The Transcript.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 20, 1910.

R. H. COLLINS, T. D. BOWERS
EDITORS.

THE New York Herald will announce today ex-President Theodore Roosevelt for President for 1912. The announcement, it is said, will be made without Mr. Roosevelt's authority, but it is declared to come from absolute authentic sources. He will be announced as in accord with the progressive Republicans.

THE TURNING DOWN of ex-President Roosevelt by the New York Republican committee for temporary chairman of the State Convention, which meets at Saratoga on Sept. 27, and recommending Mr. Sherman as the temporary chairman is said to have made Mr. Roosevelt very angry, and it will no doubt cause an interesting political tilt in New York Republican politics. Mr. Roosevelt upon receiving information of the result of the committee's recommendation immediately enrolled himself as a progressive so far as the New York situation goes. This means that the ex-President will oppose the "Old Guard" in that State.

MR. J. HARRY COVINGTON, the Democratic member of Congress from this district, and candidate to succeed himself, will be at Betterton Friday next, August 26th. Mr. Covington, who is a fluent and convincing talker, will speak at the upper popular bayside resort during the afternoon of the 26th and tell the people of this section of some of the doings at our National Capital. He will be glad to have his friends and the public generally meet him at Betterton on the above date. All who can should avail themselves of the opportunity to meet the man who has so ably represented them the past two years in Congress. Let's all go to Betterton next Friday.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

☞ The columns of the TRANSCRIPT are open to the proper discussion of all topics of public interest or importance. Whether the editors agree with the sentiment expressed or not, the people should and may be heard through the TRANSCRIPT's columns—the paper will be the People's Forum from which they may be heard on all subjects—purely personal matter excepted. The Editors are not responsible in any manner for articles that appear in this column.

Rock Hall, August 18, 1910.

EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT—DEAR SIRS: I have looked at the Road Engineer's account for July rendered by Mr. Isaac Gibbs and published in the TRANSCRIPT.

But for the TRANSCRIPT we would have had no knowledge of this remarkable "account." One can read this illuminating paper to the right or to the left, upside or downside, and know no more about it than he did before he read it. It certainly must have been intended, under the law, that the engineer in filing reports should give items, names, dates and amounts, otherwise, what is the use of rendering such accounts as these?

As one tax-payer I write to ask if it is not the duty of the county commissioners, or their attorney, to ask the court to compel the engineer to render different and itemized accounts and so enlighten the people of this county as to the amounts he spends, to whom he pays it, with dates, character of work done, etc.

I will tell you one incident that come under my notice, of many. One man working in the Fifth, we suppose, at three dollars, working two laborers at $1.50, making $6.00 each day, which the law gives them the right; heretofore these same number of workmen got $2.50 I know they must have a snap, as he has one colored man at work who never works, that the community knows never works, unless he gets more compensation than anyone else.

TAX-PAYER OF THE FIFTH.

Order of Publication.

Wilbur W. Hurlock, Katie Hurlock, Margaret Catherine Hurlock, infant; Mary Adelia Hurlock, infant; Louis Harland Hurlock, infant, by their father and next friend, Wilbur W. Hurlock; Wilbur W. Hurlock, executor of Samuel R. Hurlock, vs.

Oliver C. Denison, Margaret P. Mifflin, James V. Johnson, Edward Eccles and all the unknown heirs of J. Caroline Hurlock.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland. No. 1752, In Equity.

The object of this Bill is to procure a Decree of this Honorable Court for the appointment of a Trustee to release a certain mortgage from John S. Hurlock and wife to J. Caroline Hurlock, for the sum of $3,000.00. The bill states:

1. That a certain John S. Hurlock and Henrietta M. Hurlock, his wife, did, on or about the 1st day of May in the year 1874, execute a mortgage upon a certain farm in Kent county, Maryland, containing 203 acres, 2 roods and 3 perches of land, which was duly executed, acknowledged and recorded in Liber D. C. B. No. 1, folios 149, etc., one of the Land Record Books for Kent county, Maryland, to J. Caroline Hurlock to secure the loan of three thousand ($3,000) dollars made to the said John S. Hurlock by the said J. Caroline Hurlock; all of which will appear by reference to the said mortgage, a duly certified copy of which is filed with this Bill of Complaint and prayed to be taken as a part hereof, and marked "Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 1"

2. Your Orators show that subseqently the said farm mentioned in the said mortgage was purchased of William Walter Hurlock, a son of the said John S. Hurlock by Samuel R. Hurlock another son, and a deed therefor was executed to the said Samuel R. Hurlock and the purchase price in full paid by the said Samuel R. Hurlock to the said William Walter Hurlock and at the time of the said sale to the said Samuel R. Hurlock by the said William Walter Hurlock neither the said Samuel R. Hnrlock nor William Walter Hurlock knew of the existence of said mortgage of three thousand ($3000) dollars, so as aforesaid executed by their father, John S. Hurlock in his life time to the said J. Caroline Hurlock.

3. And your Orators show that the said John S. Hurlock departed this life on or before the twenty-second day of July, 1879, that his estate was administered upon in the Orphans Court for Kent county, Maryland, and the said mortgage was never filed against his estate and no claim was made thereon for the the said mortgage debt.

4. That the said J. Caroline Hurlock lived in the State of Delaware, and departed this life on or about the month of March in the year 1887, and administered upon her estate in the State of Delaware. and no account was ever taken of the said mortgage indebtedness of three ($3000) dollars, for the reason, that the same was paid in full by the said John S. Hurlock to the said J. Caroline Hurlock in her life time

5. Your Orators show that the said Samuel R. Hurlock has departed this life, having died in August, in the year 1908, and that letters on his estate were committed unto Wilbur W. Hurlock as will appear by reference to a duly certified copy of the said letters filed herewith, and prayed to be taken a part hereof and marked "Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 2," and the said Samuel R. Hurlock left as his heirs-at-law the said Wilbur W. Hurlock, his only son, and Katie Hurlock, his wife; Margaret Catherine Hurlock, Mary Adelia Hurlock and Louise Harland Hurlock are his grandchilden, all of whom are interested in securing the release of the said mortgage for three thousand ($3,000) dollars.

6. And your orators show unto your honors that they have made diligent inquiry to ascertain whether or not the personal representatives of the said J. Caroline Hurlock are alive, so that they could execute a valid release of the said mortgage since the original mortgage has been lost, and through neglect it was never released on the records, but they learn that James M. Vandegrift, who administered on her estate, is dead.

7. And your orators have made diligent inquiry to ascertain all the heirs-at-law of the said J. Caroline Hurlock, they show she died leaving no children, but she had in her life time two brothers and one sister; and your orators show that the names of the brothers of said J. Caroline Hurlock, whose maiden name was Vandegift, were Francis Jacob Vandegrift and James M. Vandegrift; also a sister whose name cannot be ascertained, but who married a certain Samuel Eccles.

8. Your orators are informed that Francis Jacob Vandegrift is dead, but left no children. That James M. Vandegrift is dead, and left three daughters, Olivia C., who married G. W. Denson, J. Caroline, otherwise called "Lina," who married B. S. Johnson, Margaret P., who married William P. Mifflin. That J. Caroline, otherwise called "Lina" Johnson, is dead and left one son, James V. Johnson. Mrs. Denison is living at Little Rock, Ark.; Mrs. Wm. P. Mifflin resides in the city of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Samuel Eccles left one son, Edward Eccles, who your orators are informed died in Dover, Delaware; Edward left one son now living in Australia, and a daughter living in Virginia, near Washington, D. C. And all the other heirs-at-law of the said J. Caroline Hurlock, so far as your orators can ascertain upon due and diligent inquiry, are unknown; and your orators, therefore, ask that all unknown heirs of J. Caroline Hurlock may be made parties to the proceedings by means of an order of publication, in order that the rights of your orators may be conserved and secured.

10. And your orators are informed that it is necessary for them to apply to a Court of Equity in order that a Trustee may be appointed with power to release said mortgage on the records of this court.

11. And your orators show that the said mortgage has long since matured, is out of date, the same is barred by the statute of limitations, that no interest has been paid on same since prior to the death of John S. Hurlock, and they aver that the same was paid during the lifetime of the said J. Caroline Hurlock by the said John S. Hurlock, and that it would be inequitable and unjust to let the same remain on record as an apparent lien against the said property so as aforesaid purchased by the said Samuel R. Hurlock.

12. And your orators show that the said farm has been sold by Hope H. Barroll and Sidney P. Townshend, trustees, duly appointed by this Honorable Court under its decree, but the purchaser, William T. Baxter, declines to pay the entire purchase money until the said mortgage is first released, and since it is right and proper that the same should be released and the apparent, but only apparent defect in the title, caused by the non-satisfaction of the mortgage removed.

13. Wherefore, your orators are advised that it is necessary for them to apply to this Honorable Court and ask that a Trustee shall be appointed for the purpose of executing a release of the said mortgage in order that all the rights and equities of the parties to this proceeding may be secured and protected.

It is thereupon this 17th day of August, 1910, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent County in equity, that the plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 19th day of September, 1910, give notice to the said non-resident defendants, Olivia C. Denison, Margaret P. Mifflin, James V. Johnson, Edward Eccles and all the unknown heirs of J. Caroline Hurlock warning them to appear in this court by person or by solicitor, on or before the 6th day of October next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
