The annual Children's Day services of Christ M. P. Sunday School were held last Sunday evening, and notwithstanding the inclement weather a large audience enjoyed a splendid program of recitation and music, rendered by the children, under the direction of a splendid committee, composed of Misses Hope Sappington, Mary Knight and Maude Dyer. The entire service was in charge of the superintendent, Mr. Fred G. Usilton. A special committee of which Miss Fannie Baker was chairman beautifully decorated the church. The collection was the largest Children's Day collection in the history of the church, more than $76 being contributed by the classes for Foreign Missions. Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard's class of young men, all deeply interested in the work of the Sunday School, contributed the highest amount, $30, and received the missionary banner.

This week is corn thinning week with the farmers. We had warmer weather in March than we have had since. The cool weather has kept the corn from growing but no doubt has been a benefit to the wheat crop, yet the scab is showing on the wheat some. The hay crop is said to be small, yet there is time for it to improve under favorable circumstances. Those who have been sick and are improving are Mrs. Wm. J. Hurlock, Wallace Atwell, Mrs. Minnie Hurlock, and Jas. Pote. The M. P. Sunday School will hold their Children's Day service (to-morrow) Sunday morning, June 12th, commencing at 10.30 A. M. Everybody likes to hear the children, so don't forget the object of Children's Day but remember it by a contribution for a good cause. Members meeting in the church Tuesday evening, the 14th, for the election of church and parsonage trustees and other business. A full attendance desired. Regular services on Sunday night.
