WHAT are the indications to-day as to the Road Engineer? Ain't it a joke?

CHAIRMAN Murray Vandiver has called a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee in Baltimore for May 25th, to arrange for Congressional primaries or conventions, as the law may be interpreted.

MAYOR GAYNOR, of New York city, will deliver the address to the graduates of St. John's College at the annual Commencement in June. This will be a great feature for the College and people from all parts of Maryland will undoubtedly hear the great Mayor.

The King of England is dead. A great ruler of a great people has fallen. Edward VII. had proven to be one of the wisest and most conservative Kings who ever ruled Great Britain. He tried to do his duty to his subjects and he succeeded. His son, the Prince of Wales, succeeds him to the throne as George V.

THERE is a lively fight on hand for the position of the captaincy of the police boat Anna B. Smith. There are several applicants, but the chances are said to favor the reappointment of Capt. Lum Ashley, who has had the job for several years. As the Antis will receive no consideration in this matter this is a squabble for the organization to heal up.

A GENTLEMAN by the name of Smith, who is employed with the State Good Roads Commission was appointed Road Engineer for Kent county last Saturday week, but has since declined the appointment. We understand that a Mr. Brown, also of the Good Roads Commission, has been endorsed during the week by Senator May, but the appointment had not been made at the hour of going to press. The stock of Prof. Gilbert B. Taylor, County Surveyor, took quite a rise on Tuesday, and there were many Organization people here on Tuesday who were pushing his claims quite strenuously. The forty-day limit allowed by the law will expire next Saturday. Will they let the appointment of an engineer and their law go by default?

RETIRING FROM POLITICS.

There have been many rumors of prominent members of the Organization forces retiring permanently from politics lately, the most startling of which was the announcement on Tuesday of two of the staunchest adherents of the Organization in the county. A member of the State Central Committee stated that he is done with politics forever, and that he will no longer take an active interest in the councils of his faction. The other one stated that he is tired of the "dirty way" his people are acting, and he does not intend to have anything more to do with politics. Both of these are men of some influence in the county, and their retirement from the political arena will still further cripple the Organization forces. Both reside in the Third district. Our advice to these people is to come in out of the wet.

TRANSCRIPT APPRECIATED.

A well-known gentleman residing in one of our thriving country towns was in Chestertown last week, and in conversation regarding public affairs, said: "The people in our town and vicinity just fall over one another on Saturday mornings in our postoffice in their efforts to get the Transcript to read. The paper is always so full of interesting reading which appeals to the average man, that it has become the most widely-read paper and the most sought-for paper that comes to our office. The paper is popular with the people because of its manly and fearless defense of the interests of the people and entire county. It is the best and newest paper in the county to-day."

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

The columns of the Transcript are open to the proper discussion of all topics of public interest or importance. Whether the editors agree with the sentiment expressed or not, the people should and may be heard through the Transcript. The columns will be the People's Forum from which they may be heard on all subjects—purely personal matter excepted. The Editors are not responsible in any manner for articles that appear in this column.

DEAR SIR:—As a taxpayer I was much interested in your recent article showing how small was the tax paid by the Pennsylvania railroad. The idea of this railroad being assessed with only the income of an assessment. I very much doubt whether this property could be built, with right of way, etc., for anything like $1,500,000.

In this connection don't you think the Md. Del. & Va. Railroad Co., which has the lower part of the county by the scuff of their necks, should be made to pony up? It is nothing in the world but one of the fingers of the Pennsylvania.

Can you find out what is the assessment of the Westinghouse Electric Company, of the Tolchester Steamboat Company, as well as of the Ericsson Steamboat Company, in Kent county? Let our people be wide-awake upon these subjects. Now that we are to have an assessment, let all these corporations bear a just and proper assessment. We are watching you, gentlemen, who are the assessors, and you too, gentlemen, who act as a Board of Review, and your attorney who represents some of these corporations.

ANOTHER FARMER.

Kennedyville Items.

D. C. Kelley, F. C. Miller and Harper Webb went on a business trip to Baltimore this week.

The farmers are beautifying their buildings and fences with a coat of whitewash. They are setting out their tomato plants, in fact, they are keeping their work up, and if the season is favorable some of our farmers will have potatoes by the hundred and some by the thousand of bushels.

Mr. J. C. Redmie, while cutting down an apple tree this spring, met with a peculiar accident and while he did not suffer much pain it might have been serious. There was a stone lodged in the tree and the jar from the cutting caused the stone to fall, and Jack, not thinking about a stone up the tree, stepped back just in time for the stone to fall on his head, making a bad cut. The colored man working with him thought he saw Mr. Jack's brain when he looked at the cut, and he said: "My Mr. Jack, I see glad it didn't kill you, they would hang me sure!" but under the care of Dr. Barwick we do not think that Jack lost a trip to the village.

Mr. Howard Clendaniel also had a close call some days ago. While working in the creamery his elbow was caught in a belt, but nothing serious happened as both men were only a few days older and somewhat wiser and they know that stones and belts are not to be trusted too far.

If any of our horsemen are anxious for a race let them jog to Locust Grove where they will surely get accommodated and very likely get beat. Locust Grove is to be reckoned with when you want a race.

Herring are gone, shad are going and strawberries are here. We are ready for the change.

Rev. Mr. Mullineaux, the M. P. minister who recently moved in our midst is moving among the people and daily getting better acquainted. If you want to hear a good sermon come out and hear him, as he preaches two fine sermons every Sunday.

Rev. Leonard White, Assistant District Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League will make an address next Sunday night, the 15th, commencing at 8 o'clock in the M. P. Church.
