

C. C. Jones

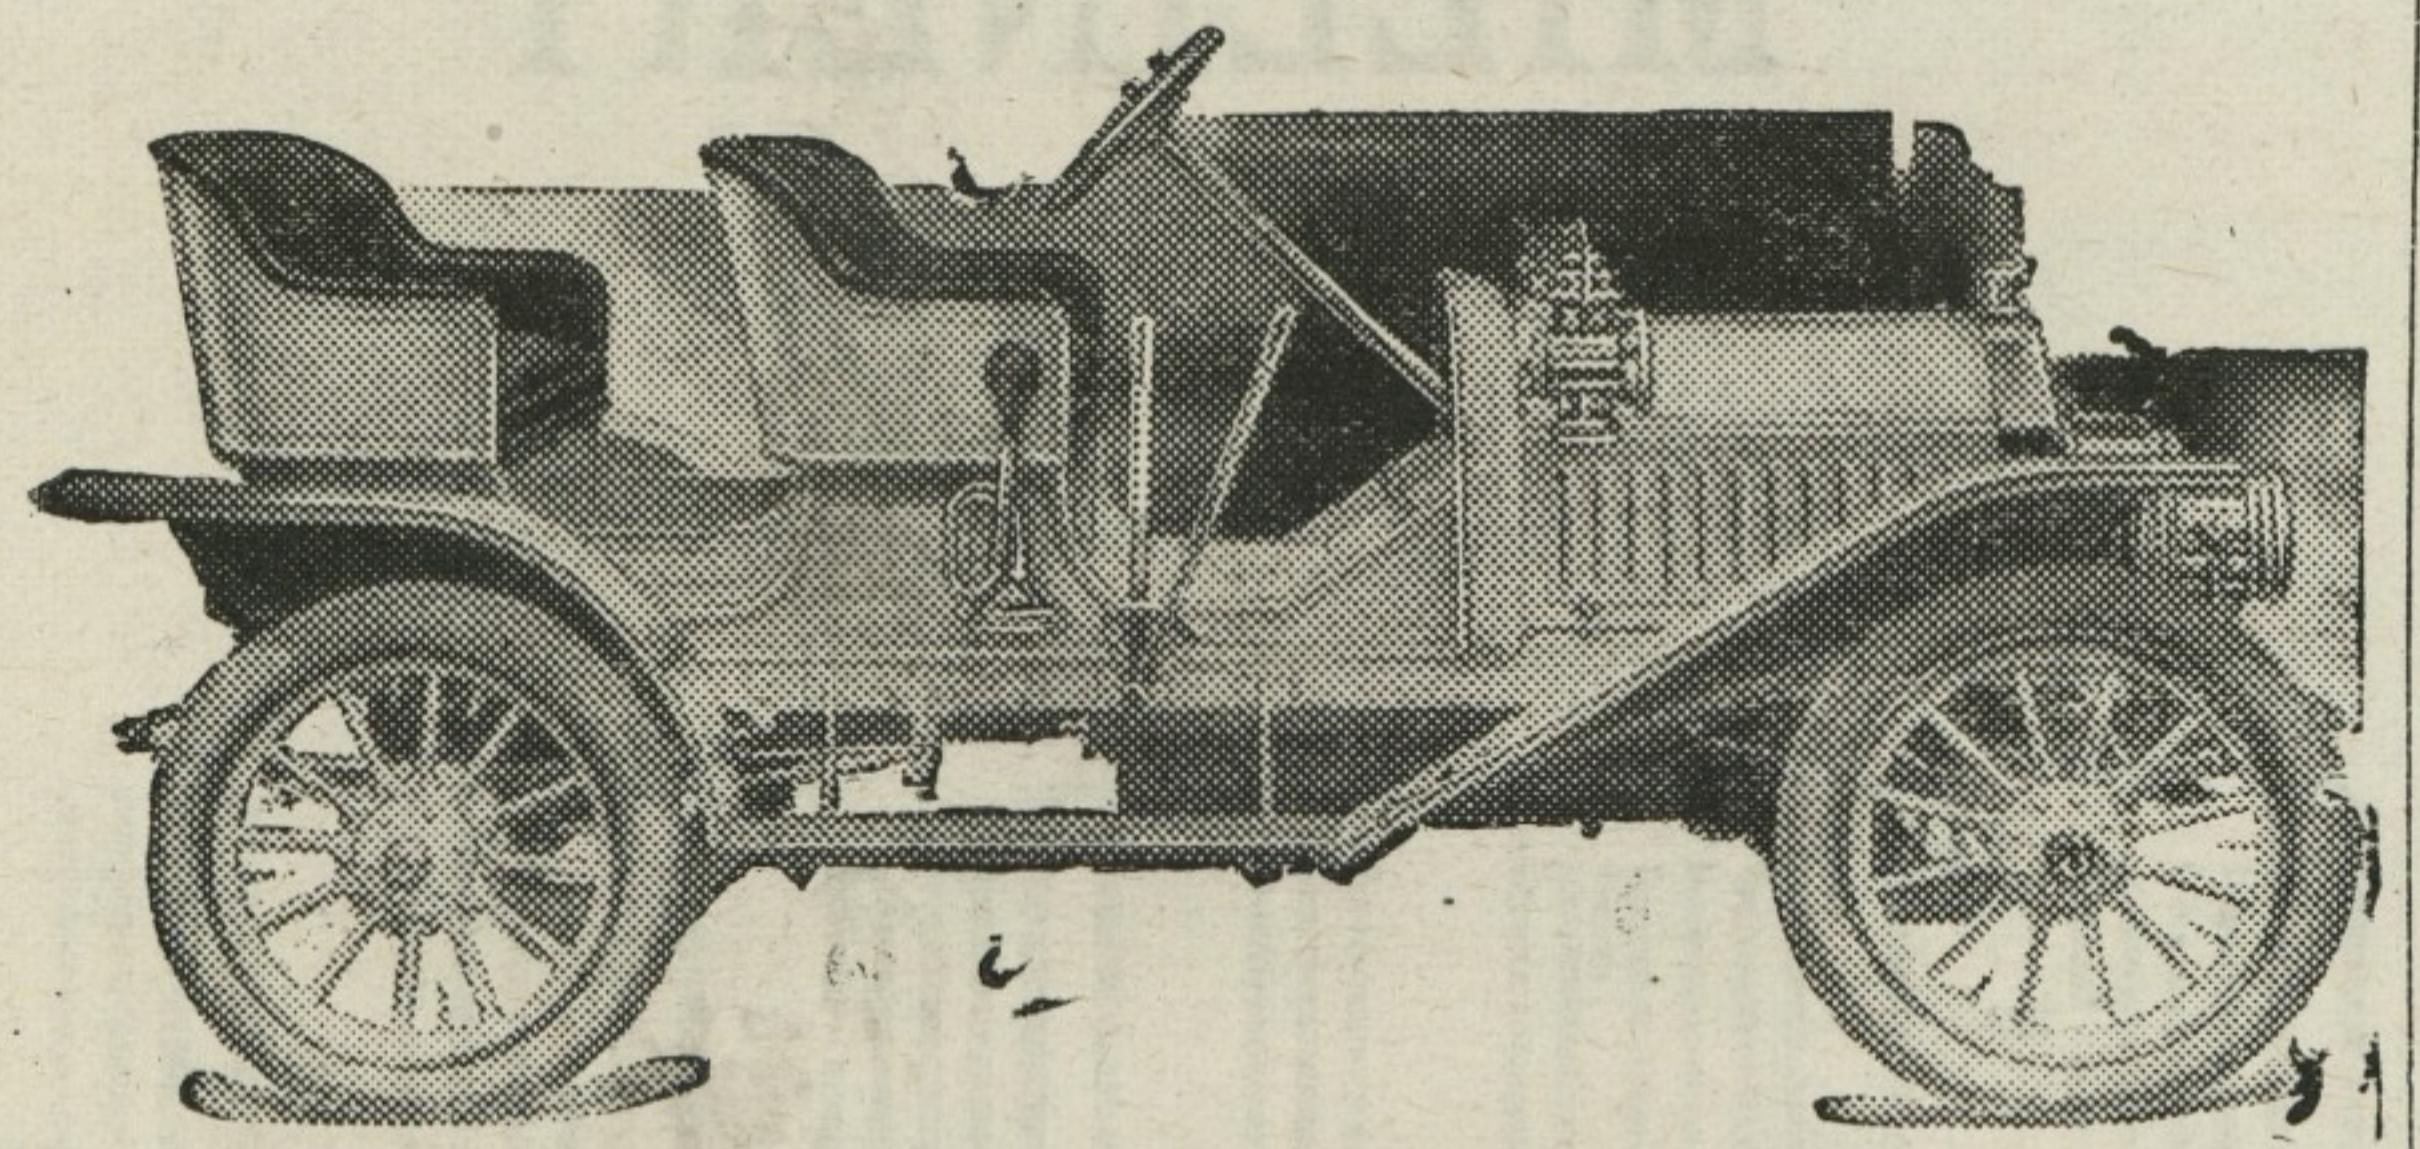

THE SHOE STORE.

"THE SHOE STORE" is justly popular because it offers the newest things when they are new and provides such a varied assortment that no one need be disappointed. We appeal for your patronage on the only inducing basis, actual value.

Just now we are showing some especially nobby patterns in both black and russet leathers that are worth seeing whether you buy or not. We sell shoes for the whole family and save you money.

C. C. JONES--The Shoe Man,

Chestertown, Md.

1910 REO

1, 2 and 4 Cylinder.

CHAIN AND SHAFT.

FROM $500 to $1250

None Better at $2000, Yet Only 1250.

This is a bold assertion, but a careful inspection of point to point will prove it true, and the thinking man will want it explained before making his choice. It is adjustable in every part and accessible. A look will prove its superiority. Its oiling system is perfect. Guaranteed no smoke from rear and no miss firing from spark plugs. After months of use, plugs will not soil your handkerchiefs.

—Rural Mail Carrier Sylvester, from Millington, has resigned to engage in farming. There are a number of applicants for his place.

—The commissioners of Betterton on Saturday last sold $2000 in street bonds to Capt. Charles Bacon at par, the bonds bearing interest at 5 per cent.

—Get your trotter or pacer in shape for old Worton track. The Worton Driving Club is going to make things hum out there during the summer and fall.

—Andrew Murray, colored, caught 33 fine rock in his seine one day last week. Some of them were as large as roe shad, and retailed in town at 12 cents per pound.

—The thermometer registered 46° on Wednesday morning, the coldest first day of June in the history of the weather bureau. Fires were kindled in many homes here.

—Mr. Abe Cohen, the Sandy Bottom Department Store man, bought the safe in the office of the late Marion deK. Smith, Esq., and moved it to his store on Monday morning.

—Messrs. Philip G. Wilmer and Wm. B. Uaiton were elected members of the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College, at a meeting of the Board on Wednesday evening.

—Efforts are being made to induce the United States Government to erect a suitable postoffice building on the site of the present office, and a largely signed petition has been gotten up this week.

—Decorations were observed in Chestertown by the closing of the banks and the raising of American flags. Charles Sumner Post G. A. R. decorated the graves in the cemeteries in the afternoon.

—The Orphans' Court on Tuesday appointed Messrs. George D. Loffland and James Price appraisers of the real and personal estate of the late William E. Jarrell, and they have been at work during the week.

—The small son of Mr. Harry Willis, of near Betterton, was bitten by a dog supposed to be mad, one day last week. The little fellow was taken without delay to the Pasteur institute, Baltimore, for treatment.

—Wheat five feet tall and apparently all but ready to cut was taken to the Baltimore Sun office on Wednesday from the Westcott farm, Mr. E. S. Valliant's place at Church Hill. He has forty acres like the sample.

—Somebody start a boom for a big Fourth of July celebration in Chestertown. Let's have base ball games, fire works at night and a motor boat carnival on the river also at night, and offer prizes for the best decorated motor boat.

—Mrs. J. Biddle Hossinger has sold her piano, which she advertised in the TRANSCRIPT, to Mrs. Myers, of Rock Hall. The TRANSCRIPT is right on the job all the time. It works while you are asleep and while you are awake.

—The wireless telegraph system on the steamer Louise was used for the first time on Saturday afternoon when the steamer's wheel shaft broke while on her Tolchester trip. The C. Q. D. was sounded, and in a short time a tug was alongside, and the steamer was towed to her dock, two hours later.

—The management of the Roller skating rink have employed the Chestertown Cornet Band to furnish music during the evenings the rink is open. The rink will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings from 8 to 11, and Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons 3 to 5.30, beginning next Monday.

—The management of the Roller skating rink have employed the Chestertown Cornet Band to furnish music during the evenings the rink is open. The rink will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings from 8 to 11, and Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons 3 to 5.30, beginning next Monday.

—The management of the Roller skating rink have employed the Chestertown Cornet Band to furnish music during the evenings the rink is open. The rink will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings from 8 to 11, and Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons 3 to 5.30, beginning next Monday.

—The management of the Roller skating rink have employed the Chestertown Cornet Band to furnish music during the evenings the rink is open. The rink will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings from 8 to 11, and Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons 3 to 5.30, beginning next Monday.

—The management of the Roller skating rink have employed the Chestertown Cornet Band to furnish music during the evenings the rink is open. The rink will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings from 8 to 11, and Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons 3 to 5.30, beginning next Monday.

—The management of the Roller skating rink have employed the Chestertown Cornet Band to furnish music during the evenings the rink is open. The rink will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings from 8 to 11, and Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons 3 to 5.30, beginning next Monday.

—The management of the Roller skating rink have employed the Chestertown Cornet Band to furnish music during the evenings the rink is open. The rink will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings from 8 to 11, and Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons 3 to 5.30, beginning next Monday.

—The management of the Roller skating rink have employed the Chestertown Cornet Band to furnish music during the evenings the rink is open. The rink will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings from 8 to 11, and Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons 3 to 5.30, beginning next Monday.

—The management of the Roller skating rink have employed the Chestertown Cornet Band to furnish music during the evenings the rink is open. The rink will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings from 8 to 11, and Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons 3 to 5.30, beginning next Monday.

The Transcript

Subscription $1.00 Per Year.
SATURDAY, JUNE 4, 1910.

LOCAL MATTERS

Stockholders of a Baltimore Bank To Be Assessed.—Beverly W. Mister, John Phelps, E. Allan Sauerwein, Jr., and John J. Hurst, receivers of the defunct Farmers' Trust Banking and Deposit Company, have notified the company's stockholders of an assessment of 25 per cent. on the par value of their holdings for the purpose of paying the obligations of the company. The Galena Bank was a branch of the above institution.

Wedding Announced.—We beg to acknowledge an invitation to the marriage of Miss Nellie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Grace, Jr., to Mr. Mason Shehan, Esq., a prominent member of the Easton bar. The ceremony will be performed in Trinity Cathedral, Easton, on Wednesday morning, June 15th, at six o'clock. Mr. Shehan has recently had erected a beautiful home in Easton, to which he will take his bride after an extended wedding tour.

Blizzard weather in Lake Superior region, prostrations from the heat in California, and severe storms in West Virginia, have given Kent county and Chestertown all sorts of weather during the week. Some people declared it snowed here on Tuesday night.

A cool, wet May and a dry June make a good wheat crop. May has delivered the goods alright, and it is now up to June to do the same thing. The past month has been the most seasonal May on wheat and grass in this section for years.

—Mr. P. E. Corkran, agent of Easton, has delivered three $1250 four cylinder Reo automobiles to Cambridge purchasers. Another carload is on the road and Mr. Corkran has orders for seven more. This is one of the finest machines on the market, and has stood the test with all makes.

—Postmaster O. J. Lucas, at Pocomoke City, Md., last week received a letter which he was unable to deliver. It was addressed to "Jesus, Heaven." The postmaster's daughter found that the message was mailed by a little girl, Olga Wulff, of that place, who wrote the Savior in childish phraseology thanking Him for saving her sister Vivien, from drowning in the Pocomoke river. The letter was returned to the Wulff family.

—In the case of Stevens Brothers vs. Wilbur Hurlock, tried in Easton last week, a verdict was rendered for Mr. Hurlock. This was a suit of Stevens Bros. against Mr. Hurlock for $4000, which Stevens Bros. claimed the estate of the late S. Rol Hurlock owed Stevens Bros. as endorser for his son. Messrs. Sidney P. Townsend, Wm. W. Beck and Mason Shehan represented Mr. Hurlock, while Messrs. Alonzo W. Miles, James W. Chapman, Jr., of Baltimore, Senator J. Frank Harris, of Centerville and Congressman J. Harry Covington, of Easton, represented Stevens Bros.

—The Adelphi Literary Society gave a delightful dance in the college gymnasium on Saturday evening. Excellent music was furnished for the occasion by four pieces from Wilmington, Del.

—Mr. Harry S. Bramble, son of Mrs. George V. Byron, graduated seventh in a large class at a Baltimore School of Pharmacy this week. Mr. Bramble deserves great credit for his excellent work.

—Dr. C. C. Billingslea, assistant surgeon of the United States Army, and family are visiting Mrs. Billingslea's parents, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Graham, at the Methodist Protestant parsonage in Salisbury. They have recently returned to the States after a term of service in Manila, Philippine Islands. The doctor has been granted a furlough of three months, one of which they have spent traveling in Japan. When the leave of absence has expired his post of duty will be the Presidio, San Francisco, Cal.

—Mr. Howard Dodd, who has lucrative employment in Baltimore, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Mamie Dodd, on High street.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Schofield, of Still Pond, are attending the wedding of Mr. Ernest Schofield and Miss Mae Grogen in Baltimore to-day at 11 o'clock. Mr. Schofield acting as best man for his brother.

—Mr. Charles McWhorter, of the Maryland House of Correction staff, has been at home on a furlough during the week. Mrs. James H. Shuster and daughter, Dorothy, are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hyde, in Wilmington, Del.

—Mr. Louis Barroll, son of J. Leeds Barroll, Esq., of Philadelphia, and Miss Keyser of Baltimore, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hope H. Barroll at Byford during the week.

—Prof. T. Kemp Bordley and Mr. Houston Toulson, of Baltimore, have been visiting their parents here during the week.

—Flag Day will be observed in the public schools of the county on June 14th. The Patriotic orders and all patriotic citizens are requested to display at least one American flag from their homes and places of business.

—Mr. Wm. P. Newnam, the music dealer, has moved his store to the Maul building on High street recently occupied by the Singer Sewing Machine Company, whose headquarters have been removed to Havre de Grace.

—Mr. Jacob F. Thompson, agent for the Ford automobile, has sold a touring car to Mr. J. Waters Russell, which will be delivered this week. Mr. George D. Loffland has placed an order for a Maxwell Roadster with Mr. J. H. Sides, agent.

—Mrs. Geo. B. McWhorter, of Washington avenue, not only has one of the most beautiful flower yards in Chestertown, but the poultry yard is a sight worth seeing at this time. 350 and more young chickens adorn the yard and they are of fine stock.

—Blizzard weather in Lake Superior region, prostrations from the heat in California, and severe storms in West Virginia, have given Kent county and Chestertown all sorts of weather during the week. Some people declared it snowed here on Tuesday night.

A cool, wet May and a dry June make a good wheat crop. May has delivered the goods alright, and it is now up to June to do the same thing. The past month has been the most seasonal May on wheat and grass in this section for years.

—Mr. P. E. Corkran, agent of Easton, has delivered three $1250 four cylinder Reo automobiles to Cambridge purchasers. Another carload is on the road and Mr. Corkran has orders for seven more. This is one of the finest machines on the market, and has stood the test with all makes.

—Postmaster O. J. Lucas, at Pocomoke City, Md., last week received a letter which he was unable to deliver. It was addressed to "Jesus, Heaven." The postmaster's daughter found that the message was mailed by a little girl, Olga Wulff, of that place, who wrote the Savior in childish phraseology thanking Him for saving her sister Vivien, from drowning in the Pocomoke river. The letter was returned to the Wulff family.

—In the case of Stevens Brothers vs. Wilbur Hurlock, tried in Easton last week, a verdict was rendered for Mr. Hurlock. This was a suit of Stevens Bros. against Mr. Hurlock for $4000, which Stevens Bros. claimed the estate of the late S. Rol Hurlock owed Stevens Bros. as endorser for his son. Messrs. Sidney P. Townsend, Wm. W. Beck and Mason Shehan represented Mr. Hurlock, while Messrs. Alonzo W. Miles, James W. Chapman, Jr., of Baltimore, Senator J. Frank Harris, of Centerville and Congressman J. Harry Covington, of Easton, represented Stevens Bros.

—The Adelphi Literary Society gave a delightful dance in the college gymnasium on Saturday evening. Excellent music was furnished for the occasion by four pieces from Wilmington, Del.

—Mr. Harry S. Bramble, son of Mrs. George V. Byron, graduated seventh in a large class at a Baltimore School of Pharmacy this week. Mr. Bramble deserves great credit for his excellent work.

—Dr. C. C. Billingslea, assistant surgeon of the United States Army, and family are visiting Mrs. Billingslea's parents, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Graham, at the Methodist Protestant parsonage in Salisbury. They have recently returned to the States after a term of service in Manila, Philippine Islands. The doctor has been granted a furlough of three months, one of which they have spent traveling in Japan. When the leave of absence has expired his post of duty will be the Presidio, San Francisco, Cal.

—Mr. Howard Dodd, who has lucrative employment in Baltimore, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Mamie Dodd, on High street.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Schofield, of Still Pond, are attending the wedding of Mr. Ernest Schofield and Miss Mae Grogen in Baltimore to-day at 11 o'clock. Mr. Schofield acting as best man for his brother.

—Mr. Charles McWhorter, of the Maryland House of Correction staff, has been at home on a furlough during the week. Mrs. James H. Shuster and daughter, Dorothy, are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hyde, in Wilmington, Del.

—Mr. Louis Barroll, son of J. Leeds Barroll, Esq., of Philadelphia, and Miss Keyser of Baltimore, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hope H. Barroll at Byford during the week.

—Prof. T. Kemp Bordley and Mr. Houston Toulson, of Baltimore, have been visiting their parents here during the week.

Mrs. Harvey and daughter, of Washington, D. C., are visiting friends here. Mrs. Dr. Gundry, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Mrs. Allan A. Harris during the week.

Mr. John Stam, son of the late Louis K. Stam, has been visiting relatives and friends here during the week.

Mrs. W. Frank Hines, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. Allan A. Harris.

Mrs. Wm. W. Beck leaves this morning for a visit to Old Point Comfort.

Rev. G. A. Morris, the popular pastor of St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches, has been suffering with an influenza, which he hurt while assisting in loading telephone poles in a woods recently.

Miss Mary Miller, of the Maryland Institute of Art and Design, is at home.

Mrs. Benanna Russell and daughters, Miss Lottie, and Mrs. A. M. Culp visited relatives and friends in Baltimore last week.

Miss Dudley is the guest of Mrs. Claude Parks, on Queen street.

Miss McMahon, of Baltimore, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. C. Hughes, on Queen street.

Hope H. Barroll, Esq., has been in Baltimore and Elkton on legal business during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Dewing, of Oakland, California, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alice May, to Mr. Norman Pearce Ellis, Wednesday evening, June 15th, 1910. Miss Dewing is a granddaughter of the late Rev. Mr. Dewing, who some years ago filled the charges of Worton and Kennedyville Presbyterian churches, and is a niece of Messrs. W. S. and R. H. Collins, of Chestertown.

Mrs. E. T. Schutt, in company with her daughter, Nellie I. Schutt, of Washington, D. C., were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hill, at "Mt. Vernon," near Kennedyville.

Our Advertisers' Interests.

The moving pictures in Stam's Hall every night, are instructive as well as interesting. Go see them.

In another column will be seen the advertisement of an entertainment to be given by the Junior Class of Washington College. The entertainment is of a dramatic character, and will inaugurate the commencement exercises. The object of this effort of the Junior Class is to obtain funds to defray the expense of publishing the college annual. This is a meritorious end, it is to be hoped a large audience will be in attendance.

Those who go may be assured of a delightful evening as "Mr. Bob," is a play full of life and fun.

Special June Sales at The Hub, Millington. Big offerings in Men's and Women's wearing apparel. See big advertisement on page 7.

Special Sales of White Goods at Eisenberg's big store in Baltimore. Your warts will receive prompt attention through their mail order department, or call at their store on Lexington street when in the city.

Read the sale advertisements of fine land in this issue. You can get a fine farm if you want one in Kent now.

Worton's Co-operative store is doing a rushing business, and you can get exceptional goods at very low prices there. Take them your country produce.

If you want one of the fine Corn Cutters which Davis & Satterfield are making, or any other kind of farm machinery, place your order now.

Watch for the June Sale advertisement of B. S. Sutton, the hustling Black's Merchant, next week. Sutton always has some interesting bargains for his readers.

The clock will stop for the last time at Vansack & Newsome's on Tuesday. It has been a great time-keeper and has brought lots of customers to the big store. Bring all your tickets next Tuesday. After that think of Porosnick Underwear and they will supply your wants. Mr. Laurie Hackett got the fine set of dishes last Tuesday.

"Mr. Bob" will be the star attraction in William Smith Hall next Thursday evening. His arrival will inaugurate commencement week, and you will find him very agreeable company. He desires to meet everybody in Chestertown, and as he is a personage of fame and fortune, the people here should not fail to meet him and share the benefits which his presence will confer upon Washington College enterprises.

The First Quarterly Conference for Kennedyville Charge will be held in the M. P. Church, on Monday morning next, the 6th inst., beginning at 9 o'clock. A full attendance of the official members is earnestly solicited. All members and friends of the church most cordially invited. Much business of importance to be transacted.

MARRIED.

WATERS-BRECKWEDDEL.—At the beautiful residence of Dr. Breckweddel, "Kentmere," near Chestertown, on Wednesday, June 1st, 1910, at 10 o'clock, by Rev. J. E. Barrett, D.D., John Franklin Waters, of New York City, and Miss Florence Edith Breckweddel, of Kent county, Md.

The Elite Laundry

THE LARGEST AND BEST IN THE STATE.

As there is no home steam laundry in Chestertown, you will patronize the best in the State.

The Elite of Baltimore is strictly refined and rendered absolutely sanitary. Best work. Prompt delivery. Satisfaction guaranteed. Work called for and delivered. Leave orders at

GEM VARIETY STORE,

Next door to Kent County Savings Bank.

Subscription to the Transcript $1.00 per annum.

Order of Publication.

SIDNEY P. TOWNSEND, SOLICITOR.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

No. 1741.

Annie N. Cotton and George W. Cotton, her husband, Levi Johnson and Della Johnson, his wife, Daniel Johnson, and Ann Woodford, his wife, John W. Hall and Sarah A. Hall, his wife, James Wilson and Emma Wilson, his wife, Warner Rasin, Jr., and Laura Jane Rasin, his wife, Lewis Benjamin Wilson and Gertrude Wilson, Sarah Emily Rasin, Henry M. Rasin, Laura Brown, Harriett Parrott, Henry Rasin, John Rasin, George Wilson, John Wilson, Cora Wilson, Annie Rasin, Emma Rasin, Alexander Wilson, Levia Bright, the unknown heirs of Harriett Mitchell, deceased, and the unknown heirs of Levia Hynson, deceased.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of the real estate of one Benjamin Rasin, late of Kent county, Maryland, deceased, situate and being in Kent county, Maryland, and of which the said Benjamin Rasin died seized and possessed.

1.—That the said Benjamin Rasin had the following Complaint states, that one Benjamin Rasin, (colored), late of Kent county, Maryland, departed this life on or about the 8th day of October, 1877, intestate, at or near the village of Coleman, in said Kent county.

2.—That the said Benjamin Rasin had the following brothers and sisters, to-wit: Warner M. Rasin, Sarah Johnson, Harriett Mitchell, Henry Rasin, Susan Wilson, George Rasin, Eliza Wilson, Jonathan Rasin, Lavina Hynson, and Rachel Rasin, all of whom departed this life prior to the death of said Benjamin Rasin.

3.—That the said Benjamin Rasin died leaving no widow, child or descendant of a deceased child.

4.—That the said Rachel Rasin, a sister of the said Benjamin Rasin, died prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, and that she left no surviving husband, child or descendant of a deceased child.

5.—That the said Warner M. Rasin, who was a brother of the said Benjamin Rasin, died prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, leaving no surviving widow, but left the following children surviving him, to-wit: Annie E. Segars, whose husband is named George W. Cotton, both of whom now reside in the county of Kent and State of Maryland; Eli E. Rasin, whose wife is named Francis J. E. Rasin, who now resides in the county of Delaware and State of Pennsylvania; Joseph J. E. Rasin, who now resides in the county of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania; Warner M. Rasin, also had a son named George H. Rasin, who died prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, and left surviving him a widow, whose name is Abby Rasin, and two children, to-wit: Richard Rasin and Maggie Rasin, all of whom now reside in the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania.

6.—That the said Sarah Johnson departed this life prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, leaving no surviving husband, but leaving the following children, to-wit: Levia Burgen, of Kent county and State of Maryland; John W. Hall, whose wife is named Sarah A. Hall, both of said Kent county; and Levi Johnson, whose wife is named Della Johnson, both of whom reside in said Kent county. And that the said Sarah Johnson had two other children who died prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, to-wit: Miley Segars, who left no surviving husband, and left one child, to-wit: Annie E. Segars, who resides in said Kent county; and the other deceased child of said Sarah Johnson, being Eliza Jones, who departed this life prior to the death of said Benjamin Rasin, leaving no surviving husband or child of deceased children, but leaving the following children, to-wit: James Johnson, whose wife is named Zola Jones, who resides in the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania; and John Jones and Rachel Bright, whose husband is named Aaron Bright, the last three being all residents of said Kent county.

7.—That the said Harriett Mitchell, who was a sister of the said Benjamin Rasin, died prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, leaving no surviving husband, but that her children are informed and verily believe that she has no children, whose names and residences they have been unable to ascertain, and whose unknown heirs are made parties defendant in this cause.

8.—That the said Henry Rasin, a brother of the said Benjamin Rasin, died prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, leaving no surviving widow, but leaving the following surviving children, to-wit: Sarah Emily Rasin and Henry M. Rasin, both of whom reside in the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania; that the said Henry Rasin had two children, who also died prior to the death of said Benjamin Rasin; one named Henry Rasin, Jr., who left no surviving widow or child of deceased children, but who left the following children, to-wit: Henry Rasin and John Rasin, both of whom reside in the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania; the other deceased child of the said Henry Rasin being Mary Brown, who died prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, leaving no surviving husband, but leaving the following children, to-wit: Alexander Wilson and Levia Hynson, both of whom reside in the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania.

9.—That the said Susan Wilson, a sister of the said Benjamin Rasin, died prior to the death of said Benjamin Rasin, leaving no surviving husband, but leaving four children surviving her, to-wit: Warner Rasin, Jr., whose wife is named Laura Jane Rasin, and Evans C. Wilson, all three of whom reside in the city of Baltimore and State of Maryland; James Wilson, whose wife is named Emma Wilson, and Robert Wilson, all three of whom reside in the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania; and that besides these four surviving children, the said Susan Wilson had one other child named John Wilson, who died prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, leaving no surviving widow, whose name now is Wharriett Wilson Whiting, and who resides in the city of Baltimore and State of Maryland; that the said John Wilson also left surviving him three children, to-wit: George Wilson, John Wilson and Cora Wilson, all three of whom reside in the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania.

10.—That the said George Rasin, a brother of the said Benjamin Rasin, died prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, leaving no surviving widow, but leaving the following children, to-wit: Annie Rasin and Emma Rasin, both of whom reside in the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania.

11.—That the said Eliza Wilson, a sister of the said Benjamin Rasin, died prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, leaving no surviving husband, but leaving two children surviving her, to-wit: Alexander Wilson and Levia Hynson, both of whom reside in the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania; and that besides these two surviving children, the said Eliza Wilson had three other children, to-wit: Gertrude Wilson, all three of whom reside in the State of New York.

12.—That the said Lavina Hynson, a sister of the said Benjamin Rasin, died prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, leaving no surviving husband, but leaving the following children, to-wit: Alexander Wilson and Levia Hynson, both of whom reside in the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania; and that besides these two surviving children, the said Lavina Hynson left children, whose names and residences they have been unable to ascertain, and whose unknown heirs are made parties defendant in this cause.

13.—That the said Jonathan Rasin, a brother of the said Benjamin Rasin, died prior to the death of the said Benjamin Rasin, leaving no surviving widow, but leaving one child named Levia Bright, whose residence is unknown to your orator, and which said child is made a party defendant in this cause.

14.—That the heirs of the aforesaid defendant and sisters, per stirpes, are seized as tenants in common of certain real estate, situate, lying and being in said Kent county, of which the said Benjamin Rasin died seized and possessed, intestate, a full description of which real estate is contained in a deed from James H. Cotton and others to the said Benjamin Rasin, bearing date the 19th day of January, 1858, and duly recorded in Liber S. G. F. No. 8, Folio 236, a Land Record Book for Kent county, Maryland.

15.—That the personal estate of the said Benjamin Rasin has been fully administered upon, and was insufficient to pay the debts of the decedent as will appear from a certificate of the Register of Wills for Kent county, filed in these proceedings.

16.—That your orators are entitled to have the said real estate sold under a decree of this Honorable Court for the purpose of first paying off such debts of the decedent as may be proved to be the decedent's personal property and remain in charge against the decedent's real estate until the payment and satisfaction of said debts so remaining unpaid, the remainder after the payment of all costs and expenses incident to this cause to be divided among the heirs at law, per stirpes, of the aforesaid brothers and sisters of the said Benjamin Rasin.

17.—That your orators are entitled to have the enjoyment of their respective interests in said real estate in severalty according to their respective interests, and that same is not susceptible of partition among the parties at interest without loss and injury to them.

18.—That the said real estate is not susceptible of division or partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to interests therein as above stated, and that in order to make division of said interests it will be necessary that said real estate be sold, and the proceeds thereof divided among the parties according to their several interests.

19.—That your orators are advised and verily believe that each of the parties defendant, to-wit: Eli E. Rasin, Frances Rasin, Joseph J. Rasin, Sarah Emily Rasin, Henry M. Rasin, Laura Brown, Harriett Parrott, Henry Rasin, John Rasin, George Wilson, John Wilson, Cora Wilson, Annie Rasin, Emma Rasin, Alexander Wilson, Levia Bright, the unknown heirs of Harriett Mitchell, and the unknown heirs of Levia Hynson.

It is thereupon, this 2nd day of May, 1910, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland, in Equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 8th day of June, 1910, give notice to the said non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, warning them to appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 23rd day of June, 1910, next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as aforesaid.

True Copy—Test:
JAMES T. DIXON, Clerk.
May 7-5t.

WILLIAM W. BECK. PRESTON R. IVENS.

BECK & IVENS,

Real Estate Brokers

No. 64—A BEAUTIFUL SITUATION, situated on Sassafras River, 129 acres of land, and about 20 acres woodland; few select apple trees, in stock yard; 4000 feet of land, containing about 10 nice large rooms, good porches and a beautiful lawn containing about 50 ornamental trees, very nicely fenced in. Large 15-stall stable, stone basement and large stone walls around stock yard, good cow stable and hog pen in stock yard; large granary, 4 corn cribs about 1000 and nice lot of 10000 carriages, sleds, carriage house, poultry house, ice house, holds 40 or 50 tons of ice, stone walls. Tenant House on farm contains 11 nice rooms, 3 basement rooms, practically new; good poultry house. There is a gravel slope from the house, pretty good streams, water, and a wharf on the farm with good granary room. This is a beautiful home and close to railroad station and steamboat wharf. Price $90,000. An exceptional bargain. Photographs upon application.

No. 63—In Kent county, 1 mile from Rock Hall, 20 acres of land, 10 acres of which is woodland, 5 acres in peaches, pears and apples, nice meadow; 11-room house, dwelling, good cellar with cemented floor; 8-stall stable two chicken houses, etc., in good condition; fencing, well fenced and some fruit. Price $3,800. Quick buyer gets a bargain. Possession at once.

No. 44—In Kent county, on Lankford's 100 acres in valuable oak and chestnut timber, 15 acres in fruit, nice meadow; 9-room house, every room partly new and winding stairway from first floor to garret; outbuildings and fencing in good condition; 10-stall stable; 2 wells of good water, poultry house, ice house. This farm is very nicely located on the water, fish and oysters being plentiful; produce can be landed on boat 400 yards from the house, gash shore. Price $8,000. Easy terms if desired.

No. 53—About