing the maximum yield of corn. If you are interested, write for our book containing full particulars. It contains information which will enable you to improve the quality and increase your yield of corn. Our handsome and useful pocket companion free.

Johnston FARM TOOLS

NOT IN THE TRUST

When you put your money into a Johnston farm implement you can rest assured you will get the very best value you ever obtained in farm machinery. The reason why they stand so high with the thousands of farmers in this and foreign countries is because they give that real, genuine satisfaction in the field which every buyer of farm tools hopes to get. They fulfill the highest expectations and do so positively dependable, so thoroughly practical and do the work so much better, quicker and easier than when compared by actual service with others, their superiority is at once apparent. Here we show some of them. We cannot tell you all their special strong features here; their exclusive advantages—the points that make them superior to others, or show you by illustrations just why they do their work better, quicker and easier, just why they last longer, why the breakage is so rare, why they are the cheapest; but our 1908 Catalog gives full description of our full line. You should not buy a single tool until you read it. It will help you to avoid making a mistake and post you as latest improvements. A postal brings it. Write today.

"MONEY AGAINST PROGRESS!"

DEAR SIRS:—The TRANSCRIPT deserves great credit for the stand it has taken in supporting the Governors and Visitors of Washington College in their determination either to get enough to pay the expenses of the Normal School or abandoning it. If the Legislature would give this college what it deserves, the question of continuing the Normal school would never have arisen. But owing to the niggardly policy of the State, or of the State Board of Education, it may become necessary to drop the Normal Department or to injure the collegiate work, as you truly say. Such an article as yours comes in good time, in view of the letter from a "former student" which appeared in the News.

Who is this "former student," anyhow, who makes his bow, headdress in large type, into the field of literature? Has he ever done anything for the college? Has his brains ever suggested anything original? Is it possible for his brain to encompass a broad, generous, liberal policy for the college or for anything else? He can stand on street corners and hail passersby, one at a time, until the army, in single file, has had the poison which drops from his lips poured into the ears of the good ears. He can talk to individuals and quietly poison them by insinuations and taps and slaps at the views and characters of others. His own little ness or smallness of mind never for a moment raises itself in behalf of progress. Has he ever been in favor of any progressive move in this town? Was he in favor of the water system being installed? Was he in favor of the sewers? Was he in favor of building an electric light plant? Was he in favor of the erection of the new college building? Has he ever in his life given $100 out of his large means to the advancement of the town's progress? Is his great mind or his great purse that influences?

"ANOTHER FORMER STUDENT."

Grange Notes.

SPECIAL FOR FARM PRODUCTS.

The management of the Kent and Queen Annes Counties' Fair, to be held at Tolchester Beach, August 30th, 31st, Sept. 1st and 2nd, 1910, has been requested by the grangers of the above counties to make a special class for field and garden products to be raised and displayed by the members of their granges. This class is to include the products of the field, garden, orchard, dairy, etc., the method of competition to be as follows:

First, the various granges in each county will compete among themselves for a first and second prize on the largest and best display.
