Going To Bar Meeting.

The Marylaed State Bar Association will meet jointly next week with the Virginia State Bar Association at Hot Springs, Va. The meeting will be held July 26, 27 and 28. Many members are assuring Secretary James W. Chapman, Jr., that they will attend.

THE FIRST JOINT MEETING.

The meeting will be the second one the Maryland association has held outside the State and the first one held jointly with another association. Last year's meeting was at Old Point Comfort, Va., where an invitation for a joint meeting was given by the Virginia body. It is recognized by the officers of the two associations that the meeting will be an important one, as it will be the first of its kind, and they have spared no effort to make it attractive.

THE OFFICIAL PROGRAM.

Following is the full program of the meeting.

Monday, July 25, 8 P. M.—Meeting of standing committees of Virginia Bar Association.

Tuesday, July 26, 10.30 A. M.—Joint meeting of the two associations, president of Virginia Bar Association, R. Walton Moore, presiding. Welcome address by chairman of executive council of Virginia Bar Association, George C. Gregory. Paper by R. Walton Moore, president of Virginia Bar Association. Paper by S. S. Field, of Maryland Bar Association, 8.30 P. M., Col. David G. McIntosh, president of Maryland Bar Association, presiding. Paper by Col. McIntosh. Paper by Alfred G. Thom, of Virginia Bar Association, general counsel of Southern Railroad.

Wednesday, July 27, 10.30 A. M.—Joint meeting both presidents on the platform. Paper by Edwin G. Baetjer, of Maryland Bar Association. Address by Edwin A. Alderman, president of University of Virginia. 8.30 P. M., separate business meeting of the two associations.

Thursday, July 28, 10.30 A. M.—Joint meeting both presidents on the platform. Paper by Judge Horace G. Lurton, of the Supreme Court of the United States. 8.30 P. M., joint banquet of the associations, Henry St. George Tucker, toastmaster.

At the business meeting of the Maryland Association a number of important recommendations will be made by the committee on laws, of which Mr. William L. Marbury is chairman. The following nominations for officers for the ensuing year will also be voted on: President, William L. Marbury, Baltimore; vice-presidents, Phillips Lee Goldsborough, Dorchester county; William W. Beck, Kent county; Elmer J. Cook, Baltimore county; J. Clarence Lane, Washington county; J. William Reifsnider, Carroll county; Charles W. Prettyman, Montgomery county; John B. Gray, Calvert county; Robert H. Smith, Baltimore, and Charles W. Heuisler, Baltimore: secretary James W. Chapman, Jr., treasurer, R. Bennett Darnall, Baltimore; executive council, Charles Morris Howard, Baltimore; C. E. Fink, Carroll county; F. Snowden Hill, Prince George's county, and Alexander H. Robertson, Baltimore.

Dynamiting Fish.

On Thursday last, Capt. Joseph Burton, of this city, while taking several gentlemen out trolling for bass and rock in Swan Creek, picked up a lot of rock fish that had been dynamited the night previous. Many of these fish weighed from twenty-five to thirty pounds, and the water was strewn with the floating dead fish.

It is useless for us to state that the killing of fish by dynamite is illegal and unlawful, and heavy penalties are prescribed for such violations, being a fine of not less than $300, and cost of prosecution, in the default of which not less than a year in the House of Correction.

It is a burning outrage, and we call upon Governor Crothers, to see that the State Game Warden is apprised of these violations, and that proper steps are taken to prevent further outrages of this character, and the aid of the law invoked to arrest such violators.

A liberal reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of anyone found guilty of this dynamiting by some of our local rod and line fishermen who are justly incensed at the outrages of these "pirates."—Havre de Grace Republican.

DECISION FAVORS ARCANUMITES.

The older members of the local Order of the Royal Arcanum are much gratified over the decision of the Supreme Court in Brooklyn, N. Y., to the effect that the Order has no right to increase the assessment of its members.

Mr. L. Jeff Milbourne, one of the charter members of Carrollton Council said that this decision is in line with decisions given in other State Courts. Mr. Milbourne stated further that so far no test case has been made in Maryland, but that in all probability the courts will soon be called upon to act on the question.

In his decision Justice Kelly held that the officers of the Supreme Council have no power to increase assessments without the consent of the members. This decision he stated, was based on the fact that there is nothing in the original contract between the applicant and the Order giving the Supreme Council such a right.

"The conceded necessity for increased revenues," said the Court, "is held to be no answer to the claim of the individual that his right to pay at the old rate is a vested contract right."

Amusing price cuts in Spring and Summer Goods. It isn't a surprising thing that our various lines this season are better in every way than they were last season. The surprising thing would be if they were not. Some merchants seem to think that when they reach a certain point in their stock it is well enough to stop. This is not my policy. I can truly state, I seem to be everlastingly pushed to bring better stock, more up-to-date in quality for less money than previous seasons.

The absolute certainty of satisfaction in Shoe value for the whole family. No old stock, everything new, fresh, up-to-date in style and quality in High and Low Shoes for the whole family. My exclusive lines are better in value than any previous seasons. You could actually save money by buying your footwear here.
