BASE BALL.
W. C. Base Ball.

Washington cut loose in the Hopkins game and trimmed the boys from the Monumental city up to the tune of 20 to 2. Although it was a one-sided game, the playing of the local boys in every department was the best they have done this year and the way they were going it would take a pretty fast college bunch to do anything with them. Hopkins had some good individual players, but team work was entirely lacking. To a certain extent team play would avail little in Saturday's game, as the local boys had their batting clothes on and they placed their hits out of reach of the Hopkins fielders. No team work would stop the home run drives of Porter and Noonan, together with other hits of the boys from the hill. The work on bases was also a pleasant feature, the boys showing that they had the speed, and good judgment in getting around, Turner especially being strong in this branch of the game. If the boys can keep this gate up the remainder of the games should all prove interesting.

The Catholic University will be the next opponents and will be the attraction on the college field this afternoon. This is, perhaps, considered one of the fastest college teams playing ball in the country today. The boys realize what they are up against and know what it means to pull out a victory. There is no doubt but the home boys are hitting the ball hard, as has been proven in every game they have played so far. The fielding also at times is sensational, but one fault that has so far showed itself, and that is they have a tendency to have one bad inning, and in every game where they had a chance to win the opponents have taken advantage of this misfortune and won the game there and then. It is hoped that the game last Saturday will remedy this and that an improvement in this direction will be noticed today. Today's game should prove a corker, as the college from the capital city have great respect for the local boys' ability, and will send in her strongest combination from the start. Coach Thompson has not decided as yet who he will have to twirl, but there has been so much talk on the relative merits of the different men that it has been decided to publish them from time to time. Some of the averages are remarkably high, but the boys have been hitting in every game, and those whose averages do not come up to the expectations of their friends is not due to the fact that they have not been hitting, as they have been meeting the ball, but unfortunately not safely. Jump has been making long drives, but he is not in the position that he should be, and should hold a higher before the next averages are published. Knotts is another good hitter who does not show up in the hit column, but his falling off is no doubt due to the fact that he has been worked pretty hard behind the bat, as he is the only man to do the catching, and constantly working five pitchers every day will no doubt have a tendency to pull down his batting average. However, Knotts is doing good work at the receiving end, and that means a great deal when it is taken into consideration that he has all new men to break in. Noonan and Porter are working hard for first honors, with Noonan a little to the good. Both men are hitting hard. Below are the averages up to date:

Noonan	414
Porter	407
Wallace	343
Brown	321
Kelley	259
Jarman	259
Jump	259
Turner	222
Metcalf	222
Knotts	172
Colborn	125
Baden	100

DOUBLE CREEK VS. MILLINGTON HIGH SCHOOL.
The brag Double Creek base ball team came to Millington on Saturday last to do our High School boys up in fine form. It is true that our boys were out-sized, but they were not out-classed, and the brag Double Creek team was sadly defeated by a score of 6 to 8 in a well-played nine-inning game. Logan, the famous Queen Annes pitcher, was in the box for the Double Creek team, while Beck did the twirling for the High School boys. Nine hits were made on Logan, and he proved an easy mark for our boys. Beck had 12 strike-outs to his credit while Logan had but 6.

Senior Orations.

Senior orations were delivered last Friday evening in William Smith Hall by the class of 1910, Washington College. The speaker who will represent the college in the Intercollegiate Oratorical contest was chosen, Mr. John H. Hessey being first, and Mr. Ruskin B. Warren second.

Taken as a whole, the Seniors made a very creditable showing, the orations were good, and showed a great deal of thought, while in several cases the delivery was exceptionally good. The orations were as follows: Mr. Brown, "Poverty versus Humanity"; Mr. Cain, "International Arbitration"; Miss Clough, "The Modern Martyrs"; Mr. Crouch, "Arbitration versus War"; Mr. Greenlee, "A Young Man's Questions"; Mr. Gibson, "Is a Powerful Armament Consistent with Peace"; Mr. Hessey, "Degeneracy in the Senate"; Mr. Johnson, "Is a Protective Tariff Just"; Mr. Jump, "Influence of Literature upon a People"; Mr. Knotts, "Woman's Suffrage"; Mr. Langsdale, "Racial Love"; Mr. Maddox, "Improbability of the Downfall of the United States"; Mr. Massey, "The Material Side of our National Life"; Mr. Turner, "War"; Mr. Warren, "The Battle with Lawlessness."

OBITUARY.

Mr. Jefferson T. Rich, aged 73, died at his home in Rock Hall at 7 o'clock Saturday morning of last week. Funeral was held at the house Monday afternoon, services by Rev. V. P. Northrup of M. E. Church. Mr. Rich had been confined to his house for many months. He leaves a widow and a daughter, Mrs. Meeks, and three sons, Thomas and Willard, of Rock Hall, and Charlie, of Baltimore.
