Rock Hall Items.

Last Thursday night, April 26th, the Jr. O. U. A. M. No. 149 of this town held the first of a series of entertainments, in the form of a minstrel with bright costumes, and 15 of the most jolly fellows in the lodge as circle men, 6 of these were end men, and their jokes kept the audience in a continual uproar all the time. One of the good ones was on Prof. Greenhawk, who could not turn a note, introduced as a celebrated tenor. Although his first attempt before the public in this role, he had many laughing and was called out again. The songs of W. Coleman, Briers, Prof. Davis and S. B. Maslin were rendered with true minstrel spirit. On account of lack of seating room in the Amusee Hall, the show was repeated again last Wednesday, June 1st, to another crowded house. The proceeds of these entertainments will go toward arranging a stage of good accommodation for any kind of performance in the Junior's new hall.

The Boys of Squeedunk will show in Fairlee next Thursday night, in the Grange Hall.

Miss Edna Durling, one of Rock Hall's popular teachers, who has been in the Maryland University for some time has been brought home. Miss Durling's sister Ruth, of Washington, spent a few days with her parents this week.

Quite a number of farmers in this section have planted broom-corn for Wm. Leary and Urie, for next season's manufacture of brooms and brushes. This ought to prove a profitable crop.

We are sorry to report that the O. A. B., of the High School has disbanded; the boys have been so busy in out-of-door sports that they could not attend meetings and with no meetings they forfeited their charter. This is a shame, for the principles of this little order were such that any boy might be proud to call himself a member.

There was a dance and entertainment held in the K. of P. Hall last night (Friday).

As the B. S. Ford has been hauled out for repairs and re-painting, the Tivoli has been put on this route.

Chesterville Items.

Emmanuel Sunday School at 9:30. Preaching at 10:30. League at 7:30. Illustrated sermon at 8, subject, "Esther and Haman."

Trinity, Millington.—Sunday School at 2. Children's Day at 3. Public invited. Collection for education of poor boys and girls. Bring your purse.

Children's Day at Emmanuel was a success in every way. As usual, the crowd was much larger on the outside than in the church. Many of the members of the church, and men of the community surrendered their seats for women and children and strangers, and went to the outside. The programme was a good one all through and rendered with surprising accuracy. The quartette by Dr. and Mrs. Gowman, Mr. Wesley Moffett and Miss Lula Benton was pantomimed by a number of young ladies, making "Rock of Ages," a very realistic thing. The daisy chain by a number of Misses was not only attractive but also imparted some very helpful and lasting impressions. The decorations were abundant, and displayed fine taste in selection and arrangement. Much is due the committees on training and decorations by way of praise and appreciation. Our object is not to make Children's Day the occasion of a show, but a help to the children religiously, socially and educationally; also an object lesson for all who are looking for help.

Miss Mattie Mullikin, of Woodwardsville, Md., is visiting at the parsonage.

We were glad to see Mr. D. S. Davis at Children's Day service. Since his affliction he has been very much missed in the church work. He was superintendent of the Sunday school.

Mr. Geo. Jones has returned from Atlantic City and is reported better.

The Epworth League will give an Art Gallery Social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Skinner, next Friday night, June 10. If you want a pleasant evening, come, and come early if you want to get in the house. The Leaguers extend a cordial invitation.

Still Pond Notes.

Mr. William Krusen, who has been ill for some time, has gone away to try and improve his health. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds and family, from Townsend, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bauchamp. They made the trip in their automobile.

Mr. Baynard Harper, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Harper.

Quite a number from our town enjoyed the Lynch Children's Day exercises. The singing was fine and the children did well.

Miss Lillias Walter spent a few days in Baltimore.

Miss Pearl Coleman is visiting her sister, Mrs. Zella Atwell.

Mr. Charlie Hackett and Mr. Charlie Jewell, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jewell.

The Ladies' Aid met at Mrs. John Bennett's Wednesday afternoon. Quite a number were present. Everyone enjoyed it. Refreshments were ice-cream, strawberries and cake.

Don't forget Children's Day services tomorrow (Sunday) June 5. Everybody welcome. In the morning there will be preaching, and from 10:30 the time will be given to the christening of children. Bring the children to be christened. This is your chance.
