PICKNELL, 35381,

Record 2.15 1/2, Made in Third Heat of Winning Race.

Bred by C. W. Williams, Calverton, Ill. Foaled 1901. A model in every way. His size, 15 1/2 hands, weight close to 1050 pounds, and color mahogany bay, are ideal. His disposition and manners are perfect. His breeding, the highest of fashion—a son of the greatest sire of his age, living or dead, Allerton 2:03 1/4, the sire of Picknell, he has 262 in the list, world's champion trotting stallion to high wheels, from one of the greatest producing daughters or Baron Wilkes 2:18, the famous Futurity sire, which has 121 in the list. Jay Bird 2:31 1/2, the sire of Allerton has 181 in list. A race horse himself, never having worn harness nor other false rigging; started green in the late summer of 1906 in six races, winning two of them, and was well up into the money the other four, he has (though prominent horseman has pronounced him capable of a record of 2:05 or better) been retired to the stud, sound, clean, superbly handsome, with vigor and vitality unimpaired, saving for his offspring what a mere racing-machine wears out on the track.

PICKNELL will make the season of 1910 at my stable, Kent and Calvert streets, Chestertown, Kent Co., Md., at $15.00 the season, or $25.00 per mare sent to me. For extended pedigree that will interest any horseman or for fuller particulars, call on or address

LOCAL MATTERS

Barn Burned.—The barn on the J. Page Gale farm was burned Saturday evening of last week, causing a loss of about $500.

Crowded Out.—Owing to a rush of advertising matter, we are compelled to omit our reply to Senator Slay's letter published last week, as well as a large quantity of interesting local and material matter, as well as several communications. These articles will appear next week.

Leased Race Track.—A company of gentlemen have leased the old Worton fair grounds race track for a term of years, and have formed a trotting association. Worton is getting more like Coney Island every day with its department store, merry grounds, railroad and race track. Those interested in the association are Messrs. H. M. Matthews, Samuel Loller, Charles Tolson, George Sutton, A. S. Turner, William Hendricks, Edward Stouffer and others. The track will be put in first-class condition, and a race meet will be held in the near future.

Bentztown Bard.

There is scarcely a reader of the Baltimore Sun, but who has frequently read with extreme pleasure and profit, the beautiful and uplifting poems of the Bentztown Bard. This man, who seems to possess such a wonderful grasp upon human nature, and who breathes the spirit of love, and the charm of pastoral life, as well as the refreshing dew of humor into his poems, has in this State, and he has done it with a simple and unassuming manner which has made all his writings gems of literary art. His name is Folger McKinsey.

This is a treat, which the people of this community should not miss. ## April Term of Court.

The April term of Court began on Monday morning with Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce on the bench. Associate Judges Adkins and Hopper arrived on the noon train and took their places beside Judge Pearce. The following are the cases on the docket:

Garrett Foxwell, Foreman, vs. George Price, man; Theodore Dempsey, man; Curtis E. Bennett, man; James S. Moffett, man; John C. Wood, man; Harry L. Boyd, man; Wm. Frank Jarrell, man; Wm. H. Crow, man; George M. Hadaway, man; Edwin R. Hildfield, man; Harry Griffin, man.

The morning session was consumed in the call of the several dockets and the decision in the case of William H. Cooper vs. Mrs. Carole L. Hynson. The case attracted considerable attention, owing to the method of trial, and the decision was received with interest. Mr. Cooper sued Mrs. Carole L. Hynson for $30,000, which he claimed to be due him as tenant of one of Mrs. Hynson's farms. The matter was submitted to three arbitrers, Messrs. Wm. H. Russell, H. B. Hessel and Allan A. Harris, cashiers of three banks. Five weeks were consumed in taking testimony, after which the arbitrers rendered a verdict, which they passed up to the court to be entered. There were two counts, the other being Mrs. Hynson through her attorney, Senator Slay, against Mr. Cooper, for the recovery of the proceeds of the sale of the crops, during the year of his tenancy on the farm. The decision gives Mr. Cooper a verdict for $200, and a portion of his share of the crop proceeds, the whole amount being about $500 and the cost of the case against Mr. Hynson. The verdict is simply the excess of what the arbitrers considered was due Mr. Cooper over and above the vouchers for money paid to Mr. Cooper by Mrs. Hynson as his share of the crop proceeds during his tenancy on the farm.
