It is adjustable in every part and accessible. A look will prove its superiority. Its oiling system is perfect. Guaranteed no smoke from rear and no miss firing from spark plugs. After months of use, plugs will not soil your handkerchief.

The Reo can be changed from a touring car to a Roadster or Delivery Car in 3 minutes.

Amusing price cuts in Spring and Summer Goods. It isn't a surprising thing that our various lines this season are better in every way than they were last season. The surprising thing would be if they were not. Some merchants seem to think that when they reach a certain point in their stock it is well lastingly pushed to bring better stock, more up-to-date in quality for less money than previous seasons.

The absolute certainty of satisfaction in Shoe value for the whole family. No old stock, everything new, fresh, up-to-date in style and quality in High and Low Shoes for the whole family. My exclusive lines are better in value than any previous seasons. You could actually save money by buying your footwear here.

Galena Notes.

The Galena Bank opened for business on Thursday, with Mr. James D. Davis, Jr., cashier. This bank will be a branch of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland.

Miss Mae Nickerson and Miss Mary Steele, trained nurses of Philadelphia, enjoyed a ten days vacation at their homes here.

Prof. Howard, of the Academy, has gone to his home near Elkton, to spend the summer vacation.

Mrs. George Clough, near Millington, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Nickerson.

Quite a number of Galena people attended the sale of the Pennington-Jervis Spencer farm in Chestertown on Tuesday.

Rev. A. P. Prettyman's daughter, who has been quite sick with scarlet fever, is improving, we are glad to state. A trained nurse from Baltimore is in attendance.

Mr. Daniel Steele, wife and child, of Dutch Neck, N. J., spent a few days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Steele. Mr. Steele returned home on Sunday, while his wife and child will remain longer.

Rev. Mr. Lewis, of the M.E. Church, preached two able sermons on Sunday. The first quarterly conference was held on Saturday, and the reports showed the church to be in better financial condition than for years.

There will be no interruption to the business of Messrs. Davis Bros., the hardware firm, on account of the promotion of Mr. James Davis to the cashiership of the bank.

Mrs. Richard Lockwood and Mr. S.G. Caldwell have recently purchased fine automobiles.

Farmers are expecting a fine yield of wheat. The grain is in excellent condition and many farmers are predicting a yield of from 30 to 40 bushels per acre.

There will be a number of removals among the farmers next year, which will be reported later.

Still Pond Notes.

Misses Anna Smith and Lenora Davis, of Chestertown, spent a few days in our town.

Mrs. Wm. Thompson spent Thursday in Baltimore.

Mr. Lemont Hackett and Price Jones, of Baltimore, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett.

Messrs. Edmund Nugent and Laurie Hackett, of Chestertown, spent Sunday in Still Pond.

Mr. Norman Johnston spent a few days in Baltimore.

A few from our town witnessed the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Crew, at Betterton. Heartiest congratulations to the young couple.

Mr. Ben Quimby, of Seaford, Del., visited his sister, Mrs. Lizzie Dowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Katz, of Camden, N. J., spent the week with her grandfather, Mr. John Robinson.

Miss Ethel Robinson spent a few days last week with her friend, Miss Viola Hickman, Betterton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett gave their daughter, Miss Lydia, an 18th birthday party. Quite a large crowd was present. Everything looked nice, the house being decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, and the lawn with Japanese lanterns. Games were played until half after ten, when all were invited to the dining-room, where the table was groaning with good things. Lydia received a fine lot of presents and everybody had a good time. Many more happy birthdays, Lydia.

PRIZE INCREASED TO $250.

For Essay Showing What High License Costs Baltimore.

The offer last week by the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland of prizes of $100 and $50 for the best and second best essays on the question:

"What it costs the people of Baltimore morally, physically, mentally, financially and industrially to secure the million dollars which it now receives from the liquor traffic under the High License Law," has stirred up so much interest already that a prominent temperance man has made a special contribution to the prize fund which increases the first prize to $250.

The League expects to be able to secure additional prize contributions sufficient to increase the first prize to $500, and hopes to be able by fall to offer $1,000, an amount which the League believes will make the contest noteworthy throughout the country and sufficient to attract contestants of such prominence and ability that the winning essay will be accepted as conclusive.

The contest is open to anybody, anywhere, except employees of the Anti-Saloon League. January 1, 1911, is the date when all essays, typewritten, must be in the hands of Rev. J. F. Heisse, D. D., Chairman of the Headquarters Committee of the Maryland League.
