COMMENCEMENT DAYS.

The High Schools of the County Hold Interesting Exercises, and Many Fair Graduates Make Their Debut to the World.

The commencement of the Rock Hall High School was held in Rock Hall M. E. Church on last Monday night beginning at 8 30 o'clock. The church was beautifully decorated with potted flowers, and was filled to its utmost capacity with friends and relatives of the graduates. In the front row upon the pulpit sat the graduating class, Misses Mary Anne Davis, Anna Regina Rich, Lillian Virginia Taylor, Bearyl E. Smith, all dressed in white. Directly behind them sat Mr. Milton Melvin, County Supt.; Rev V. P. Northup, of Rock Hall M. E. Church; Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, of Chestertown M. P. Church, and Prof. Walter H. Davis and Prof. Frank A. Greenhawk, faculty of the school. And in the chorus box sat the school girls and boys who sang beautifully, after which the following program was rendered: March; invocation; chorus, Last Day of School; salutatory, Mary Anne Davis; solo, Mr. Thomas W. Perkins; class history, Anna Regina Rich; class prophecy, Lillian Virginia Taylor; music, Mrs. Sudlersross and Miss Connor; valedictory, Bearyl Elizabeth Smith; solo, Prof. Judefind; address, Rev. Dr. F. T. Little; solo, Mr. Thomas W. Perkins; presenation of diplomas, Supt. Milton Melvin; chorus, Graduates Farewell Song; benediction, Rev. V. P. Northuy. The address of Dr. F. T. Little was a favorable one, highly appropriate for the occasion, and his delivery was such that every word could be heard distinctly in any part of the church. Should the graduates or those that heard him follow his advice, a successful career would be clinched. The utmost thought with which he sought to impress his hearers was, "That whatever walk of life a person may choose to make that life clean or successful, he or she, must place their trust in God." The solo of Mr. Thomas W. Perkins was highly appreciated by all.

Under the able management of Prof. Davis, who is a graduate of Washington College, this honored school has made rapid strides during the past year, and the principal and his excellent faculty deserve the highest commendation for the splendid results achieved during the year.

The commencement exercises of the Chestertown High School were held in the Assembly Hall on Tuesday evening. A large audience of friends and relatives filled the hall, whose stage was beautifully decorated with plants, flowers, class pennants and works of art. Seated upon the stage were Principal Smyth and his faculty, the school officials, the graduates and Revs. Drs. F. T. Little and L. E. Barnett. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev Dr. Barrett. Miss Stephanie Marcie Ford delivered a strong address on "Japan, Yesterday and To-day;" Miss Virginia Little read the class Prophecy and Miss Araminta Brinsfield delivered the Valedictory, "God in Nature." Mr. John P. Ahern, president of the School Board, delivered the address to the graduates. It was one of the most unique and appropriate addresses ever delivered at a commencement here. It had two striking features—brevity and splendid advice. Mr. Ahern delivered his address exclusively to the graduates, and if they make it the rule of their lives to practice what he preached, as he himself does in all his relations in life, they will not fail to make a success of their life work. Mr. Ahern said more in the few minutes he addressed the graduates than many speakers would have said in thrice the time, and he is an excellent man to have around on such an occasion as a school commencement. In delivering the diplomas to the graduates, Prof. Milton Melvin, told of the prominence of the former graduates of the High Schools in other schools, stating that they occupied the highest places of honor in their classes, and were noted for their excellent work. This was a great compliment to Principal Smyth and his excellent corps of instructors. Principal Smyth announced the following prizes: To Miss Araminta Brinsfield the Toulson prize for first honor in the senior class; to Daniel McKee from the teachers for best work in his grade, and to Kitty Chambers from the teachers for best worker in the school. The Chestertown Orchestra rendered delightful music for the occasion. The graduates were: High School—Ida Smith, Edna Dunbracco, Genevieve Dixon, Virginia Little, Araminta Brinsfield, Stephanie Ford and Hope Hudson. Commercial Department—Mildred Davis, George Baldwin, Robert Moffett, Townsend Anthony.

Araminta Brinsfield won first honor, Stephanie Ford second, and Virginia Little third honor. The graduates received numerous and valuable present.

The commencement exercises of the Piney Neck High School were held last Wednesday evening. The following very interesting programme was prepared by Prof. Charles Wheatley, the principal, and his assistants: Song, "Sweet and Low," school; prayer, Rev. Mr. Conway; Maypole Dance, school; exercises, first grade; solo, Mr. Jas. H. Shuster; address to graduates, Mr. L. B. Russell; Springtime song, schools; presentation of diploma, Prof. Milton Melvin; award of prizes, Prof. Charles F. Wheatley, principal; song, "Swing High, Swing Low," principal; benediction.

Turner's Creek School, teacher Miss Margaret Brinsfield, held a picnic at Hepbron and Usilton's, on Friday, June 17 h. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent by pupils, patrons and friends.

The literary program, consisting of recitations music drills and pantomimes, was well rendered; jokes were read which greatly amused the audience.

Song, Never Say Fail, School; recitation, An Apology, Harry Archibald; recitation, Dolls School, Bessie Meguire; recitation, If I Could Vote, Walter Anthony; recitation Rural Telephone, Beulah Kendall; solo Dan Simple, Katie Bramble; recitation, Geography, Norman Bramble; recitation, The Girl Who Smiles, Esther Meguire; recitation, Daniel Webster, Willie Garey; drill, six girls; Mother's waist, Urie Jones; recitation, Mud Pies Stel Anthony; song, Room At The Top, School; recitation, Chewing Gum, Nellie Jones; recitation, Herbert Bramble; jokes, Urie Jones; recitation, School Mistress, Reba Gears; recitation, Just Playing, Mary Jones; duett, Columbia Gem of The Ocean.

After partaking of ice cream and cake the old men and boys went to the base ball field where an interesting game of ball was played. Score 12 to 7 in favor of the men.

We hope Miss Brinsfield will return in September and continue her good work.
