The Ferro is unquestionably the highest type and best known engine built. It was awarded the Gold Medal at the recent Seattle Exposition and holds the highest reputation in all prominent motor boating centers.

We Are Representatives for This Locality.

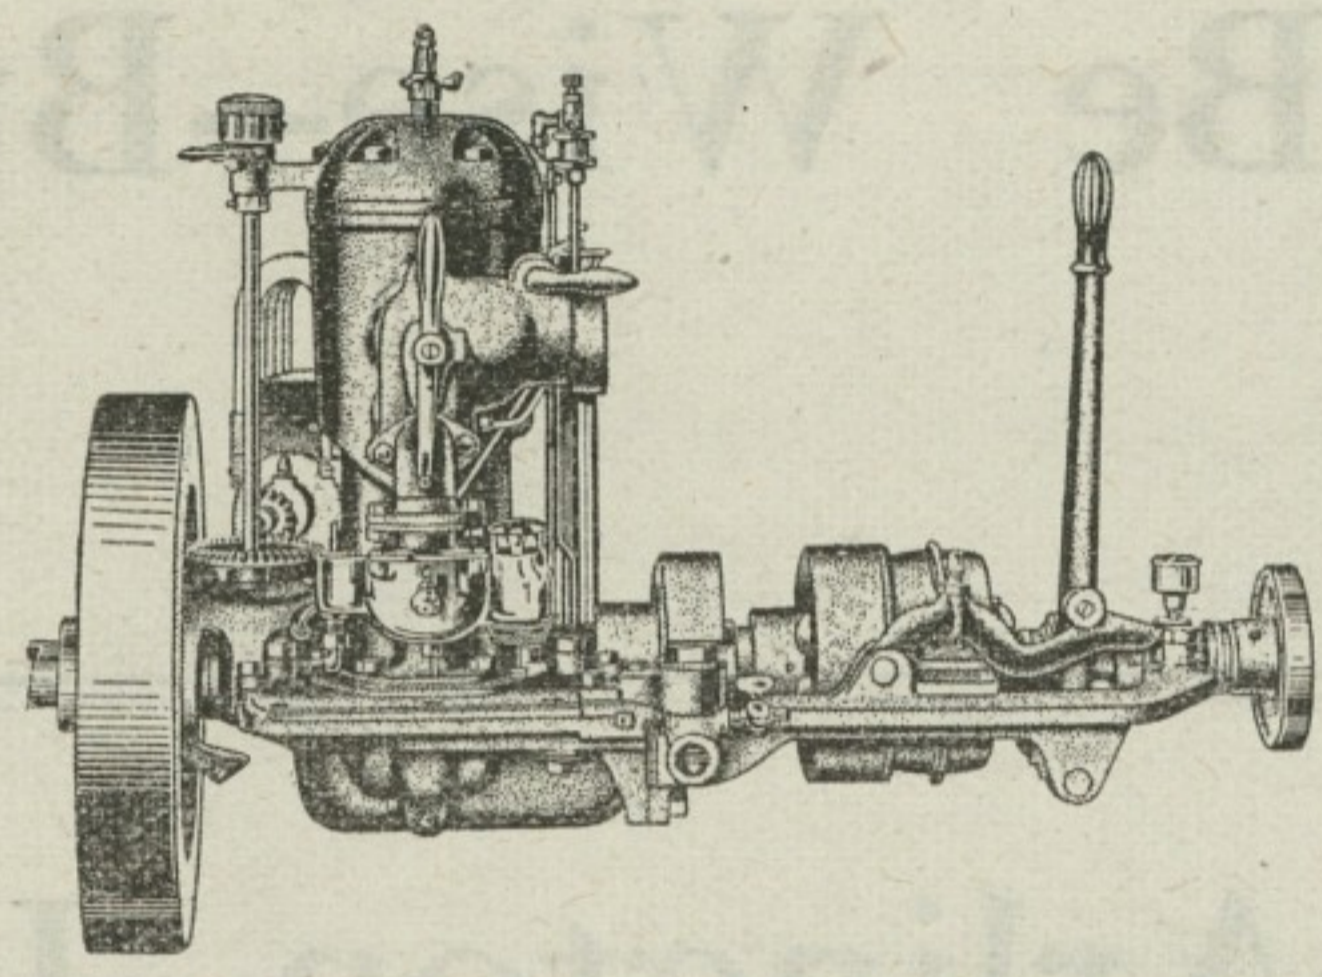

See us before buying your boat or engine. The engine should be the deciding factor in purchasing a motor boat. No matter how high class the hull may be if the engine is not satisfactory in its operation the owner simply has nothing whatever to enjoy.

Come in and have a boat and motor talk with us. It will put you under no obligation to buy.

LOCAL MATTERS

Real Estate Sales.—The Kent County Land Company sold this week to Mr. James G. Harris, of Bettrton, the Rock Point farm in Worton beautifully situated on the Chesapeake bay containing 218 acres for $8250.

Change of Firm.—Mr. H. F. Jefferson has associated with him in business his brother, Prof. Norman Jefferson and on after July 1, 1910 the firm will be known as H. F. Jefferson & Bro. Prof. Jefferson is well-known in this and Queen Annes counties, and he will make a most valuable partner to his brother.

Shaw Case Compromised.—By agreement of counsel, the Shaw will case which was set for trial in Centreville this week has been compromised upon the following terms: The charitable and eleemosynary institutions are to receive one half of the estate and the heirs at law the other half. The admitted assets of the estate aggregate $25,000. This case gave promise of a lengthy litigation, and the compromise effected is regarded as the wisest for all concerned. Hope H. Barroll is named as co-administrator with Mr. R. F. Parks.

Received Bogus Letter.—Mr. John F. Newsome, the enterprising wheelwright of Melitota, has received a spurious letter from Madrid, Spain, stating that if he assists a noted prisoner to obtain his release, he will share in an estate valued at $480,000. It is the same kind of a letter which Mr. J. Polk DeCourse, of Chestertown, received some time ago. Of course Mr. Newsome is too smart for such a swindle. The United States Government should investigate such letters as these before somebody is fleeced.

Tenth Anniversary.—Mr. and Mrs. H. C. D. Wilkison, of 1805 Bank street, Baltimore, were given a surprise by their many friends on Monday evening, April 25th, in being their tenth wedding anniversary. They received many beautiful and useful presents, consisting of tin, agate, glass, china, wooden and silverware. The table looked beautiful decorated in carnations. Refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cake and fruits of all kinds. After a pleasant evening the guests departed with congratulations and an abundance of good wishes.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

—Mr. Lewin U. Skirven is the owner of a stylish Hupmobile.

—Meet me at the skating rink, when the band begins to play, dear.

—Quite a number of our lawyers and business men have been attending court in Centreville this week.

—Saturday was the warmest day of the year, the thermometer registering 87° at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

—The Second National Bank went out of existence on Thursday and it's hats off to the Third National now.

—Mr. H. Stockton Startt has been appointed a trustee of Fancy School in place of Mr. George Bell who has resigned.

—The Washington College Choral Society has begun rehearsals for commencement music under the direction of Mrs. James W. Cain.

—The young folks of the town gave an enjoyable dance in Fireman's Hall on Tuesday evening. Blanck, of Baltimore, furnished music for the occasion.

—Messrs. Beck & Ivens, the hustling real estate workers, have sold a fine water-front farm this week, full particulars of which will be given next week.

—Prof. Charles W. Hall, of the Washington College faculty, delivered a very instructive and interesting address before the Ladies' Reading Club in the Public Library yesterday afternoon.

—Mr. J. Frank Wheatley has rented one of the new houses which Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard is erecting on Front street, for next year, and Mrs. Constable has rented the other.

—The public schools of the county will close for the summer vacation June 22. This is one week later than usual on account of the enforced closing of the schools some weeks ago because of sickness.

—The entertainment given in Fairlee Grange Hall on Thursday evening by Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Clark for the benefit of Fairlee W. C. T. U. was largely attended and every one was delighted with the program.

—The first heavy electrical storm of the season passed over this section Tuesday evening. No damage was done, but the frosts since have done slight damage to tomato vines. No damage has been done to fruit.

—Farmers have been receiving good prices for asparagus during the season. This paying crop has become one of the staple products of Kent county, and is an illustration of what intensive farming means to the farmer.

—Mr. Rider Haggard, an old newspaper man, and a scholar of note, is spending some days in town. In physical appearance he is almost an exact double of the late Col. Wm. Henry Legg. He is enthusiastic over the natural beauty of Chester river and Chestertown. He enjoyed the oratorical contest at the college Friday evening. He will give his impressions of Chestertown in an interesting sketch next week.

—Mr. Samuel Loller sold his trotting horse by West Morrell to Mr. Thomas S. Tolson for $300. Mr. Tolson has since sold the horse to a city purchaser for a snug profit. West Morrell's colts always bring big money.

—Mr. Harry F. Jefferson has engaged Mr. Hartley Weer, of Kennedyville, as salesman in his big store. Mr. Weer is a recent graduate of a prominent business college, is a young man of affable manner, and obliging disposition, and will make Mr. Jefferson a most acceptable clerk.

—The census enumerators, Messrs. Foster Cannan and Wm. H. Lambert, Jr., have finished taking the census for Chestertown. For the past ten years Chestertown's population has been 3,008. What is it to-day? Our guess is 3,178. A member of the postoffice force puts it at 3,250.

—Dr. G. Allen Jarman tested Mr. Walter T. Morris' herd of fine Guernsey cows on Wednesday and found every one of them in excellent condition of health. Mr. Morris is shipping between 200 and 300 quarts of milk daily from these cows to Philadelphia. They are a source of great profit to him.

—Messrs. Davis & Satterfield, the hustling blacksmithing and farm implement firm, opened up their skating rink in the big new carriage emporium which they recently built near the railroad station on Saturday night. The floor is fine, the skates are up-to-date, and if you want to have fun, that's the place to go.

—Next Tuesday evening Chestertown folk will have the rare pleasure of hearing Maryland's James Witcomb Riley. The Bentztown Bard will give one of his famous entertainments in Firemen's Hall, and it will be a reflection upon the intelligence and good taste of the people here not to give the Bard a full house. Don't miss it.

—Messrs. Stavelly & Bowers began this week the erection of a comfortable dwelling on the Jarrell-Dodd farm near town, to replace the old "mansion" that has stood for ages. The old house has been moved back and will be used as quarters. Messrs. Stavelly & Bowers have 21 men employed on large contracts throughout the county and are as busy as bees. They will shortly begin the building of a $2000 residence for Mr. Oliver Miller on his Swan Creek farm.

—A gentleman who was stopping at the Pippin Hotel last week and who has traveled over the greater part of the United States said that Chestertown is one of the most beautiful towns he has ever seen. Told you so. The Garden of Eden was no more beautiful than Chestertown and Kent county. Man, if you've got any money to invest, come here and buy one of these colonial mansions, or a farm and you'll not have to work the balance of your days. You'll just simply turn money up every time you raise the sod.

—The Easton Star-Democrat says: "The last heard of Rider Haggard he was rusticated and ambushed at 'The Gaither Club' Mayo, 12 miles from Annapolis, on South river, duck shooting, in company with Messrs. Gaither Boon and Darrell, of Baltimore. What was great fun for the 'sports' was death to the ducks. Rider, who claims he couldn't hit a hay stack, bagged 50, and he wasn't in it—even a little bit—with 'the other baggers'. He is here now drinking the milk and eating the honey of the Garden of Eden.

—Mr. J. F. Thompson went to Baltimore on Tuesday and conferred with the Ford Automobile Company relative to repairing the damage to his machine or giving him a new one. Mr. Thompson was treated with the greatest courtesy and was given to understand that he would be taken good care of in the matter. Mr. Thompson has sold Mr. James Brice a Ford runabout, which will be delivered shortly, and he has prospects of selling several others. Mr. Thompson believes the company will make good his loss.

—The Still Pond Farmers' Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Pennington, near Kennedyville, last Saturday. A very interesting meeting was held as nearly all the members were present, as well as a number of visitors. Among the important questions discussed were, "How can we keep our daughters on the farm," and "How can we prevent her from accepting the first offer of marriage she receives." The gentlemen were given the questions to answer, and the opinion was, "give her an allowance and she will be willing to stay."

BARTLETT—DENMEAD.

Miss H. E. Denmead, daughter of Mrs. Carrie Denmead, 1830 Maryland avenue, Baltimore, was married to Lieut. H. G. Bartlett, of the Marine Corps, Saturday noon at the Memorial Protestant Episcopal Church. Rev. Dr. W. M. Dame, the rector, performed the ceremony, which was attended by the immediate families and a few friends.

The bride wore a messaline silk gown, draped with marquisette and trimmed with lace, and gray hat with plumes. She was given in marriage by her brother Mr. Talbott Denmead. The couple left after the ceremony for an extended trip North. Lieutenant and Mrs. Bartlett will live at the Clinton Apartments, Philadelphia. The groom is the son of Mr. George W. B. Bartlett, of Baltimore.

The bride has been the guest of Chestertown friends on social occasions and is the young lady who donated the fire alarm bell on Firemen's Hall.

Cruising In Mediterranean.

Miss Miriam Hubbard, daughter of Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard, of Chestertown, and Miss Emily Holt, daughter of Col. William Holt, of North Carolina, who are attending school in Paris, are guests on board the English yacht Atlantic, in which Drs. Babcock and Howard are cruising in the Mediterranean. They expect to visit Turkey, Greece, Italy, and after leaving the yachting party to visit Oberammergau for the Passion play. They will return to Madam Yeaman's school in Paris, where they have been since last September. On the yacht they were guests of the daughters of Dr. Howard, who are also students at Madam Yeaman's school.

SOCIETY REALMS.

Mrs. Wm. R. Pippin is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Brownley, and sisters, Mrs. Mettee and Mrs. Healey, of Baltimore, at Hotel Pippin.

A colt inflicted a heavy gash on Mr. Earle Nicholson's forehead just above the left eye by pawing him one day this week. Mr. Nicholson was examining an injury to the colt's foot when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Edith R. Jones has gone to McDonough, Baltimore county, where she has a position in the home of one of the professors of that school. Her mother and little daughter will remain in town.

There Comes A Time when letters blur, when lines run together, and reading becomes difficult, especially in the evening. This blurring is caused by the eye not being able to focus at the normal reading distance—fourteen inches. The vision in the distance is as clear as ever, and this fact leads many to believe that glasses are unnecessary, but this is just the time when the first pair of glasses is needed. A continuation without glasses causes an undue strain on the muscles of the eye, and a dull headache is the result; a person gains nothing by doing without glasses when they are needed, in fact they gain much by having glasses fitted when the first blur indicates failing vision.

"Our glasses are reasonable in price—your sight is priceless."

"You cannot get new eyes, but you can get new glasses."

Glasses fitted by a Graduate Optician.
