Amusing price cuts in Spring and Summer Goods. It isn't a surprising thing that our various lines this season are better in every way than they were last season. The surprising thing would be if they were not. Some merchants seem to think that when they reach a certain point in their stock it is well enough to stop. This is not my policy. I can truly state, I seem to be everlastingly pushed to bring better stock, more up-to-date in quality for less money than previous seasons.

The absolute certainty of satisfaction in Shoe value for the whole family. No old stock, everything new, fresh, up-to-date in style and quality in High and Low Shoes for the whole family. My exclusive lines are better in value than any previous seasons. You could actually save money by buying your footwear here.

All Summer Shoes and Low-Quarters Reduced. 24.00 Low-Quarters... $3.50 25.00 Low-Quarters... $3.00 26.00 Low-Quarters... $2.50 27.00 Low-Quarters... $2.00 28.00 Low-Quarters... $1.75 29.00 Low-Quarters... $1.50 30.00 Low-Quarters... $1.25 31.00 Low-Quarters... $1.00 32.00 Low-Quarters... $0.75 33.00 Low-Quarters... $0.50 34.00 Low-Quarters... $0.25 35.00 Low-Quarters... $0.00

STUPID PEOPLE. Couldn't Tell What Grew Up Straight and Was Served on Toast.

Never ask any one to supply you with a missing word, says a writer in the Atchison Globe, and if the experience which he relates is typical it is good advice. A woman was engaged recently in writing a letter to a friend, in which she was telling of what they had to eat at a party. She was getting along very well when all of a sudden she stopped to think. "What," she called to her family, "that green stuff that grows up straight?" "Evergreen trees," some one replied. "Oh, no," said the woman; "I mean something to eat."

"Onions," was the reply. "No," she said, "not onions."

"Lettuce," "beans," "peas," and so on, were all called out by the family, all anxious to supply the missing word. "None of them is right," said the woman. Then she tried a new tack. "What is it," she said, "they serve on toast?"

"Poached eggs," said one member of the family. "Jam," said another. Then the woman got up, tore her letter into pieces and put the thing off till later on.

Three days later she was in a grocery store and saw something marked "15 cents a bunch" that sent her running all the way home.

"It was asparagus!" she cried. "I should think some of you might have known it was asparagus! Didn't I say it grew up straight and was served on toast?"

ABSRUD FASHIONS. Hairdressing and Hats in the Time of Marie Antoinette. Some of the fashions in France during the reign of unfortunate Queen Marie Antoinette were exceedingly absurd, particularly hairdressing and hats, which were trimmed with such an extravagant wealth of feathers that the coaches had to have their seats lowered. According to Mme. Campan, "mothers and husbands murmured, and the general rumor was that the queen would ruin the French ladies."

One day Louis XVI. decided to forbid the court in a body to follow the royal hunt in coaches. In order to be freer he wished only to permit real sportsmen to attend. The noble ladies immediately rebelled, and the Princess of Monaco criticised the decision by means of her hairdresser, upon which arose a miniature royal coach, followed by two gentlemen on foot in gaiters. On the left of this was displayed a cypress garlanded with black tears, the large roots being formed of crape.

More absurd still was the hairdressing of the mother of Louis Philippe, upon whose head every one could admire her son, the Duc de Beaujolais, in the arms of his nurse as well as a parrot pecking at a cherry.

Her Only Criticism. Little Dorothy not only liked her tea and coffee to have the appearance of being "real and truly," but she also liked to taste the flavor of each. One afternoon her mother took her to a friend's home where tea was served at 5 o'clock.

The hostess gave to Dorothy what she usually gave to her own children, of Dorothy's age, in the line of liquid refreshment—viz, hot water, sugar and milk. Dorothy tasted hers politely and ate her little cakes. "Why, Dorothy, you aren't drinking your tea, dear. Isn't it sweet enough?" asked the hostess. "Yes, Mrs. C., it's sweet enough," replied the child. "Then why aren't you taking it?" "It's too dull," she replied.—New York Times.

Another Meaning. A traveler to the north on the Great Northern railway, having delivered his luggage to the care of an alert railway porter, proceeded to make himself comfortable in the corner of a first class smoking compartment. The porter, having performed his duty, came to the carriage to report, not without expectation of acceptable reward. "Well," said the passenger, "I see by the letters 'G. N. R.' on your cap, 'Gratuities never received.'" "Not quite that, sir," replied the porter, touching his cap peak. "It might mean 'gratuities never refused.'" And the way that porter smiled when he left the carriage betokened his satisfaction at the material result of his smart answer and the service he had rendered.—London Mail.

First Potatoes in Scotland. It is claimed by a correspondent that the first person to grow potatoes in the open field in Scotland was Thomas Prentice, a day laborer in the West Barony of the parish in Glasgow, near Chapel Green. That was in the year 1728. It was about four years after that date that he (Prentice) entered the market with them and was very successful with his experiment, as he made 2300 of it, which he sank in double interest and died at Edinburgh in 1762.—Glasgow Herald.

Strictly Legal. "What is a young man to do when his attention has been arrested by a pretty girl?" "Why, carry his case to court, of course."—Red Hen.

Sarcastic. "Is she a great singer?" "No! I shouldn't call her great. You can understand every word she sings."—Detroit Free Press.

Civilization. The upward sweep of civilization is not unlike the rising of the incoming tide. It advances and recedes, but each advance carries humanity to a higher altitude than it had reached before.—B. O. Flower.
