Thrown From Carriage.—As Mr. Ollie Estes and family were returning from Tolchester one evening last week, the horse which he was driving got its foot caught in a dangerous hole in a bridge in Tolchester lane. The horse was thrown to the ground and the force of his fall threw the occupants out. Mrs. Estes received injuries which have confined her to her bed the greater part of the week. It required the assistance of a colored man, who happened along to extricate the horse's foot from the hole, though he received no apparent injury. This hole has been a menace to travel for some time, and it should have been repaired long ago. It is such places as these in the road that will cause Kent county a law suit sometime.
